Muslims to be non Muslims are considered Comparisons are made of moderate and traditional interpreters of the Qur'an

God's Other Book Mohammad Salama,2024 In God's Other Book The Qur'an between History and Ideology Mohammad Salama presents a powerful critique of the ways we study and analyze early Islam and its sacred text filling a glaring hole in our understanding of this formative environment Interrogating the ideological framework of late antiquity Salama exposes hidden assumptions that prevent scholars from truly placing Islam in its socio historical and cultural milieu He also offers an alternative theoretical and practical model focused on pre Islamic Arabic cultural production Foregrounding the indigenous Arab community of seventh century Hijaz Salama demonstrates how the Qur'an played an organic role in commenting on interacting with and taking sides concerning matters of ethnicity ethics dress codes and social habits While the study delves into the past it carries implications for the future only with renewed attention to the Qur'an itself in all of its splendor and intricacy can Western readers engage thoughtfully and ethically not only with Islamic studies but also with the cultures and traditions of those who live according to another book

The Origins of Islamic Reformism in Southeast Asia Azyumardi Azra,2004-01-01 Professor Azra's meticulous study using sources from the Middle East itself shows how scholars in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries were reconstructing the intellectual and socio moral foundation of Muslim societies

The Origins of Judaism, Christianity and Islam John Pickard,2021-12-22 There has never been a more important time for a study of the social economic and political origins of Judaism Christianity and Islam three important world religions which share a common root This book takes as its starting point the idea that gods angels miracles and other supernatural phenomena do not exist in the real world and therefore cannot explain the origins of these faiths It looks instead at the material conditions at appropriate periods in antiquity and the social and economic forces at work and it examines the historicity of key figures like Moses Jesus and Mohammed This is a unique book which draws on the research knowledge and expertise of hundreds of historians archaeologists and scholars to create a synthesis that is completely coherent and at the same time is based on real world social conditions It is a book by a non believer for other non believers and it will be a revelatory read even to those already of an atheist agnostic or secularist persuasion

Islam in Society Eileen Lucas,2018-12-15 Provide your readers with this essential guidebook about Islam and its role in society As of 2015 approximately 1.8 billion people identified as Muslim 24 percent of the global population Islam's adherents are found throughout the world but some question whether its values and practices are at odds with those of Western nations with particular concerns about Muslim extremism and its connection to terrorism This has prompted attempts to control or even prevent Muslims from entering Western countries As the global Muslim population continues to rise and immigration increases questions about the role of Islam and its adherents in society have become increasingly urgent

Mosque In the Modern Muslim Society Mohamad Tajuddin Mohamad Rasdi, 2014      A Challenge to Islam for Reformation Günter Lüling, 2003 As a Protestant theologian and disciple of renowned critics of Christianity Albert Schweitzer and Martin Werner the Author wanted since long to contribute to the breakthrough of their resolute nontrinitarian position which has throughout the twentieth century by all and every Western Christian university theology been silenced by pretending tacitly and tenaciously the non existence of their strong argument      Islam and Muslim Resistance to Modernity in Turkey Gokhan Bacik, 2019-08-24 This book explores how traditional Sunni Muslim conceptions have informed or shaped Islamization strategies in contemporary Turkey In particular the author proposes to examine the teaching curriculum of the Ministry of Education which oversees Turkish public religious education the activities and teachings of Diyanet the constitutional organ responsible for managing all religious affairs and the ideas and activities of three Muslim religious groups currently operating in Turkey The monograph explains how the interpretation and practice of Islam affects various situations in the Muslim world and analyzes the concept of nature in Islam which has been an indivisible component of Islamic tradition since the beginning      The Formation of Islam Jonathan P. Berkey, 2003 Jonathan Berkey s 2003 book surveys the religious history of the peoples of the Near East from roughly 600 to 1800 CE The opening chapter examines the religious scene in the Near East in late antiquity and the religious traditions which preceded Islam Subsequent chapters investigate Islam s first century and the beginnings of its own traditions the classical period from the accession of the Abbasids to the rise of the Buyid amirs and thereafter the emergence of new forms of Islam in the middle period Throughout close attention is paid to the experiences of Jews and Christians as well as Muslims The book stresses that Islam did not appear all at once but emerged slowly as part of a prolonged process whereby it was differentiated from other religious traditions and indeed that much that we take as characteristic of Islam is in fact the product of the medieval period

Empire of the Islamic World Robin Doak, 2009 Examines the history of the Islamic empire      Violence in Early Islam Marco Demichelis, 2021-03-25 The concept of jihad holds a prominent place in Islamic thought and history Beyond its spiritual meanings the term has historically been associated with the sweeping Arab Believers conquests of the 7 8th century BCE But given advances in our understanding of the historicity and chronology of the Qur an and early Islamic texts is it correct to identify jihad and Islam with violent conquest In this book Marco Demichelis explores the history of the concept of jihad in the early proto Islamic centuries 7 8th Deploying an interdisciplinary approach which combines the hermeneutical study of the famous Verses of the Sword within the Qur an itself with historical writing by Islamic chroniclers as well as non Islamic sources numismatics epigraphical and architectural evidence the book questions the relationship between the religious concept of jihad and the conquests The book argues that Christian Byzantine Foederati forces who previously fought against the Persians may have had a formative effect on the later emergence of more bellicose rhetoric In so doing it calls into question assumptions about warlike attitudes inherent within Islamic doctrine and reveals a more nuanced and complicated history of religious violence in the pre proto and early Islamic period

The Ways of Wisdom Anthony E. Mansueto, 2016-03-18 The Ways of Wisdom answers the demand for a new kind of theology appropriate for a postsecular global civilization showing how to engage questions of meaning and value across as well as within traditions Arguing that humanity is the desire to be God The Ways of Wisdom analyzes the diverse ways in which humanity has pursued this aim and argues for a synthesis that draws on the great spiritual traditions of the Axial Age as well as on the humanistic secular commitment to innerworldly civilizational progress and social justice At the same time it rejects both the technocratic god building that it argues is the hegemonic ideal of the Saeculum in which we live and the radical immanentism that imagined that we could create a collective political subject that would make us the masters of our own destiny proposing instead what it calls Sanctuary a way of life centered on seeking wisdom doing justice and ripening Being

The Quest of the Historical Muhammad and Other Studies on Formative Islam Stephen J. Shoemaker, 2024-07-09 The lead essay in this book is the first effort to approach the historical figure of Muhammad in a manner comparable to the investigations that biblical scholars have made in the effort to recover the historical figure of Jesus Using comparable methods and approaches this study demonstrates that despite a widely held belief that Islam was born in the full light of history we in fact know considerably less about both Muhammad and the beginnings of Islam than we do about the historical Jesus and the beginnings of Christianity Also included are republications of four previously published essays dealing with such topics as the Qur'an's status as a late ancient biblical apocryphon the relation between the Jerusalem Temple and the Holy House revered by the Qur'an and the imminent eschatology of the Qur'an and the early Islamic tradition

Mapping Islamic Studies Azim Nanji, 2011-09-20 Since its founding by Jacques Waardenburg in 1971 Religion and Reason has been a leading forum for contributions on theories theoretical issues and agendas related to the phenomenon and the study of religion Topics include among others category formation comparison ethnophilosophy
