Indigenous voices come together in this volume to discuss both the wounds of colonial history and the opportunities for decolonization reconciliation and hope in the relationship between the church and Indigenous peoples across the Americas Scholars and pastoral leaders from Chile Bolivia Brazil Mexico the United States and Canada and Indigenous peoples of Mapuche Chiquitano Tzeltal Maya Oglala Sioux Mi kmaq and Anishinaabe Ojibwe reflect on the possibility of constructing decolonial theology and pastoral praxis and on the urgent need for transformation of church structures and old theology The book opens new horizons for different ways of thinking and acting and for the emergence of a truly intercultural theology

Mission and Development Matthew Clarke, 2012-01-26 This book considers the implications consequences opportunities and constraints faced when mission and development endeavours coincide This is explored from various perspectives including that of history theology and those involved in mission work and missionary organizations Despite eighty per cent of the world s population professing religious belief religion has been largely excluded from consideration of those seeking to achieve development in poorer countries Moreover the work of missionaries has often involved the provision of basic welfare services that in many parts of the world predate the interventions undertaken by professional secular aid workers Are missionaries doing development work or is development a critical aspect of mission Women and Christian Mission Frances Adeney,2015-11-04 What are Christian women thinking about mission How do they do mission What informs their knowledge and action as they address issues in a complex world where religious proselytizing has become suspect This empirical study explores those questions finding congruence among women from diverse backgrounds and cultural contexts Women in mission face common identity issues utilize art and beauty in their work and develop character as they overcome obstacles in their cultural and denominational settings Through nearly one hundred interviews of women in Europe Asia Brazil and the United States a study of women s theologies of mission lectures and countless conversations with women around the globe this study finds common themes among contemporary women doing Christian mission This book fills a lacuna in mission studies that professors pastors and church women and men will find informative and refreshing Berlin Fellowship Jane Holslag,2013 Between 1961 and 1989 in East Germany the Cold War border was crossed through the Berlin Fellowship an ecumenical visitation program Under the watchful eye of East Germany s security police the Stasi East German Christians welcomed guests from the US into their congregations and homes for an hour an evening or a weekend of discussion shared meals and worship The voice of the other through Eastern recollections and perspectives on this unique form of koinonia reveal how fellowship can be missional and transformative This book examines the intercultural history of the Berlin Fellowship during the Cold War Series ContactZone Explorations in Intercultural Theology Vol 14 Reweaving the Ministries Gilbert Ostdiek, OFM,2021-06-15 As the Emmaus story unfolds it moves from catechesis to Eucharist to mission It is a promising paradigm for the process of reweaving the present array of parish ministries into an integrated pastoral practice Gilbert Ostdiek OFM invites those engaged in ministry and those preparing for it to think of their own ministry as part of a larger pastoral tapestry He also extends the Emmaus paradigm to pastoral leaders who have the responsibility to integrate and coordinate the practice of ministry at parish and diocesan levels Reweaving the Ministries invites all who are involved in ministry to become ever more fully in St Paul s description co workers with one another and co workers with God in the care of God s people Surprised by God Christina R. Zaker,2020-12-11 Our God is a God of surprises Am I open to the God of surprises Pope Francis 2014 Responding to this challenge Surprised by God explores what it means to reflect on life and our journey of faith Theological reflection has been primarily used in academic training for ministry preparation but it is an essential tool for any person pondering Pope Francis questions Christina Zaker provides an in depth look at the foundational elements of theological reflection including definitions and guidance through various methods Offering a lens for reflection based on the unique way Jesus parables surprise and invite listeners to collaborate in the reign of God the book foregrounds the importance of reflection as a spiritual practice committed to justice Reveling in the many ways God surprises us we learn how to respond to the invitation of faith with open minds and hearts Creativity and Captivity Uday Balasundaram,2021-12-02 Ultimately what really does it mean to be creative How can we see ourselves as participating in the creativity of God for mission All people are creative Sadly however for many creativity is stifled and remains stunted due to several reasons social economic political cultural and even spiritual This study explores how ICMs indigenous cosmopolitan musicians negotiate their creativity amid the liminal spaces they occupy as they share in the creativity of God for mission through their music But what exactly does it mean to share in the creativity of God for mission Contrary to popular notion ICMs evidence that creativity is not merely innovation it is not a psychological metric for measuring human potential it is certainly not the icing on the cake reserved for a few so called creatives or artists Rather theological creativity is participation in the creatio Dei it is theologically prior to mission As a missiological framework creatio Dei is understood here in terms of creative being creative construction design and creative performance Hopefully this book can help clarify and expand our understanding of what it means to be truly creative and thereby with the help of the Creator put into practice principles of theological creativity as we share in the creativity of God in the world with others

Models of Contextual Theology Stephen B. Bevans, 2002 Stephen B Bevans s Models of Contextual Theology has become a staple in courses on theological method and as a handbook used by missionaries and other Christians concerned with the Christian tradition s understanding of itself in relation to culture First published in 1992 and now in its seventh printing in English with translations underway into Spanish Korean and Indonesian Bevans s book is a judicious examination of what the terms contextual theology and to contextualize mean In the revised and expanded edition Bevans adds a counter cultural model to the five presented in the first edition the translation the anthropological the praxis the synthetic and the transcendental model This means that readers will be introduced to the way in which figures such as Stanley Hauerwas John Milbank Lesslie Newbigin and occasionally Pope John Paul II need to be taken into account The author s revisions also incorporate suggestions made by reviewers to enhance the clarity of the original three chapters on the nature of contextual theology and the five models Church for Every Context Michael Moynagh, 2014-04-15 The first comprehensive textbook on the theology and methodology of Fresh Expressions one of the most important developments within the contemporary church Through Our Long Exile Kenneth Leech, 2001 A provocative and powerful analysis of the way ahead for the churches in Britain today Constants in Context Stephen B. Bevens, Roger P. Schroeder, Roger Schroeder, 2004-01-01 Mission is handicapped without a sound biblical theology of mission and an understanding of the history of mission leading up to our current context Constants in Context offers both of these elements It is mission theology in historical perspective and or a history of mission that is grounded theologically The authors describe it as a systematic theology with mission at its core and a church history shaped by the constant but always contextual Christian traditions Furthermore it is a constructive contribution to how mission theology needs to be practical and lived out through today's church and in our world Written collaboratively by Roman Catholic writers Stephen Bevens and Roger Schroeder both Missionaries of the Divine Word SVDs It is a particularly insightful in regard to the history and the various streams of Catholic mission but it also addresses and learns from the other traditions of the church In fact one of the book's strengths is its attention to neglected aspects and hidden stories of church and mission history As a result it is gratifying to be inspired by non European mission women in mission and various forgotten or often ignored branches of the church The book is in three sections first there is a framework for cultural contexts and theological constants second an in depth exploration of historical stages and different models for mission and third a presentation of theological frameworks for mission The third section concludes with a case for mission as prophetic dialogue being the most appropriate model for 21st century mission Amazon.com The Spirit in the Church and the World Bradford E.
