Japan and the City of London Paul Newall, 2013-12-17 From an insider's position Sir Paul Newall tells the story of Japan's links with the City of London and explains why the City was first chosen by Japan as the focal point for its overseas financial investment This account draws upon the author's close contact with Japanese governmental and financial authorities both in the UK and Japan itself It documents the evolution and development of this relationship from the earliest beginnings of Japanese financial contact in the 1860s Important to economic and financial historians this account should also be of particular value to those dealing with Japanese companies and financial institutions as well as to those Japanese who are working or have worked in the City First published in 1996 this title is part of the Bloomsbury Academic Collections series colonial times and into postcolonial reforms this book presents a new and groundbreaking story about Korean women's legal struggles revealing their surprising collaborative relationship with the colonial state Declining Competitiveness in America's Industrial, Technological, and Financial Base United States.
