The First Men Round The World In Profile:

Profiles from History Volume 1 Ashley M. Wiggers, 2009 Profiles from History takes a fresh look at familiar faces. Along with beautiful illustrations and fascinating stories, this book encourages children to think about the motivations of twenty historical figures. Activities and discussion questions help students recognize the effect these individuals have had on history. The profiles include Marco Polo, Johannes Gutenberg, William Bradford, Squanto, Galileo, Christopher Columbus, John Smith, Leonardo da Vinci, Pocahontas, William Shakespeare, Michelangelo, James Cook, George Frideric Handel, Benjamin Franklin, Meriwether Lewis, William Clark, Thomas Jefferson, Sacagawea, Mozart, Zebulon Pike, Francois Millet, and Jesse Applegate. Did you know Benjamin Franklin had such an impact that nearly 20,000 people attended his funeral? Johannes Gutenberg invented the printing press to make the written word available to all, not just the wealthy. Pocahontas bravely risked her life on more than one occasion to save others. Francois Millet was one of the first to paint common people with honor and dignity. Jesse Applegate blazed a safer trail out west so that others would never have to experience his pain. Profiles include a variety of fun activities such as crossword puzzles, word scrambles, and sequencing. Timeline figures add depth and perspective. Make learning personal and memorable with Profiles from History.

Adulthood in the Navajo world is marked by the onset of menstruation in females and by the deepening of the voice in males Accordingly young adults must accept responsibility over the powers manifest in blood and voice for women the forces that control reproduction and growth for men the powers of protection and restoration of order that come through maintaining Navajo oral tradition The maintenance of the latter tradition has long been held to be the function of the Navajo singer a role usually viewed as male But despite this longstanding assumption women can and do fill this role Drawing on interviews with seventeen Navajo women practitioners and five apprentices Maureen Trudelle Schwarz explicates women s role as ceremonial practitioners and shows that it is more complex than has previously been thought She examines gender differences dictated by the Navajo origin story details how women came to be practitioners and reveals their experiences and the strategies they use to negotiate being both woman and singer Women who choose careers as singers face complex challenges since some rules prohibit menstruating women from conducting ceremonies and others regarding sexual continence can strain marital relationships Additionally oral history places men in charge of all ceremonial matters Schwarz focuses on how the reproductive life courses of Navajo women influence their apprenticeships and practices to demonstrate how they navigate these issues to preserve time honored traditions Through the words of actual practitioners she shows how each woman brings her own unique life experience to the role While differing among individuals these experiences represent a commitment to shared cultural symbols and result in a consensus that sustains social cohesion By showing the differences and similarities between the apprenticeship initiation and practice of men and women singers Blood and Voice offers a better understanding of the role of Navajo women in a profession usually viewed as a male activity and of the symbolic construction of the self in Navajo culture It also addresses classic questions concerning the sexual division of labor menstrual taboos gender stereotypes and the tension between tradition and change that will enlighten students of other cultures Profiles in Discipleship Gregory C. Higgins,2014-06-27 The Catholic Library World John M. O'Loughlin,Francis Emmett Fitzgerald,1983 Morocco's Jobs Landscape Gladys Lopez-Acevedo,Gordon Betcherman,Ayache Khellaf,Vasco

Molini,2021-03-20 This report sheds light on major labor market issues and challenges that Morocco faces It is the first phase of the programmatic jobs program jointly undertaken with the government of Morocco The report is a jobs diagnostic that analyzes microdata mainly from Labor Force Surveys and employs new analytical methods to identify the main trends in the labor market The key challenges that emerge will provide the basis for a deeper analysis and policy formulation in the next phase of this program Morocco s Jobs Landscape identifies four priorities accelerate structural transformation to create more and better jobs in higher productivity sectors encourage formalization and improve the quality of jobs increase female labor force participation and address youth inactivity and its long term consequences Morocco has made significant economic progress over the past 20 years which has raised the living standards of its people However Morocco s economic growth has not been labor intensive enough to absorb its growing working age population It has had a low capacity to generate jobs and the rate of job creation slowed after the 2008 financial crisis Morocco is trying to overcome the middle income trap which has been preventing its convergence with more affluent middle income countries The government of Morocco has called for a new inclusive development model The new model must address regional development imbalances facilitate inclusion for youth and women and continue to foster labor force skills upgrading The COVID 19 pandemic and resultant safety measures have halted or slowed economic activity which is worsening the labor market situation The pandemic undoubtedly complicates prospects for jobs led growth and it will make the challenges highlighted in this report even more urgent and deserving of policy makers attention
