words characterizing the doctrine of justification by faith as it is known in English is most prominent in the writings of the Apostle Paul. It was this doctrine that lay at the heart of the sixteenth century Reformation. Martin Luther and his followers considered it to be at the very center of the gospel. Protestants came to understand justification differently from the Catholic Church they had left. Instead of the Catholic realist view in which God makes a sinner righteous, they came to a forensic understanding by which God as judge declares a sinner righteous. During the nineteenth century a third relational view began to emerge: it viewed justification as God's gift of a right relationship to a sinner. This monograph examines Paul's concept from three perspectives: the New Testament data, the way the doctrine has developed historically, and how the doctrine has been expressed in English translations of the Scriptures. The author concludes that it is the relational view that most accurately depicts Paul's concept of justification.

Echoes: Life Lessons from an Online Village Joseph Ola, Anu Ola, This book is born out of the outreach of the authors to young adults and teenagers, particularly those they are mentoring in an online village called Alive Mentorship Group. Based on an acknowledgement of the fact that our everyday life offers us tremendous learning opportunities, the book brings together various life lessons which the authors have shared with their mentees on the mentorship platform within a year 2021. Written in a devotional style based on reflective journaling, each chapter draws some life lessons from a reflection on the life experiences of the authors, their victories, failures, and observations from doing life with others on a daily basis. Their hope is that each reader will truly find these life lessons from their online village a helpful resource as they make progress in their destiny journey.

These questions and answers will give parents the tools to understand their children and equip them to answer important queries from their young ones. The book will help to lessen the feeling of frustration or fear that they won't know what to say at the right time. It will also be a great read together, devotional for families.

For Every Fear a Promise Dr. Brad Hicks, 2012-12-14 Real people face real fears. Dr. Hicks inspires you to discover that God has designed a way to help you cope with the fears in your life. There are many statements in Scripture that either explicitly or implicitly teach us not to fear. What you may not have discovered is that for every one of those, there is a promise from God to help you overcome the fear. With each devotional, you will find a fear, not and a promise from Scripture. As you discover and appropriate those promises, your fears should begin to subside. You will find yourself identifying with the stories that illustrate Bible truths about fear, be encouraged as you discover a blend of the spiritual and the therapeutic in coping with fear, and confront your personal fears and discover God's overcoming promises through each Scripture-rich life-applied devotional.
