The House On Esplanade:

The House on Esplanade William Biery, 1973 The House on Esplanade Larry Gray, 2023 On November 11 1918 Yvonne St Amant received a telegram at her house on Esplanade Avenue in New Orleans informing her that her husband of only a few months had been killed in the Argonne From then on every year Yvonne lit a candle before the photograph of her husband at precisely 11 a m on November 11 Fifteen years later as she was lighting the candle her doorbell rang It was a young woman who introduced herself as Yvonne s first cousin once removed In her arms was a tiny baby A week later the young mother disappeared leaving the baby on a bed in the big house Pinned to the pillow beside the baby was a note I am sorry The baby s name was Marie Antoinette Ren e Binghamton but Yvonne always called her Bing Bing was born in 1933 and lived into the twenty first century Her life encompassed many wars WWII Korea the Cold War Vietnam as well as her own wars polio that left her with an almost indiscernible limp young love in a lit au mariage on the Rue Mouffetard in Paris the beaches of the C te d Azur and the summer of love in San Francisco which left her pregnant with a son And New Orleans where she always returned becoming first une femme d un certain age and then an old lady the way of all flesh Through it all Bing had one ambition I don t want to grow old before I grow wise This is her story The Papers of Frederick Law

Olmsted Frederick Law Olmsted, 1977 The concluding volume of the monumental Papers of Frederick Law Olmsted captures some of Olmsted s greatest achievements Choice 2015 Outstanding Academic Title In 1890 Frederick Law Olmsted then nearly sixty eight years old had risen to the pinnacle of his career Together with his partners stepson John Charles Olmsted and prot g Henry Sargent Codman he was involved in a number of major ongoing projects including the Boston Buffalo and Rochester park systems the campus plan for Stanford University and numerous private estates In July he reported that the firm had twenty works of considerable importance underway including nine large parks and six estates that he believed were matters of public interest Before the summer ended the firm s commitments would expand dramatically as Olmsted and his partners were appointed landscape architects for the World s Columbian Exposition in Chicago As commissions for new park systems residential communities grounds for educational institutions and private homes increased Olmsted feared that their commitments would exceed the partners ability to do their best work Despite these fears Olmsted s work in the final six years of his professional career would only enhance his considerable reputation as the ninth and final volume of The Papers of Frederick Law Olmsted reveals With its impressive waterways monumental buildings and verdant islands and shores the Chicago fair proved to be one of the firm s crowning achievements The early 1890s also saw the culmination of Olmsted s wide ranging work on one of his other great projects the design of the grounds of George W Vanderbilt s massive estate Biltmore near Asheville North Carolina In planning the estate s thousands of acres Olmsted outlined new approaches to landscape design promoted the creation of the first scientific forestry operation in the United States designed a model residential subdivision and proposed an arboretum that would have been the most ambitious in the nation The Last Great

Projects 1890 1895 chronicles the history of one of the world's greatest landscape design firms while offering a fascinating retrospective on Frederick Law Olmsted's productive final years. The volume also gathers together the important documents of this last triumphant era. As Olmsted neared the end of his career, he wrote some of his most reflective letters and reports summarizing the legacy of his involvement with the U.S. Sanitary Commission, the quality of landscape design in England and France, the biographical circumstances that proved most important to his development as an artist, and his hopes and fears for the future of his profession.

Plantations & Historic Homes of New Orleans Jan Arrigo, Laura McElroy, Hurricane Katrina ravaged much of New Orleans in 2005, but thankfully the city's most treasured historic homes survived. Plantations, the homes artist Edgar Degas and author William Faulkner lived in during their New Orleans stays, and the 1850 House located in the Lower Pontalba building on Jackson Square. Learn about the building's namesake, a baroness with a tumultuous family life who managed to escape murder and was also responsible for building the American embassy in Paris. With lavish photographs of exteriors and rooms of special interest, gardens and curiosities, and detailed information about New Orleans' diverse architecture and history, this book is both a perfect guide for visitors and natives alike and an enchanting visual tour of one of the greatest cities in the United States.

The National Trust Guide to New Orleans Roulhac

Toledano, 1996-04-23 Toledano New Orleans 144045 The Definitive Guide to the Architectural and Cultural Treasures of One of North America's Most Beloved Cities. The National Trust Guide to New Orleans is an indispensable resource for tourists, armchair travelers, architects, and anyone concerned with the preservation of one of the world's most fascinating cities. From the cast iron ornamentation in the French Quarter to the stately Greek Revival residences of the Garden District, this lavishly illustrated guide takes you on a neighborhood-by-neighborhood journey through the architectural and cultural treasures of the Big Easy. Providing a cross section of types and styles of architecture for each neighborhood covered, the guide pays special attention to architecturally important buildings once inhabited by notable persons. Photographs, drawings, engravings, etchings, maps, and other images created by earlier building watchers show you the sites through the eyes of other generations. You'll find fascinating historical details about the buildings' architects, builders, and residents, up-to-date information on food, lodgings, and entertainment, and discussions of preservation issues that pertain to many of the sites.

Calcutta, Past and Present

Kathleen Blechynden, 1905 Lost Buildings of Worthing Antony Edmonds, 2016-10-15 A vivid and fascinating account of Worthing's old buildings and the people associated with them, beautifully illustrated with engravings and photographs.

The Historian's Awakening Bernard Koloski, 2018-11-16 The Historian's Awakening is a full commentary on the text included that provides social and cultural history context, discussions of the author and her times, as well as valuable insight into historical forces that shaped people's lives. Kate Chopin's classic novel about a modern woman who desires to break free from tradition endures in part due to its critical and thought-provoking themes about society. While many editions of Kate Chopin's classic novel are in print, only The Historian's Awakening deals exclusively with the 19th-century social and cultural environment from which the novel emerged In The Awakening Kate Chopin portrays a modern woman who seeks autonomy subjected to intense social and cultural conventions that first draw her out of her lifelong solitude but ultimately leave her feeling even more alone This newly annotated edition focuses on how 19th century ideas about class gender ethnicity and modernity affect a courageous woman s life Challenging prevailing scholarship by situating the novel within a rich historical context it examines the social and cultural realities of the 1890s and explains how in the novel these forces combine with an emerging modernity to liberate and unsettle its female protagonist
