The History & Conservation of Zanzibar Stone Town Abdul Sheriff, 1995 Zanzibar Stone Town presents the problems of conservation in its most acute forms Should it be fossilized for the tourists Or should it grow for the benefit of the inhabitants Can ways be found to accommodate conflicting social and economic pressures For its size Zanzibar like Venice occupies a remarkably large romantic space in world imagination Swahili civilization on these spice islands goes back to the earliest centuries of the Islamic era Up until the nineteenth century it was the capital of a trading empire which spread Kiswahili and Islam over a large part of eastern and central African and the Indian Ocean Zanzibar then suffered the loss of its empire to the Germans and the British In the last thirty years it has passed through its second period of crisis After the Revolution of 1964 the new rural owners did not have the wherewithal to maintain the old stone houses The Stone Town seemed to be on the verge of extinction In the 1980s the government reversed its policies and the old town became threatened by rapid redevelopment which disfigures as it builds The Old Stone Town now stands in danger of being drastically transformed by tourism and trade liberalization The History & Conservation of Zanzibar Stone Town Abdul Sheriff, 1995 Zanzibar Stone Town presents the problems of conservation in its most acute forms should it be preserved for the tourists or should it be allowed to grow for the benefit of the inhabitants Can ways be found to accommodate conflicting social and economic Zanzibar Chris McIntyre, Susan McIntyre, 2009 The seventh edition of the most thorough accurate and pressures frequently updated guidebook to Zanzibar Pemba and Mafia World Heritage and Sustainable Development Peter Bille Larsen, William Logan, 2018-07-03 In 2015 the General Assembly of State Parties to the World Heritage Convention passed a ground breaking Sustainable Development policy that seeks to bring the World Heritage system into line with the UN s sustainable development agenda UNESCO 2015 World Heritage and Sustainable Development provides a broad overview of the process that brought about the new policy and the implications of its enactment The book is divided into four parts Part I puts the policy in its historical and theoretical context and Part II offers an analysis of the four policy dimensions on which the policy is based environmental sustainability inclusive social development inclusive economic development and the fostering of peace and security Part III presents perspectives from IUCN ICOMOS and ICCROM the three Advisory Bodies to the World Heritage Committee and Part IV offers case study perspectives on the practical implications of the policy Contributions come from a wide range of experienced heritage professionals and practitioners who offer both inside perspectives on the evolution of the policy and outside perspectives on its implications Combined they present and analyse the main ideas debates and implications of the policy change This book is key reading for all heritage professionals interested in developing a better understanding of the new Sustainable Development policy It is also essential reading for scholars and students working in the area Physical Space and Spatiality in Muslim Societies Mahbub Rashid, 2021-08-10 The conscious construction of urban space The International Journal of African Historical Studies ,1997 Developing National

Ogot, William Robert Ochieng', 1995 This is a sharply observed assessment of the history of the last half century by a distinguished group of historians of Kenya At the same time the book is a courageous reflection in the dilemmas of African nationhood Professor B A Ogot says The main purpose of the book is to show that decolonization does not only mean the transfer of alien power to sovereign nationhood it must also entail the liberation of the worlds of spirit and culture as well as economics and politics The book also raises a more fundamental question that is How much independence is available to any state national economy or culture in today s world It asks how far are Africa s miseries linked to the colonial past and to the process of decolonization In particular the book raises the basic question of how far Kenya is avoidably neo colonial And what does neo colonial dependence mean The book answers these questions by discussing the dynamic between the politics of decolonization the social history of class formation and the economics of dependence The book ends with a provocative epilogue discussing the transformation of the post colonial state from a single party to a multi party system The Crisis of Democratization in the Greater Horn of Africa Kidane Mengisteab, 2020 Analyses the structural and institutional obstacles to democratization in transitional societies fractured societies fragmented economies and institutions of governance weak or deformed state structures and how to overcome these Reading Migration and Culture Dan Ojwang, 2012-12-14 This book uses the uniquely positioned culture of East African Asians to reflect upon the most vexing issues in postcolonial literary studies today By examining the local histories and discourses that underpin East African Asian literature it opens up and reflects upon issues of alienation modernity migration diaspora memory and nationalism

Disrupting Territories Jörg Gertel, Richard Rottenburg, Sandra Calkins, 2014 Nowhere has a range of case studies of Sudan been brought together in a single volume Given the concern with the growing number and complexity of conflicts in Sudan and South Sudan there is a significant readership in academic circles and from those involved in humanitarian organisations of all kinds Professor Peter Woodward University of Reading A timely contribution to an important set of debates tackles questions emerging from discussions about modernisation urbanisation and globalisation from an explicitly local angle with regards to Sudan Dr Harry Verhoeven University of Oxford Sudan experiences one of the most severe fissures between society and territory in Africa Not only were its international borders redrawn when South Sudan separated in 2011 but conflicts continue to erupt over access to land territorial claims are challenged by local and international actors borders are contested contracts governing the privatization of resources are contentious and the legal entitlements to agricultural land are disputed Under these new dynamics of land grabbing and resource extraction fundamental relationships between people and land are being disrupted while land has become a global commodity for millions it still serves as a crucial reference for identity formation and constitutes their most important source of livelihood This book seeks to disentangle the emerging relationships between people and land in Sudan The first part focuses on the spatial impact of resource extracting economies foreign agricultural land acquisitions Chinese investments in oil production and competition between artisanal and industrial gold mining Detailed ethnographic case studies in the second part from Darfur South Kordofan Red Sea State Kassala Blue Nile and Khartoum State show how rural people experience their land vis vis the latest wave of privatization and commercialization of land rights I rg Gertel is Professor of Economic Geography at Leipzig University Richard Rottenburg is Chair of Anthropology at the University of Halle Sandra Calkins is a Research Fellow at the Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology in Halle The African City Bill Freund, 2007-03-05 This book is comprehensive both in terms of time coverage from before the Pharaohs to the present moment and in that it tries to consider cities from the entire continent not just Sub Saharan Africa Apart from factual information and rich description material culled from many sources it looks at many issues from why urban life emerged in the first place to how present day African cities cope in difficult times Instead of seeing towns and cities as somehow extraneous to the real Africa it views them as an inherent part of developing Africa indigenous colonial and post colonial and emphasizes the extent to which the future of African society and African culture will likely be played out mostly in cities The book is written to appeal to students of history but equally to geographers planners sociologists and development specialists interested in urban problems

