BOOK JACKET La dispersión de objetos de arte fuera de España en los siglos XIX y XX Fernando Pérez Mulet, Immaculada Socias Batet, 2011 Tartessos and the Phoenicians in Iberia Sebastián Celestino Pérez, Carolina López-Ruiz, 2016

This is the first book in English about the earliest historical civilization in the western Mediterranean known as Tartessos. Endowed with extraordinary wealth in metals and strategically positioned between the Atlantic and Mediterranean trading routes at the time of Greek and Phoenician colonial expansion, Tartessos flourished in the eighth and seventh centuries BCE. Tartessos became a literate, sophisticated urban culture in southwestern Iberia today's Spain and Portugal, enriched by commercial contacts with the Aegean and the Levant since at least the ninth century. In its material culture—architecture, grave goods, sanctuaries, plastic arts—we see how native elements combined with imported, orientalizzante innovations introduced by the Phoenicians. Historians of the rank of Herodotus and Livy, geographers such as Strabo and Pliny, Greek and Punic periploi, and perhaps even Phoenician and Hebrew texts testify to the power, wealth, and prominence of this westernmost Mediterranean civilization. Archaeologists in turn have demonstrated the existence of a fascinating complex society with both strong local roots and international flare. Yet for still mysterious reasons, Tartessos did not attain a Classical period like its peer emerging cultures did at the same time: Etruscans, Romans, Greeks. This book combines the expertise of its two authors in archaeology, philology, and cultural history to present a comprehensive, coherent, theoretically up-to-date and informative overview of the discovery, sources, and debates surrounding this puzzling culture of ancient Iberia and its complex hybrid identity vis-à-vis the western Phoenicians. This book will be of great interest to students of the classics, archaeology, and ancient history, Phoenician, Punic studies, colonization, and cultural contact.

A Companion to Early Modern Hispanic Theater Hilaire Kallendorf, 2014-02-20

A panoramic state-of-the-art handbook destined to chart a course for future work in the field of early modern Hispanic theater studies. It begins in the closet with an essay on Celestina as closet drama and moves out into the court to explore intersections with courtly love. An essay on the comedia and the classics demonstrates this genre's firm grounding in the classical tradition despite Lope de Vega's famous protestations to the contrary. Distinct but related genres such as the autos sacramentales and the entremeses also make an appearance. The traditional themes of honor and wife murder share the stage with less familiar topics like the incorporation of animals into performance. This volume covers the urban space of the city in Spain and Portugal as well as uncharted territories in the New World and Japan. Essays on emblems and the picaresque round out this anthology along with studies of theatrical representations of early modern innovations in science and technology. The book concludes with two different psychoanalytical approaches focused on melancholy and Lacanian tragedy, respectively. This collection incorporates the work of younger scholars along with established names in the field to synthesize the most exciting recent work on the comedia and related forms of early modern Hispanic theatrical production. Contributors include Ignacio Arellano, Frederick de Armas, Henry Sullivan, Edward Friedman, A. Robert Lauer, Manuel Delgado, Adrienne Martin, Enrique Garcá, Santo Tomás, Matthew
