Double Vision William Middleton, 2018-03-27 NAMED ONE OF THE BEST ART BOOKS OF THE DECADE BY ARTNEWS

The first and definitive biography of the celebrated collectors Dominique and John de Menil who became one of the greatest cultural forces of the twentieth century through groundbreaking exhibits of art artistic scholarship the creation of innovative galleries and museums and work with civil rights Dominique and John de Menil created an oasis of culture in their Philip Johnson designed house with everyone from Marlene Dietrich and Ren Magritte to Andy Warhol and Jasper Johns In Houston they built the Menil Collection the Rothko Chapel the Byzantine Fresco Chapel the Cy Twombly Gallery and underwrote the Contemporary Arts Museum Now with unprecedented access to family archives William Middleton has written a sweeping biography of this unique couple From their ancestors in Normandy and Alsace to their own early years in France and their travels in South America before settling in Houston We see them introduced to the artists in Europe and America whose works they would collect and we see how by the 1960s their collection had grown to include 17 000 paintings sculptures drawings photographs rare books and decorative objects And here is as well a vivid behind the scenes look at the art world of the twentieth century and the enormous influence the de Menils wielded through what they collected and built and through the causes they believed in Modern Art in 1940s Cuba Alejandro Anreus, 2025-07-22 Exploring the work of avant garde artists in Cuba from 1940 to 1952 this book provides the first comprehensive history of modern Cuban art during the nation's only democratic period

The Art Market and the Museum Frances Fowle, MaryKate Cleary, 2025-04-03 This book considers how art market stakeholders including art dealers collectors and agents have shaped museum collections and affected exhibition practices since the mid nineteenth century Based on new archival research and data analysis it explores the role of dealers not only in selling directly to museums but in influencing museum collecting priorities as well as potential donors It also examines the important but hitherto overlooked contribution of the female curator agent The book is divided into three sections which address the relationship between art dealers and museums women as art agents and influencers and the strategies of entrepreneurial collectors Featuring contributions from a wide range of international specialists in the market for decorative arts and antiquities as well as European modernism The Art Market and the Museum explores the origins and development of the modern Western art market and the global art networks that operated not only in Paris London and New York but in cities such as Glasgow Vienna Melbourne and Kansas City It is perfect reading for scholars and researchers on the history of the art market museum studies and art history more broadly

Catalog of the Library of the Whitney Museum of American Art, New York, New York Whitney Museum of American Art. Library, 1979 Collecting Mesoamerican Art before 1940 Andrew D. Turner, Megan E. O'Neil, 2024-02-13 The untold chronicles of the looting and collecting of ancient Mesoamerican objects This book traces the fascinating history of how and why ancient Mesoamerican objects have been collected It begins with the pre Hispanic antiquities that first entered European collections in the sixteenth century as gifts or seizures continues through the rise of systematic collecting in Europe and the Americas during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and ends in 1940 the start of Europe's art market collapse at the outbreak of World War II and the coinciding genesis of the large scale art market for pre Hispanic antiquities in the United States Drawing upon archival resources and international museum collections the contributors analyze the ways shifting patterns of collecting and taste including how pre Hispanic objects changed from being viewed as anthropological and scientific curiosities to collectible artworks have shaped modern academic disciplines as well as public private institutional and nationalistic attitudes toward Mesoamerican art As many nations across the world demand the return of their cultural patrimony and ancestral heritage it is essential to examine the historical processes events and actors that initially removed so many objects from their countries of origin

