The Final Chapter The Truth Behind New Zealands Most Famous Murder Mystery:

The Crewe Murders Kirsty Johnston, James Hollings, 2023-11-16 The murder of Harvey and Jeannette Crewe in their Pukekawa farmhouse in 1970 remains New Zealand's most infamous cold case. It spawned two trials, two appeals, several books, a film, and eventually a royal commission finding of police corruption. It also resulted in a free pardon, the only time the New Zealand government has bypassed the courts to set a convicted murderer free. And still, the Crewes' killer has not been found. Combining gripping narrative, detailed research, and striking new testimony from those who were there, this book tells the complete story of the case for the first time.

The Final Chapter Chris Birt, 2001 An investigation into New Zealand's most famous unsolved murder case, the 1970 deaths of Jeanette and Harvey Crewe, which was followed by the two convictions of Allan Thomas and his subsequent pardoning. Birt is a journalist who has researched the case for 25 years; he presents the evidence for establishing who committed and assisted in these murders and explores the police investigation.

Webs of Empire Tony Ballantyne, 2014-04-01 Breaking open colonization to reveal tangled cultural and economic networks, Webs of Empire offers new paths into our colonial history. Linking Gore and Chicago, Maori and Asia, India and newspapers, whalers and writing, empire building becomes a spreading web of connected places, people, ideas, and trade. These links question narrow national stories while broadening perspectives on the past and the legacies of colonialism that persist today. Bringing together essays from two decades of prolific publishing on international colonial history, Webs of Empire establishes Tony Ballantyne as one of the leading historians of the British Empire.

The Essence Brian N.

Winslade,2020-03-23 The teaching of Jesus of Nazareth is unparalleled and universally acclaimed in the history of our world Born into relative obscurity and poverty no one has impacted the world to the same extent as Jesus Amidst all he said and did his close friend Matthew a former social outcast captured his teaching delivered on a hillside just above the town where he lived overlooking the Sea of Galilee The fifth sixth and seventh chapters of Matthew s Gospel commonly referred to as the Sermon on the Mount have been described as the essence of all that Jesus taught about God and how we relate with him Every Christian and every preacher must wrestle with the words of Jesus given on a Galilean hillside If a person grasped nothing else of the words Jesus spoke apart from that contained in the Sermon on the Mount he or she catches the essence of his timeless message This book unpacks the essence of Jesus teaching and its remarkable application in our current age a resource for individual Christ followers preachers and a discussion starter for small groups Women's Colonial Gothic Writing, 1850-1930 Melissa Edmundson, 2018-05-19 This book explores women writers involvement with the Gothic The author sheds new light on women s experience a viewpoint that remains largely absent from male authored Colonial Gothic works The book investigates how women writers appropriated the Gothic genre and its emphasis on fear isolation troubled identity racial otherness and sexual deviancy in order to take these anxieties into the farthest realms of the British Empire The chapters show how Gothic themes told from a woman s perspective emerge in unique ways when set in the different colonial regions that comprise the scope of this book Canada the Caribbean Africa India Australia and New Zealand Edmundson argues that women s Colonial Gothic writing tends to be more critical of imperialism and thereby more subversive than that of their male counterparts This book will be of interest to students and academics interested in women s writing the Gothic and colonial studies Late Victorian Crime Fiction in the Shadows of Sherlock C. Clarke, 2014-09-26 This book investigates the development of crime fiction in the 1880s and 1890s challenging studies of late Victorian crime fiction which have given undue prominence to a handful of key figures and have offered an over simplified analytical framework thereby overlooking the generic moral and formal complexities of the nascent genre The Broken Estate Mel Bunce, 2019-09-19 A lack of knowledge about the world can be a very dangerous thing In the age of Trump fake news and clickbait headlines it is easy to despair about the future of journalism The New Zealand and global media are in upheaval the old economic models for print journalism are failing public funding has been neglected for decades and many major news organisations are shedding journalists New Zealander Mel Bunce researches and teaches journalism at the acclaimed Department of Journalism at City University of London Drawing upon the latest international research Bunce provides a fresh analysis that goes beyond the usual anecdote and conjecture Insightful and impassioned this short book provides a much needed assessment of the future for New Zealand journalism in a troubled world A Thorn in Their Side - Hilda Murrell Threatened Britain's Nuclear State. She Was Brutally Murdered. This is the True Story of her Shocking Death Robert Green, 2013-08-05 In 1984 at the age of 78 world renowned rose grower Hilda Murrell was found brutally murdered in the Shropshire countryside She had just gained an approval to testify on the unsolved problems of radioactive waste at the first British planning enquiry into a new nuclear plant at Sizewell Suffolk The police theory that a lone panicking burglar robbed and abducted Hilda in her own car for petty cash erupted into a sensational political conspiracy involving Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher s plans for British nuclear energy and the controversial sinking of the Argentine cruiser General Belgrano in the 1982 Falklands War The West Mercia police took until 2005 to secure the conviction of Andrew George as Hilda s unlikely murderer in 1984 he was a 16 year old truant from a local foster home who could not drive The case spawned numerous books plays and TV programmes as it became one of the most baffling British murders of the 20th century Now Hilda s nephew Robert Green a former Royal navy Commander who operated nuclear weapons before holding a key position in Naval Intelligence during the Falklands War tells the story of his extraordinary pursuit of the truth Believing that Hilda was abducted by those who wanted to find out what she knew about the Falklands conflict and problems in the Sizewell nuclear power plant and undeterred by ongoing harassment Green exposes the implausibility of the police theory and uncovers new evidence that should have acquitted Andrew George This is the incredible true story of Hilda Murrell and of one man s quest to find out how and why his beloved aunt met with such a violent and bizarre death Book News
