The Farm At Richwood And Other Poems:

The Farm at Richwood and Other Poems Hazard Adams, 1997 In his Afterword to this finely honed and memorable collection written over some 40 years time Hazard Adams characterizes these poems as those I am willing to stand by He has chosen well This is a radiant volume rich with imagery and enlivened with a wry and witty sensibility its five parts charged with the sweep of a small drama These are poems that wear well and welcome repeated reading They are a pleasure to read aloud Adams opens with a series of strong spare bittersweet elegies to his parents and grandparents and to his own rural beginnings as he wrestles with the shifting roles of child and man actor and observer He ranges over many subjects and themes through the bemused Nine Academic Pieces of the late 1960s and the marvelously absurdist Rhinoceros Who Became Dean through the insightful perspective of times abroad and at home through such deeply moving and contemplative pieces as his elegy on the death of a small child He is a persuasive and versatile master of the poetic line moving with skill between deftly rhythmical free verse and trenchantly epigrammatic observations to the lyrical sonnet whose grace notes conclude the book Hazard Adams holds the Byron W and Alice L Lockwood Professorship in the Humanities at the University of Washington He is the author of numerous published books of literary theory fiction and nonfiction

The Offense of Poetry Hazard Adams, 2011-07-01 There is something offensive and scandalous about poetry judging by the number of attacks on it and defenses of it written over the centuries Poetry Hazard Adams argues exists to offend not through its subject matter but through the challenges it presents to the prevailing view of what language is for Poetry s main cultural value is its offensiveness it should be defended as offensive Adams specifies four poetic offenses gesture drama fiction and trope and devotes a chapter to each ranging across the landscape of traditional literary criticism and exploring the various attitudes toward poetry including both attacks and defenses offered by writers from Plato and Aristotle to Sidney Vico Blake Yeats and Seamus Heaney among others Criticism Adams writes needs renewal in every age to free poetry from the prejudices of that age and the unintended prejudices of even the best critics of the past to free poetry to perform its provocative antithetical cultural role Poetry achieves its cultural value by opposing the binary oppositions form and content fact and fiction reason and emotion that structure and polarize most understandings of literature and of life Adams takes a position antithetical to the extremes of both abstract formalism and the politicization of literary content He concludes with an appreciation of what he calls the double offense of great bad poetry poetry so exceptionally bad that it transcends its shortcomings and leads to gaiety He reminds us that Blake in The Marriage of Heaven and Hell identified angels with the settled and coercive and assigned the qualities of energy and creativity to his devils According to Adams poetry in its broad and traditional sense of all imaginative writing may be identified with Blake s devils

Home Hazard Adams, 2002-08-01 Fact meets fiction in Hazard Adams s latest novel Using an actual turn of the century anarchist commune on Washington s south Puget Sound as the backdrop Adams tells the story of Edward Williams a present day history professor and former vice president at nearby State

University As he studies and imagines the lives of those who participated in the commune which came under vicious attack after the assassination of President McKinley in 1901 Williams is drawn into disputes on his campus over the proposed appointment of a distinguished feminist professor of American studies and an alleged case of sexual harassment Both comic and tragic events ensue Employing photographs taken at Home in 1902 and 2000 and parts of diaries kept by visitors to the commune Adams dramatizes the parallels and contrasts between the events of 1902 and those of 1990 91 as they are experienced by a variety of characters in both periods With Home Adams completes his fictive account of academic life in the latter half of the twentieth century begun with The Horses of Instruction set in the fifties and continued with Many Pretty Toys set in 1970 71

International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes

Academic Child Hazard Adams, 2014-01-10 A leading scholar of English romanticism and literary theory and criticism Hazard Adams writes of a lifetime as a student a teacher and an academic administrator The child of academically minded parents both teachers at Cleveland's Hawken School Adams tells of his family's experiences at Hawken and later Seattle's Lakeside School then his Marine Corps service and education at Princeton and the University of Washington In addition to an illuminating account of his academic career his experiences researching and teaching in Ireland his administrative work in the founding faculty at the University of California's Irvine campus and finally his experiences under the first endowed professorship in the humanities at the University of Washington the memoir also voyages into memories of family friends and colleagues and offers singularly well informed comments on the current state of higher education and the academic experience

Many Pretty Toys Hazard Adams, 2000-02-03 When Nixon orders the bombing of Cambodia the resulting protests push a West Coast university to the brink of anarchy altering irrevocably the lives of students and faculty and disrupting the process of storytelling itself Through the words of two professors and a communal voice known only as We Hazard Adams interweaves the political literary and philosophical developments of the time into a story in which generations and their histories meet as well as literary styles and methods showing how political and intellectual events play on the consciousness of a range of characters The spirit here is serious and generous but not without a satirical element as a communal group attempts to establish an elusive identity With a remarkable breadth of method Adams deliberately evades the usual literary classifications

Blake's Margins Hazard Adams, 2014-11-21 Known for his prophetic and imaginative works of poetry painting and printmaking William Blake was also a prolific reader and annotator of other writers works This is the first work of criticism to consider Blake s annotations in their entirety and it covers such topics as art poetry theology madness and philosophy as well as the authors Lavater Swedenborg Bacon Spurzheim Berkeley and Wordsworth among others International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature The International Who s Who of Authors and Writers offers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters

International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets Over West Frederick Eckman, 1999 This volume offers a generous selection of Eckman s poetry along with five of his critical essays and a sampling of his reviews Also included are commentaries on poetic tributes to and appreciations of Eckman s life and work by friends colleagues fellow poets and former students including Robert Creeley Cid Corman Theodore Enslin Maxine Cassin Carol J Pierman Simon Perchik Gena Ford and Hazard Adams Who's Who in the West Marquis Who's Who, 2006-06 American Book Publishing Record R.R.
