The History and Philosophy of Art Education Stuart Macdonald, 2004 Investigating the study of art and design education in Italy France Britain Germany and the United States this text traces the philosophies of teachers from the age of the guilds and the academies setting them in the context of the general education theories of their times

The History and Philosophy of Art Education Stuart Macdonald (Ph. D.), 1970 A History of Art Education Arthur D. Efland, 1990 Arthur Efland puts current debate and concerns in a well researched historical perspective He examines the institutional settings of art education throughout Western history the social forces that have shaped it and the evolution and impact of alternate streams of influence on present practice A History of Art Education is the first book to treat the visual arts in relation to developments in general education Particular emphasis is placed on the 19th and 20th centuries and on the social context that has affected our concept of art today This book will be useful as a main text in history of art education courses as a supplemental text in courses in art education methods and history of education and as a valuable resource for students professors and researchers The book should become a standard reference tool for art educators at all levels of the field The Journal of Aesthetics and Art Criticism Efland has filled a gap in historical research on art education and made an important contribution to scholarship in the field Studies in Art Education

A History of Disability and Art Education Claire Penketh, 2023-08-16 Drawing on recent theoretical frameworks from critical disability studies and art education including normalcy ableism disability and Crip theory this book offers an analysis of the conceptualisation of ability in art education and its relationship with disability Drawing on the work of Cizek and Lowenfeld in Austria Ruskin and Richardson in England and Dewey and Eisner in the United States it critically examines the influence of ideas such as the dominance of vision and visuality the emergence of psychological perspectives the Child Art Movement the implications of assessment regimes and the relevance of art education as a critical social practice on the production of disability Offering a sustained inquiry into the differential values attributed to learners and their work and the implications of this for framing our understanding of disability in art education this book shows that although art educators have frequently advocated for the universal appeal and importance of art education they have done so within historical contexts that have produced and determined problematic ideas regarding disability It will be of interest to all scholars and students of disability studies art in education art history and education studies

Handbook of Research and Policy in Art Education Elliot W. Eisner, Michael D. Day, 2004-04-12 The Handbook of Research and Policy in Art Education marks a milestone in the field of art education Sponsored by the National Art Education Association and assembled by an internationally known group of art educators this 36 chapter handbook provides an overview of the remarkable progress that has characterized this field in recent decades Organized into six sections it profiles and integrates the following elements of this rapidly emerging field history policy learning curriculum and instruction assessment and competing perspectives Because the scholarly foundations of art education are relatively new and loosely coupled this handbook provides researchers students and policymakers both inside and outside the field an invaluable snapshot of its current boundaries and rapidly growing content In a nutshell it provides much needed definition and intellectual respectability to a field that as recently as 1960 was more firmly rooted in the world of arts and crafts than in scholarly research The Studios of Frances and Margaret Macdonald Janice Helland,1996 Curriculum, Culture, and

