The First Man To Walk Hadrian's Wall 18:

The View from Hadrian's Wall Mark Clegg, David Wilmot, 2021-12-16 Built almost 2 000 years ago by the Roman occupiers of Britain Hadrian's Wall is one of the most famous and identifiable World Heritage Sites When two old friends one American and one British reunited to trek the length of the Wall they reminisced about the past while sharing apprehension about the future This memoir of their coast to coast voyage examines Roman history drawing parallels between the fall of the Roman Empire and the recent political developments and uncertainties in the United Kingdom and the United States The authors also share their often humorous encounters with locals they met along the way while hiking in incessant rain An Introduction to Hadrian's Wall M. C. Bishop, 2012 Heritage Values in Site Management Marta De la Torre, 2005 The four case studies included are Grosse Ile and the Irish National Memorial site in Canada the Chaco Culture National Historical Park in the USA the Port Arthur historic site in Australia and Hadrian's Wall Hadrian's Wall Tony Wilmott, 2013-04-15 From 1976 to 2000 English Heritage archaeologists undertook excavation and research on Hadrian's Wall This book reports on these findings and includes the first publication of the James Irwin Coates archive of drawings of Hadrian's Wall made in 1877-96 Children's Britannica, 1995 Presents alphabetically arranged articles in twenty volumes covering a wide range of human knowledge The Times Index, 2013-07 Indexes the Times Sunday Times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Time educational supplement Scotland and the Times higher education supplement Doing Museology Differently Duncan Grewcock, 2013-09-05 One might believe that museum studies is a stable field of academic inquiry based on a set of familiar institutional forms and functions But as institutions museums have never been stable or singular and neither has the discipline of museum studies Museum studies as a field of academic inquiry has received little critical attention One result of this neglect has arguably been a lack of invention in museum studies another is the distancing of academic museum studies from museum practice Doing Museology Differently charts a different course A critical creative reflection on academic practice the book takes the form of a narrative account of museological fieldwork A research story unfolds challenging academic conventions at the level of its own presentation the book combines critical museum visiting with an autobiographical voice The identification of a previously underexplored interdisciplinary space leads the author to experiment with museum studies using contemporary developments in the theory and practice of human geography The new approaches to museological research and representation that emerge from this unique inquiry challenge assumed institutional and intellectual boundaries and act as a call to further creative experimentation Hadrian Anthony R Birley, Anthony R. Birley, 2013-04-15 Hadrian's reign AD 117-138 was a watershed in the history of the Roman Empire Hadrian abandoned his predecessor Trajan's eastern conquests Mesopotamia and Armenia trimmed down the lands beyond the lower Danube and constructed new demarcation lines in Germany North Africa and most famously Hadrian's Wall in Britain to delimit the empire The emperor Hadrian a strange and baffling figure to his contemporaries had a many sided personality Insatiably ambitious and a passionate Philhellene he promoted the Greek Renaissance extravagantly But his attempt to Hellenize the Jews including the outlawing of circumcision had disastrous consequences and his Greek love of the beautiful Bithynian boy Antinous ended in tragedy No comprehensive account of Hadrian s life and reign has been attempted for over seventy years In Hadrian The Restless Emperor Anthony Birley brings together the new evidence from inscriptions and papyri and up to date and in depth examination of the work of other scholars on aspects of Hadrian s reign and policies such as the Jewish war the coinage Hadrian s building programme in Rome Athens and Tivoli and his relationship with his favourite Antinous to provide a thorough and fascinating account of the private and public life of a man who though hated when he died left an indelible mark on the Roman Empire History Man
