Barclay, John Thomas Gulick, Robert Alan Fernea, Alex Weingrod, 1968 The Central Middle East, 1971 National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1972 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 Ibss: Anthropology: 1972 International Committee for Social Science Information and Documentation, 1974-10-24 First published in 1974 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Central Middle East Harold B. Barclay, John Gulick, Robert A. Fernea, Alex Weingrod, 1968 Muslims as Actors Jacques Waardenburg, 2012-02-13 This book deals with Islamic studies and with the question how the scholarly study of religion can contribute to the study of Islam The author advocates studying Islamic phenomena as signs and symbols interpreted and applied in diverse ways in existing traditions He stresses the role of Muslims as actors in the ongoing debate about the articulation of Islamic ways of life and construction of Islam as a religion A careful study of this debate should steer clear of political religious and ideological interests Research in this area by Muslims and non Muslim scholars alike should address the question of what Muslims have made of their Islam in specific circumstances Current political contexts have created an unhealthy climate for pursuing an open approach to Islam based on reading observing listening and reflecting Yet precisely nowadays we need to look anew at ways of Muslim thinking and acting that refer to Islam and to avoid certain schemes of interpreting Muslim realities that are no longer adequate for present day Muslim life situations Muslim recourse to Islam can be studied as human constructions of value and meaning and relations between Muslims and others can be seen in terms of human interaction without blame always falling on Islam as such Cultural Anthropology JoAnn Jacoby, Josephine Kibbee, 2007-05-30 The latest edition of a major literature guide provides citations and informative annotations on a wide range of reference sources including manuals bibliographies indexes databases literature surveys and reviews dissertations book reviews conference proceedings awards and employment and grant sources The organization closely follows that of the 1st edition with some much needed additions relating to online resources and new areas of interest within the field such as forensic anthropology environmental anthropology and Lesbian Bisexual Gay and Transgendered Anthropology Separate sections focus on individual subfields as well as emerging concerns such as ethical issues in cultural heritage preservation For academic and research library collections as well as faculty members in anthropology area studies and intercultural studies The Pasha's Bedouin Reuven Aharoni, 2007-03-12 Providing a new perspective on tribal life in Egypt under Mehmet Ali's rule this book looks at the social and conceptual aspects of the Bedouin tribes during this period Field Notes Zachary Lockman, 2016-03-30 Field Notes reconstructs the origins and trajectory of area studies in the United States focusing on Middle East studies from the 1920s to the 1980s Drawing on extensive archival research Zachary Lockman shows how the Carnegie Rockefeller and Ford foundations played key roles in conceiving funding and launching postwar area studies expecting them to yield a new kind of interdisciplinary knowledge that would advance the social sciences while benefiting government agencies and the American people Lockman argues however that these new academic fields were not simply a product of the Cold War or an instrument of the American national security state but had roots in shifts in the humanities and the social sciences over the interwar years as well as in World War II sites and practices This book explores the decision making processes and visions of knowledge production at the foundations the Social Science Research Council and others charged with guiding the intellectual and institutional development of Middle East studies Ultimately Field Notes uncovers how area studies as an academic field was actually built a process replete with contention anxiety dead ends and consequences both unanticipated and unintended

The Evolution of Middle Eastern Landscapes John Malcolm Wagstaff, 1985-01-01 This book provides a background to the modern geography of the Middle East by tracing the evolution of humanized managed landscapes from the domestication of cereals through to the initiation of the great transformations of the region in the mid nineteenth century By examining the natural potential of the region in terms of climate natural vegetation and physical conditions and charting the emergence of basic long lasting traditional economies based on this environment the author shows how the environment stimulated traditional life styles which in turn perpetuated and molded the region Foreign Acquisitions Newsletter, 1970 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1973 Neopatriarchy Hisham Sharabi, 1992-10-29 Focusing on the region of the Arab world comprising some two hundred million people and twenty one sovereign states extending from the Atlantic to the Persian Gulf this book develops a theory of social change that demystifies the setbacks this region has experienced on the road to transformation Professor Sharabi pinpoints economic political social and cultural changes in the last century that led the Arab world as well as other developing countries not to modernity but to neopatriarchy a modernized form of patriarchy He shows how authentic change was blocked and distorted forms and practices subsequently came to dominate all aspects of social existence and activity among them militant religious fundamentalism an ideology symptomatic of neopatriarchal culture Presenting itself as the only valid option Muslim fundamentalism now confronts the elements calling for secularism and democracy in a bitter battle whose outcome is likely to determine the future of the Arab world as well as that of other Muslim societies in Africa and Asia The Palgrave