Två mycket stora presentationer Walter De Maria,Moderna museet (Stockholm, Sweden),1989 Lillie P. Bliss Irene M. Walsh,2025-04-24 She helped found MoMA and pioneered the promotion of work of American and French modern artists at the turn of the 20th century but until now her life and legacy remain woefully under examined An early pioneer and patron of French and American modernism Lillie P Bliss 1864 1931 was one of three female cofounders of MoMA in 1929 and went on to furnish the museum with one of the finest collections of modern art in the world Presenting case studies alongside data driven analysis drawn from original research into the American art market this book reconstructs Bliss's influential career in rich and compelling detail It weaves together extensive archival material related to the art and the artists that Bliss collected and patronised such as Paul Cezanne Pierre Auguste Renoir Edgar Degas Georges Seurat and Odilon Redon the art market of the time and the evolution of the New York museum ecosystem and highlights the importance of private collecting in the development of American museums By revisiting MoMA's foundational history author Irene Walsh explores how Lillie P Bliss's visionary bequest of over 120 artworks upon her death in 1931 profoundly influenced and shaped the institution questioning why her pioneering role has been overshadowed by other collectors Combining biography market knowledge institutional analysis and art history it enriches our understanding of early 20th century dealer dynamics and collection strategies in New York illuminates the role of collections in shaping art narratives while offering contemporary insights into women's agency in the arts Global interdisciplinary and timely the book provides fascinating first hand research into a collector of great importance and will make a long standing contribution to studies in the art market and 20th century collecting de Kooning Mark Stevens, Annalyn Swan, 2006-04-04 Winner of the Pulitzer Prize and National Book Critics Award Circle Award An authoritative and brilliant exploration of the art life and world of an American master Willem de Kooning is one of the most important artists of the twentieth century a true painter's painter whose protean work continues to inspire many artists In the thirties and forties along with Arshile Gorky and Jackson Pollock he became a key figure in the revolutionary American movement of abstract expressionism Of all the painters in that group he worked the longest and was the most prolific creating powerful startling images well into the 1980s The first major biography of de Kooning captures both the life and work of this complex romantic figure in American culture Ten years in the making and based on previously unseen letters and documents as well as on hundreds of interviews this is a fresh richly detailed and masterful portrait The young de Kooning overcame an unstable impoverished and often violent early family life to enter the Academie in Rotterdam where he learned both classic art and guild techniques Arriving in New York as a stowaway from Holland in 1926 he underwent a long struggle to become a painter and an American developing a passionate friendship with his fellow immigrant Arshile Gorky who was both a mentor and an inspiration During the Depression de Kooning emerged as a central figure in the bohemian world of downtown New York surviving by doing commercial work and painting murals for the WPA His first show at the Egan Gallery in 1948 was a revelation Soon the critics Harold Rosenberg and Thomas Hess were championing his work and de Kooning took his place as the charismatic leader of the New York school just as American art began to dominate the international scene Dashing handsome and treated like a movie star on the streets of downtown New York de Kooning had a tumultuous marriage to Elaine de Kooning herself a fascinating character of the period At the height of his fame he spent his days painting powerful abstractions and intense disturbing pictures of the female figure and his nights living on the edge drinking womanizing and talking at the Cedar bar with such friends as Franz Kline and Frank O Hara By the 1960s exhausted by the feverish art world he retreated to the Springs on Long Island where he painted an extraordinary series of lush pastorals In the 1980s as he slowly declined into what was almost certainly Alzheimer's he created a vast body of haunting and ethereal late work Making The Met, 1870-2020 (1st revised edition) Andrea Bayer, Laura D. Corey, 2025-10-01 Published to celebrate The Metropolitan Museum of Art's 150th anniversary Making The Met 1870-2020 examines the institution's evolution from an idea that art can inspire anyone who has access to it to one of the most beloved global collections in the world Focusing on key transformational moments this richly illustrated book provides insight into the visionary figures and events that led The Met in new directions Among the many topics explored are the impact of momentous acquisitions the central importance of education and accessibility the collaboration that resulted from international excavations the Museum's role in preserving cultural heritage and its interaction with contemporary art and artists Complementing this fascinating history are more than two hundred works that changed the very way we look at art as well as rarely seen archival and behind the scenes images In the final chapter Met Director Max Hollein offers a meditation on evolving approaches to collecting art from around the world strategies for reaching new and diverse audiences and the role of museums today     New York Magazine ,1987-06-29 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea     San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, the Painting and Sculpture Collection San Francisco Museum of Modern Art,Diana C.