Imperialism and Development Nicholas Westcott,2020 A compelling exploration of one of the most ill advised and calamitous interventions in colonial development history

Islam & Ethnicity in Northern Kenya & Southern Ethiopia

Günther Schlee, Abdullahi A. Shongolo, 2012 A study of the longue dure of a marginalized part of northern Kenya examining the process of territorialization and the role of Islam in politicizing ethnicity Urban Design, Chaos, and Colonial Power in Zanzibar William Cunningham Bissell, 2011 Across Africa and elsewhere colonialism promised to deliver progress and development In urban Zanzibar the British vowed to import scientific techniques and practices ranging from sanitation to urban planning to create a perfect city However Bissell shows how these plans had to be remade over and over again

Ploughing New Ground Getnet Bekele, 2017 In October 2016 the Ethiopian administration declared a State of Emergency in response to anti Government demonstrations and mass riots Officially said to result from subversive activities channelled from Eritrea Egypt and diasporic populations in the West the evidence in fact suggests that the riots stemmed from widespread internal dissatisfaction Large scale land dispossessions following bilateral deals with transnational agribusiness damming of major rivers construction of sugar estates and industry parks as well as urban sprawl have put pressure on agricultural and rural areas Today displacement drought and widening inequalities surround fears of severe food shortages and political instability Drawing on informant testimonies court archives field reports and other sources the author examines these developments in Ethiopia's lake region He shows how transformations over time in spatial politics state society relations and the organization of production and exchange have influenced the situation today and reveals the impact of these changes on a population of smallholder farmers for which agriculture is not only the mainstay of the national economy but a way of life Getnet Bekele is Associate Professor of History at Oakland University MI where he teaches African History and the Environmental and Economic History of Africa and the Global South Peace Not War: Traditions of Restorative Justice in Imperial Ethiopia, 1769 - 1960 Charles Schaefer, 2025-05-27 Examines one of the few documented early examples of restorative justice from Africa or Latin America With a writing system Ethiopian emperors as well as pretenders to the throne chronicled their exploits including peace building feats and this book showcases and analyses historically verified instances from as early as 1769 where restorative justice modalities were used to resolve conflict and bring peace to the country Peace not War traces Ethiopia's evolving understanding of restorative justice from the forgive and forget approach which characterized the Zemene Mesafint Era of the Princes where perpetrators were exonerated allowing them to recoup and build their armies to fight another day to conditional forgiveness recorded by the imperial court and dependent on atonement Ethiopia's long history of experimentation with different forms of restorative justice demonstrates ingenuity flexibility and adaptability but as the twentieth century progressed workable indigenous forms of restorative justice were sidelined by Western codified law that emphasized retribution The Struggle for Land and Justice in Kenya Ambreena Manji,2020 Explores the limits of law in changing unequal land relations in Kenya Kenya's and Zambia's Relations with China 1949-2019 Jodie Yuzhou Sun, 2023 Examines the history of post colonial Kenya s and Zambia s relations with the People's Republic of China from ideological political economic and social perspectives Africa has become a major platform from which to analyse and understand China s growing influence in the global South Yet the impact of their historical relationship has been largely overlooked Through the triangulation of the global Cold War African history and Chinese history this study provides a detailed analysis of China Africa relations in the second half of the 20th century Examining the encounters conflicts and dynamics of China Kenya Zambia relations from the 1950s until the present as well as the basis on which historical narratives have been constructed the book presents two contrasting state perspectives underlining the concept of African agency Driven by a class based analysis of world revolution Communist China s foreign policy did not distinguish significantly between Kenya and Zambia Both countries sought ideological and material support from China in the years after their independence The Kenya African National Union under both Jomo Kenyatta and Daniel Moi pursued a consistently pragmatic foreign agenda and despite political tensions and ideological rifts with China since the mid 1960s Sino Kenyan trade has continued to grow steadily In contrast China Zambia relations under Kenneth Kaunda were cordial despite their political differences Zambian leaders maintained a relatively high consensus that any alleged Chinese Communist threat would not be allowed to fuel power struggles within their United National Independence Party Challenging both the widely accepted role of China Africa's historical lineage as well as the tendency to assume uniformity in China's relationships across the continent the author explains the development of these relationships and sheds light on the historical underpinnings or lack thereof on contemporary China Africa relations
