Creation Mythology of the Far East DTTV Publications, Norah Romney, 2021-04-15 Beliefs about the origin of the Earth and the men animals plants and various topographical features seem to survive with greater persistence than any other trait of primitive culture These beliefs lie at the base of nearly all religions and the myths in which the beliefs are preserved are the foundation of literature Therefore the preservation and study of origin myths are of much importance in the reconstruction of the history of humanity which is the chief aim of anthropology The peoples of the Philippines have rich and varied mythology yet little has been explored but which will one day command much attention Among the Christianized peoples of the plains the myths are preserved chiefly as folk tales but in the mountains their recitation and preservation are a real and living part of the people s daily religious life Very few of these myths are written the great majority are preserved by oral tradition Bizarrely this region s Mythology seems connected to various other world mythologies in some cases almost identical Until recent years it has been believed that all ancient records written in the syllabic alphabets which the Filipinos possessed at the time of the Spanish conquest had been lost Creation Myths of Primitive America In relation to the Religious History and Mental Development of Mankind Jeremiah Curtin, 2020-09-28 The American creation myths as far as we know them form simply a series of accounts of the conflicts happenings and various methods by which the first world was changed into the world now existing This change was effected in various ways In the myths of certain tribes or nations it is mainly by struggles between hostile personages One god of great power and character overcomes a vast number of opponents and changes each into some beast bird plant or insect but always the resultant beast or other creature corresponds in some power of mind or in some leading quality of character with the god from whose position it has fallen In certain single cases opponents are closely matched they are nearly equal in combat the struggle between them is long uncertain and difficult At last when one side is triumphant the victor says Hereafter you will be nothing but a and he tells what the vanquished is to be But at this point the vanquished turns on the victor and sends his retort like a Parthian arrow You will be nothing but a and he declares what his enemy is to be The metamorphosis takes place immediately on both sides and each departs in the form which the enemy seemed to impose but which really belonged to him There are cases in which the hero transforms numerous and mighty enemies indirectly through a special wish which he possesses For example a certain myth hero brings it about that a large company of the first people are invited to a feast and while all are eating with great relish he slips out unnoted walks around the house and utters as he goes the magic formula I wish the walls of this house to be flint the roof also Next moment the whole house is flint walled the roof is flint also After that he says I wish this house to be red hot It is red hot immediately His enemies inside are in a dreadful predicament they rush about wildly they roar they look for an opening there is none they see no escape they find no issue Their heads burst from heat Out of one head springs an owl and flies away through the smoke hole out of another a buzzard which escapes through the same place out of the third comes a hawk which follows the other two out of a fourth some other bird Thus the action continues till every head in the flint house bursts open and lets out its occupant All fly away and thus the whole company is metamorphosed Each turns into that which his qualities called for which his nature demanded he becomes outwardly and visibly that which before he had been internally and in secret

Dostoyevsky and the Process of Literary Creation Jacques Catteau,1989-05-11 Jacques Catteau's much acclaimed book on Dostoyevsky which has already received three literary prizes and one medical in France appears here in English for the first time It is an original and detailed attempt to re-examine Dostoyevsky the artist tracing the creative process from its beginnings in the notebooks to its expression in the novels and at the same time analysing the structures of time and space the role of colour and other important features of the texts

Creation Myths of Primitive America Jeremiah Curtin,2022-09-04 In Creation Myths of Primitive America Jeremiah Curtin transcends mere collection to interweave a rich tapestry of indigenous cosmogonies His exploration into the dawn narratives of Native American tribes captures both the primal pulse of mythology and its evolution within the collective psyche of diverse cultures His literary craftsmanship renders each tale with meticulous respect and scholarly detail placing them within the wider canvas of religious history and humanity's intellectual ascent Delicate in its portrayal of ancient beliefs and formidable in its anthological scope Curtin's work is a benchmark of ethno-literary studies that resonates with echoes of the timeless quest for understanding the origins of existence Jeremiah Curtin was a man notably steeped in the lore of language and mythology his life's work dedicated to the intersection of culture and narrative An ardent ethnographer and philologist Curtin's passion for capturing the oral traditions of ethnic groups led him through a labyrinth of languages and lore culminating in this compendium of creation myths The seeds of this book were sown from his broader objectives to reveal the universality of mankind's myth-making impulse and to showcase the peculiar beauty inherent to each cultural representation of the genesis of life

Recreation Myths of Primitive America beckons to the connoisseurs of myth the students of anthropology and the lovers of literature alike Curtin's masterwork serves not only as a bridge to a past where stories were the sinews of culture but also as a mirror reflecting our enduring fascination with the question of our beginnings To engage with this volume is to walk in the footsteps of humanity's most ancient philosophers caretakers of the questions that have moved us since time immemorial This seminal collection is an essential addition to the bookshelf of anyone seeking to comprehend the rich and varied tapestry of human thought as expressed through the sacred art of storytelling

Lord of Creation, Originally published Norwich Canterbury Press c2005

The Lindian Chronicle and the Greek Creation of Their Past Carolyn Higbie,2003 Carolyn Higbie uses an inscription of the first century BC from Lindos to study the ancient Greeks and their past

The inscription contains two inventories The first catalogues some forty objects given to Athena Lindia by figures from the mythological past including Heracles Helen and Menelaus and the historical past including Alexander the Great and Hellenistic figures The second catalogues three epiphanies of Athena Lindia to the townspeople when they were in need of her assistance By drawing on anthropological approaches as well as archaeological and literary evidence this book explores what was important to the Greeks about their past how they reconstructed it and how they made use of it in their present

New Creation Eschatology and the Land Steven L. James, 2017-09-27 What will the final state of the redeemed look like Throughout the history of the church conceptions of the final state have tended to minimize the promise of the new heavens and new earth In contrast to the historical dominance of spiritual heavenly non temporal conceptions of the final state the last two decades have witnessed a rise in conceptions that include the redemption of material earthly and temporal reality These new creation conceptions have included proposals regarding the fulfillment of Old Testament land promises In New Creation Eschatology and the Land Steven L James argues that in recent new creation conceptions of the final state there is a logical inconsistency between the use of Old Testament texts to inform a renewed earth and the exclusion of the territory of Israel from that renewed earth By examining a select group of new creationists James shows that the exclusion of the territorial restoration of Israel in a new creation conception fails to appreciate the role of the particular territory in Old Testament prophetic texts and results in an inconsistent new creationism
