among artists long before she became part of the modern art world's first celebrity couple by marrying Jackson Pollock Elaine de Kooning whose brilliant mind and peerless charm made her the emotional center of the New York School used her work and words to build a bridge between the avant garde and a public that scorned abstract art as a hoax Grace Hartigan fearlessly abandoned life as a New Jersey housewife and mother to achieve stardom as one of the boldest painters of her generation Joan Mitchell whose notoriously tough exterior shielded a vulnerable artist within escaped a privileged but emotionally damaging Chicago childhood to translate her fierce vision into magnificent canvases And Helen Frankenthaler the beautiful daughter of a prominent New York family chose the difficult path of the creative life Her gamble paid off At twenty three she created a work so original it launched a new school of painting These women changed American art and society tearing up the prevailing social code and replacing it with a doctrine of liberation In Ninth Street Women acclaimed author Mary Gabriel tells a remarkable and inspiring story of the power of art and artists in shaping not just postwar America but the future

The Journals of Grace Hartigan, 1951-1955 William T. La Moy, Joseph P. McCaffrey, 2015-01-01 Grace Hartigan emerged during the 1950s as a leading representative of the second generation of the New York School of abstract expressionist painters a movement that achieved international standing for American art In 1958 Hartigan was the only woman and one of only two artists under forty chosen by the Museum of Modern Art for a show on that school Entitled The New American Painting the show traveled to eight European countries and included such artists as Willem de Kooning Robert Motherwell Barnett Newman Jackson Pollock and Mark Rothko Published for the first time Hartigan's journals offer readers an intimate chronicle of the vibrant artistic and literary milieu of the times Hartigan's interactions with many of its leading artists and her close association with such New York School poets as John Ashbery Kenneth Koch and Frank O'Hara make for fascinating reading The only contemporaneous record of this extraordinary period in art history this book is a treasure to the art student and literary scholar alike Grace Hartigan's paintings are held in museums throughout the United States including the Metropolitan Museum and the Whitney Museum of Art Since 1965 she has worked at the Maryland Institute College of Art where she is the director of the Hoffberger Graduate School of Painting
