The Chemical Warfare Service Leo P. Brophy, Wyndham D. Miles, Rexmond Canning Cochrane, 1959 The Chemical Warfare Service: The chemical warfare service; from laboratory to field ,1959 The Chemical Warfare Service Rexmond C. Cochrane, Wyndham D. Miles, Leo P. Brophy, 2015-06-27 Rather belatedly the United States Army in preparing for World War II investigated on an intensive and very large scale the chemical munitions that might be necessary or useful in fighting the Axis powers This effort required the collaboration of a host of civilian scientists and research centers as well as a great expansion of the laboratories and proving grounds of the Chemical Warfare Service itself A similar development recounted at the beginning of this work came too late to influence the outcome of World War I In World War II on the other hand the Army not only prepared against gas warfare sufficiently well to discourage its employment by the enemy but also developed a number of new chemical weapons that contributed materially to victory The authors add perspective and interest to their story by telling very briefly about corresponding German and Japanese activity The manufacture of chemical munitions in quantity was possible only through a rapid expansion of private industry to support and supplement the work of Army arsenals Both necessity and choice led the Chemical Warfare Service to make widespread use of small industrial concerns throughout the United States and the account of production in this work is especially pertinent to a consideration of the problems involved in military contracting with small business on a big scale In this and other respects From Laboratory to Field complements other volumes in the Army series dealing with problems of military procurement The Chemical Warfare Service Leo P. Brophy, 2018-02-16 Excerpt from The Chemical Warfare Service From Laboratory to Field Dr Leo P Brophy etc all of the chapters and sections of chapters dealing with procurement and distribution He was assisted in the research and writing of Chapters XIV and XVI by Mr Sherman L Davis of the Historical Staff Chemical Corps Dr Wyndham D Miles wrote all of the chapters on research and development except the section of Chapter IV dealing with the treatment of gas casualties and Chapter V The latter were researched and put in draft form by Dr Rexmond C Cochrane Dr Brooks E Kleber and Mr Dale Birdsell reviewed the chapters and offered helpful comments About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Chemical Warfare Service: from Laboratory to Field ,1970 The Chemical Warfare Service: Organizing for war ,1959 The Chemical Warfare Service: The chemical warfare service; from laboratory to field ,1959 The Chemical Warfare Service: From Laboratory to Field, 2010,  ,2011 The Chemical Warfare Service: from Laboratory