Art Education Kerry Freedman,Fernando Hernández-Hernández,2024-09-01 Through international case studies this book explores the causes and effects of historical and contemporary cultural changes in art education A general broadening of content and methods a renewed emphasis on student interests and diverse critical perspectives can currently be seen internationally in art curricula This book explores ways that visual culture in education is helping to move art curricula off their historical foundations and open the field to new ways of teaching learning and prefiguring worlds It highlights critical histories and contemporary stories showing how cultural milieu influences and is influenced by the various practices that make up the professional field inside and outside of institutional borders This book shows students how contemporary art educators are responding revising and re creating the field Joseph Beuys and the Artistic Education Carl-Peter Buschkühle,2020-03-23 Joseph Beuys significantly influenced the development of art in recent decades through his expanded definition of art In his art and reflections on art he raised far reaching questions on the nature of art and its central importance for modern education His famous claim Every human is an artist points to the fundamental ability of every human to be creative in the art of life with respect to the development of one s own personality and one s actions within society Beuys saw society as an artwork in a permanent process of transformation a social sculpture in which every person participated and for which everyone should be educated as comprehensively as possible Beuys describes pedagogy as central to his art This book thus examines important aspects of Beuys s art and theory and the challenges they raise for contemporary artistic education It outlines the foundational theoretical qualities of artistic education and discusses the practice of artistic projects in a series of empirical examples The author Carl Peter Buschkühle documents projects he has undertaken with various high school classes In additional chapters Mario Urla discusses the great value of artistic projects in primary school and Christian Wagner reflects on his collaboration with the performance artist Wolfgang Sautermeister and school students in a socially disadvantaged urban area Artistic education has become one of the most influential art pedagogical concepts in German speaking countries This book presents its foundations and educational practices in English for the first time Philosophical Questions in Art Education Dorit Barchana-Lorand,2025-08-21 This book examines the rationale of incorporating the arts in the school curriculum from a philosophical rather than pedagogical perspective Educational resources are frequently under scrutiny and education policy makers wish to maximize the use of public funds and children s time at school leaving the arts as a lower priority To understand the logic behind this Lorand revisits milestones in the history of the philosophy of art to address core questions in art education namely what are the challenges of teaching the arts And why teach the arts at all Lorand draws on the work of a broad range of philosophers including Dewey Eisner Greene Hume Plato Kant Langer Read and Schiller The book aims to show how attempts to justify art as a tool for societal and individual improvement fail in advocating art education Ultimately she claims that the arts should be taught because children have the right to receive art education That right stems from the unique nature of art

The History of American Art Education Peter Smith,1996-07-22 The ideas people and events that developed art education are described and analyzed so that art educators and educators in general will have a better understanding of what has happened and is happening to visual art in the schools Peter Smith raises the issue of art education s inordinate emphasis on Eurocentric art He challenges the often expressed notion that the field of education is the cause of art education s problems and proposes that confused conceptions within the art world are just as much a root of the difficulty No other book in art education history gives such close and analytical attention to the careers of women in the field The materials on Germanic cultural and historical influences are unequaled as is the scholarly treatment of Viktor Lowenfeld probably the most influential single figure in 20th century American art education

Uncovering the History of Children's Drawing and Art Donna Kelly,2004-01-30 Reactions to children s artwork have varied throughout different times and places Donna Darling Kelly is calling for a more joyful appreciation of our youngest artists She presents the dichotomy of the Mirror and Window paradigms First she explains the Mirror paradigm which art educators psychologists and art historians use it is a psychological focus on children s art It can be defined as the ability of the child to represent images of something other than the object itself Psychologists who believe in this theory are interested in the self reflective qualities of children s drawing as they relate to language intelligence and cognitive development The opposing Window paradigm is an aesthetic perspective followed by people working in the arts The subscribers to this theory see children s art as an objective reproduction of reality that carries all of the meaning with the image The act of representation is the ultimate goal in this model not the truth behind the goal Darling Kelly would like to see the interested parties in the field of children s art placing less emphasis on the prevailing Mirror paradigm and embrace the Window paradigm Art educators often feel sidelined because subjects such as science and mathematics are requisites while art remains at best an elective Art is often classified as a sub discipline concerned primarily with therapeutic areas An unwanted effect of the Mirror paradigm is the stereotypical psychological model of the artist as a hopelessly neurotic or troubled soul This volume is a call to arms for the aesthetic Window paradigm so that art as an autonomous discipline can gain stature in the curriculum of all children s schools

Handbook of Research in the Social Foundations of Education Steven Tozer,Bernardo P. Gallegos,Annette Henry,Mary Bushnell Greiner,Paula Groves Price,2011-07-05 This groundbreaking volume helps readers understand the history evolution and significance of this wide ranging often misunderstood and increasingly important field of study

