The Imperial Patronage of Labor Genre Paintings in

Eighteenth-Century China Roslyn Lee Hammers, 2021-03-30 This book examines the agrarian labor genre paintings based on the Pictures of Tilling and Weaving that were commissioned by successive Chinese emperors Furthermore this book analyzes the genre's imagery as well as the poems in their historical context and explains how the paintings contributed to distinctively cosmopolitan Qing imagery that also drew upon European visual styles Roslyn Lee Hammers contends that technologically informed imagery was not merely didactic imagery to teach viewers how to grow rice or produce silk The Qing emperors invested in paintings of labor to substantiate the permanence of the dynasty and to promote the well being of the people under Manchu governance The book includes English translations of the poems of the Pictures of Tilling and Weaving as well as other documents that have not been brought together in translation The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history Chinese history Chinese studies history of science and technology book history labor history and Qing history

Handbook for Asian Studies Specialists Noriko Asato, 2013-10-08 An indispensable tool for librarians who do reference or collection management this work is a pioneering offering of expertly selected print and electronic reference tools for East Asian Studies Chinese Japanese and Korean Handbook for Asian Studies Specialists A Guide to Research Materials and Collection Building Tools is the first work to cover reference works for the main Asian area languages of China Japan and Korea Several leading Asian Studies librarians have contributed their many decades of experience to create a resource that gathers major reference titles both print and online that would be useful to today's Asian Studies librarian Organized by language group it offers useful information on the many subscription based and open source electronic tools relevant to Asian Studies This book will serve as an essential resource for reference collections at academic libraries Previously published bibliographies on materials deal with China or Japan or Korea but none have coalesced information on all three countries into one work or are written in English And unlike the other resources available this work provides the insight needed for librarians to make informed collection management decisions and reference selections

Inheritance within Rupture Zhitian Luo, 2015-01-08 In Inheritance within Rupture Luo Zhitian brings together ten essays to explore the themes of change and continuity rupture and inheritance from the late Qing through the early Republic 1890s 1940s Rejecting binaries such as tradition modernity conservative liberal Luo blurs the divisions between intellectual opponents and clarifies the divergences between scholarly friends Centering these discussions around some of the most famous intellectual debates in the modern period Luo challenges our understanding of ideological positions political affiliation and scholarly identity in early twentieth century China By focusing on the influence of cultural inheritance within the rupture of modernity we come to understand those concerns shared by all Chinese in their own times and in the present
