Finding God's Bearings Doyle R. Kitchin, 2011-05 She cares for me She has given me the greatest challenges I've ever known and rejoices in my growth She provides for me All I need is within her decks my food my lodging my job and my friends She has taken me to many places I've known the excitement of seeing new and wondrous sights I've felt the sadness of seeing poverty and oppression But I can always return to her and feel at home She's taught me how to trust and believe in others She refuses to run well except with teamwork She has forced me to know myself my values my strengths and my weaknesses I have found depths of strength and commitment I never knew were there She gives me joy There's nothing like standing upon her bridge and feeling her respond to my commands And at the end of the day when I lie exhausted on my rack she gently rocks me to sleep In Finding God's Bearings Doyle Kitchin delves into life changing information that took him years of service and sacrifice to learn He poignantly reveals the importance of service doing the will of God growing as a Christian and staying connected with God He divulges the sought out definition of success and how to be successful If that's not enough Doyle also spotlights the importance of family friends and dealing with your feelings These topics are told with a fresh perspective and colorful anecdotes in Finding God's Bearings