The Victorian Art School Ranald Lawrence,2020-09-02 The Victorian Art School documents the history of the art school in the nineteenth century from its origins in South Kensington to its proliferation through the major industrial centres of Britain Charles Rennie Mackintosh's Glasgow School of Art together with earlier examples in Manchester and Birmingham demonstrate an unprecedented concern for the provision of plentiful light and air amidst the pollution of the Victorian city As theories of design education and local governance converged they also reveal the struggle of the provincial city for cultural independence from the capital Examining innovations in the use of new technologies and approaches in the design of these buildings The Victorian Art School offers a unique and explicitly environmental reading of the Victorian city It examines how art schools complemented civic Improvement programmes their contribution to the evolution of art pedagogy the tensions that arose between the provincial schools and the capital and the role they would play in reimagining the relationship between art and public life in a rapidly transforming society The architects of these buildings synthesised the potential of art with the perfection of the internal environment indelibly shaping the future cultural life of Britain

Philosophy of Art Education Edmund Burke Feldman,1996 The primary aim of the book is to raise the questions and issues which should be of importance to art teachers by relating the practices and concerns of art teaching to some of the main problems of philosophy It integrates both subjects of art education and art teaching presents many of the principle issues regarding art education that are of concern to art teachers and provides future and current teachers of art with a means of reflecting on the reasons and goals for teaching art

Art Education Albert William Levi,Ralph Alexander Smith,1991 Recommending that art be taught as a humanity this volume provides a philosophical rationale for the idea of discipline based art education Levi and Smith discuss topics ranging over both the public and private aspects of art the disciplines of artistic creation art history art criticism and aesthetics and curriculum proposals featuring five phases of aesthetic learning While there is no consensus on how the various components of aesthetic learning should be presented in order to accomplish the goals of discipline based art education the authors point out that progress toward those goals will require that those who design art education programs bring an understanding of the four disciplines to their work The introductory volume of a five volume series this book will appeal to elementary and secondary art teachers those who prepare teachers at the college level and museum educators Beyond Multicultural Art Education Rachel Mason, Doug Boughton, 1999 Multiculturalism is a term that has been much used in educational texts in recent years Its usage is frequently taken for granted in the rhetoric of curriculum literature However it has recently become clear that there are significant variations of interpretations of multiculturalism in different world regions This book takes a new and deeper look at the notion of multiculturalism through the lens of art education In educational terms art is a unique tool for the investigation of cultural values because it transcends the barrier of language and provides visceral and tacit insights into cultural change In order to address the educational interpretations and methods of implementing multiculturalism in different regions of the world this book contains discussion and analysis of perspectives on art education theory and practice from thirteen countries The authors of each chapter are respected multicultural experts in their geographic locations who are well equipped to provide unique insights into the particular issues of multiculturalism viewed from the perspective of art in educational contexts The book as a whole provides tools for the conceptual analysis of contemporary notions linked with multiculturalism such as interculturalism internationalism and globalisation It also provides strategies for art teaching in relation to these ideas While the term multicultural education is problematic this book presents conceptual frameworks that should assist educators to examine their own teaching on issues of equity and diversity that are central to the multicultural education debate The Routledge Companion to Marxisms in Art History Tijen Tunali, Brian Winkenweder, 2025-03-31 This companion is an essential contribution to the study of historical materialism in general and the social history of art in particular Each chapter in the collection focuses on a key figure concept or historical epoch Increasingly scholars adopt an array of Marxist methods intertwined with a host of other theoretical practices particularly the historiography of key issues regarding hegemony ideology and identity Ideological issues of connoisseurship patronage and analyses of the artwork as a form of labor and leisure are essential to the practice of Marxisms in art history This collection spotlights a plurality of Marxian theories in which the ideas of such figures as Walter Benjamin Guy Debord and T J Clark are debated and developed through analyses of the socio historical conditions that impact how art is produced circulated and received This ultimately underscores that the historical contextualization of artworks and their markets within a class based society is crucial for writing socially engaged art history This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual studies visual sociology communication studies and the sociology of art Resources in Education , 1998
