The House at Luxor Florence Stevenson, 1976      Journeys Erased by Time: The Rediscovered Footprints of Travellers in Egypt and the Near East Neil Cooke, 2019-06-27 Early travellers in Egypt and the Near East made great contributions to our historical and geographical knowledge and gave us a better understanding of the different peoples languages and religions of the region Travellers in this volume are a mixture of rich and poor bravely adventuring into the unknown not knowing if would ever return home      The House of God Ernest Henry Short, 1926      Ancient Records of Egypt: The twentieth to the twenty-sixth dynasties James Henry Breasted, 1906      Ancient Records of Egypt: The twentieth to the twenty-sixth dynasties James Henry Breasted, 2001 With volume 4 of Ancient Records of Egypt James Henry Breasted brings us to the end of the self governed era of ancient Egyptian civilization Chief among the documents contained in this volume are the inscriptions from the Medinet Habu Temple one of the most completely preserved temples of Egypt and the great Papyrus Harris the largest 133 feet long and most sumptuous papyrus extant 95 percent of which Breasted was the first to study closely Together these documents present a detailed record of the reign and benefactions of Ramesses III whose reign lasted more than thirty years Volume 4 includes intriguing records of the harem conspiracy and legal documents that indicate the extent of robberies of royal tombs Records of the Nile levels at Karnak provide important chronological landmarks while the Stela of Piye Piankhi which documents the Nubian kingdom already in existence as a full fledged power provides information on the internal political climate of Egypt during a time when no aggressive monarch controlled the whole country Breasted also notes where these ancient Egyptian records intersect with accounts of the same events from other sources such as the mutiny of Psamtik I s troops as inscribed on the alabaster statue of Nesuhor and as narrated by Herodotus In effect Ancient Records of Egypt offers a valuable dual record On the one hand Breasted presents the events and personages of ancient Egypt as recorded in the documents On the other hand he presents a history of the documents themselves Fragmentary or partially destroyed carved on temple and tomb walls or written on fragile scrolls of leather or papyrus even inscribed on the coffins and temple linens of the royal and priestly mummy wrappings these records offer an irreplaceable primary source on a fascinating civilization      Women in the Valley of the Kings Kathleen Sheppard, 2024-07-16 The never before told story of the women Egyptologists who paved the way of exploration in Egypt and created the basis for Egyptology The history of Egyptology is often told as yet one more grand narrative of powerful men striving to seize the day and the precious artifacts for their competing homelands But that is only half of the story During the so called Golden Age of Exploration there were women working and exploring before Howard Carter discovered the tomb of King Tut Before men even conceived of claiming the story for themselves women were working in Egypt to lay the groundwork for all future exploration In Women in the Valley of the Kings The Untold Story of Women Egyptologists in the Gilded Age Kathleen Sheppard brings the untold stories of these women back into this narrative Sheppard begins with some of the earliest European women who ventured to Egypt as travelers Amelia Edwards Jenny Lane and Marianne Brocklehurst Their travelogues diaries and maps chronicled a new world for the curious In the vast desert Maggie Benson the first woman granted permission to excavate in Egypt met Nettie Gourlay the woman who became her lifelong companion They battled issues of oppression and exclusion and ultimately are credited with excavating the Temple of Mut As each woman scored a success in the desert she set up the women who came later for their own struggles and successes Emma Andrews success as a patron and archaeologist helped to pave the way for Margaret Murray to teach Margaret s work in the university led to the artists Amice Calverley s and Myrtle Broome s ability to work on site at Abydos creating brilliant reproductions of tomb art and to Kate Bradbury s and Caroline Ransom s leadership in critical Egyptological institutions Women in the Valley of the Kings upends the grand male narrative of Egyptian exploration and shows how a group of courageous women charted unknown territory and changed the field of Egyptology forever Tutankhamen Joyce Tyldesley,2012-03-06 Published in 2012 in Great Britain by Profile Books Ltd T p verso Encyclopaedia medica v. 12, 1902 ,1902 Encyclopaedia Medica Chalmers Watson,1902 A Guide to the Antiquities of Upper Egypt Arthur Edward Pearse Brome Weigall,1913

Chicago on the Nile Emily Teeter, 2024-09-10 Chicago on the Nile relates the colorful story of the University of Chicago's Epigraphic Survey expedition to Egypt from its conception in 1924 by the first American Egyptologist James Henry Breasted through its development over the course of a century to become the major scientific and social presence it is today not just in Egypt but throughout the world Initially envisioned as a small group of scientists devoted to documenting the ancient historical inscriptions and reliefs on the walls of the temple of Medinet Habu in Luxor the Epigraphic Survey's work grew to encompass many of the most important sites in Egypt including Karnak Luxor Temple the tomb of Kheruef Saqqara Abydos and the Beit el Wali temple in Nubia The story places this work within the larger contexts of Egyptian and international politics the vicissitudes of the world financial situation and academic policies Drawing on hundreds of letters and photos most of them previously unpublished the book explores why the Epigraphic Survey chose specific sites for its work the often grand expectations for its projects and publication program and the ultimate results The history of Chicago House the Survey's headquarters and residence is described in detail and offers many amusing anecdotes of social life there over the past century As such Chicago on the Nile provides a who's who of Egyptologists and archaeologists who worked for and interacted with the Survey to save the endangered texts and reliefs on the ancient monuments of the Nile Valley
