Newcomer deputy Harrison James is the only one who believes she's in harm's way. Now her future is in the hands of this handsome stranger. Widow's Luck Lin Weich, 2017-08-16 Behind her back they call her The Black Widow Daphne McNeil has been widowed four times in ten years. Each time her husbands have left her considerable sums of money. She finds that she must use these inheritances to support her beloved charities. The money does not go far enough and with increasing financial pressures she becomes desperate. When Steve Johnson a forensic scientist discovers human remains in an isolated lake near Daphne's drug and alcohol rehabilitation center he unwittingly puts himself in danger. He begins to suspect the beautiful widow is not as innocent as she seems. Will he become her next victim. The Widow's Rose Garden George L. Proferes, 2022-05-04 The widow of a reputed mobster is much more than a legal client needing a new will. It develops that she has effectively hidden a famous occupation with the use of a pseudonym. And the lawyer she engages has never before practiced law had any clients nor is he aware of her other life. The setting for this mystery is a remote island in the most eastern stretches of Long Island Sound unlike any of the other small islands that dot the seas off the eastern end of Long Island's north fork. On this isle resides a woman shepherd who tends a flock of sheep for the widow. She however also has another life being in fact an artist of repute. These are only a few of the anomalies that figure prominently in the fast-paced thriller filled with many interesting characters a number of subplots and surprising developments that should keep the reader riveted to its pages from beginning to end. Widow's Island M. Lee Prescott, 2014-08-09 Biologist Ned Fielding leaves the tattered remains of his marriage behind to spend six months on Winward Island a property shared by SENCA his land conservation group and the reclusive Widow Barlow. Dispatched to the island to study a rare species of carrion beetle Ned finds himself much more interested in studying the island's only other human the beautiful Addie Barlow whose screams of terror awaken him in the dead of night. A hurricane and near drowning throw the island's two inhabitants together and they begin a smoldering love affair. The locals call the Widow Barlow a witch and enchantress. They claim she murdered her much older husband the philanthropist King Barlow but Ned cannot quite believe the wild tales about the gentle woman he adores. Enchantress maybe with her closest companions an osprey dolphin and coyote but murderess. Will Ned's quest for the truth destroy their love and Addie's heart. East & West, 1915 The Gigantic Book of Fishing Stories Nick Lyons, 2007-05-17 Nick Lyons a legend in fishing world has assembled a sampling of the best of the classic and contemporary tales memoirs essays and poetry. This book is perfect for anyone who fishes or knows someone who fishes or loves life out of doors. I know what I'll be giving as gifts this year. Skyhorse Publishing is proud to publish a broad range of books for fishermen. Our books for anglers include titles that focus on fly fishing bait fishing fly casting spin casting deep sea fishing and surf fishing. Our books offer both practical advice on tackle techniques knots and more as well as lyrical prose on fishing for bass trout salmon crappie baitfish catfish and more. While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are committed to publishing books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked by other publishers.

and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home

City Fishing Richard Chiappone, 2002 Sometimes the wildest fishing happens right in your own town or in the city you happen to be visiting Some of fly fishing's most gifted writers proclaim the joys and rewards of fishing urban waters Shelves of books have been written about the ultimate fly fishing experience the trip to remote pristine waters where fish are plentiful and wild But sometimes there's good fishing to be found right down the street in the most unlikely of settings These writers share stories about the fish they've found in the midst of Manhattan London Tokyo and Paris Fishing a manmade lake in the suburbs of Minnesota a park pond in New Jersey in suspect rivers within sight of factories in Buffalo and Oakland they steal an hour or two and go off to fish where they can when they can because they can't not fish This unorthodox collection reveals what true fishermen understand good fishing is to be had anywhere you can find it

Poverty Mosaics: Realities and Prospects in Small-Scale Fisheries Svein Jentoft, Arne Eide, 2011-07-15 Small scale fisheries are a major source of food and employment around the world Yet many small scale fishers work in conditions that are neither safe nor secure Millions of them are poor and often they are socially and politically marginalized Macro economic and institutional mechanisms are essential to address these poverty and vulnerability problems however interventions at the local community level are also necessary This requires deep understanding of what poverty means to the fishers their families and communities how they cope with it and the challenges they face to increase resiliency and improve their lives for the better This book provides a global perspective situating small scale fisheries within the broad academic discourse on poverty fisheries management and development In depth case studies from fifteen countries in Latin America Europe South and Southeast Asia and sub Saharan Africa demonstrate the enormously complex ecological economic social cultural and political contexts of this sector Conclusions for policy making formulated as a joint statement by the authors argue that fisheries development poverty alleviation and resource management must be integrated within a comprehensive governance approach that also looks beyond fisheries The scientific editors Svein Jentoft and Arne Eide are both with the Norwegian College of Fishery Science Faculty of Biosciences Fisheries and Economics University of Troms Norway
