Mann, 2022-09-29 Thomas W Mann is a biblical scholar and retired parish minister and the author of numerous books and articles He is particularly interested in how experiences in nature prompt theological reflection based in the Bible shaping our sense of sacred time and place and how the lectionary readings of the church year also provide a spiritual calendar for the seasons of our lives The result is a conversation inspired by poets and writers like Mary Oliver Wendell Berry and John Muir but also by philosophers and theologians ranging from Abraham Joshua Heschel to David Kelsey Along the way we enter beach time and take backpacking trips in the Sierras but also join the triumphal entry parade on Palm Sunday and listen to the stable animals on Christmas Eve We perceive the beauty of creation through the eyes of science as well as religion sensually as well as intellectually We celebrate our communion with all creatures from fungus to forests inspired with awe and reverence and with a responsibility to care for the earth so threatened by climate change Celebrating The 12 Days of Christmas Chris Marchand, 2019-10-10 The song The 12 Days of Christmas is a mainstay of the holiday season but the practice of celebrating Christmas as a twelve day festival fell out of fashion long ago in most cultures In Celebrating the 12 Days of Christmas author Chris Marchand explores the history behind the season and individual feast days from December 25 to January 6 and then offers suggestions for how you can celebrate it with your family church or community Along with this he provides answers to many of the nagging questions surrounding the holiday such as the history behind the twelve days song why December 25 was chosen as the date and what to do about its supposedly pagan origins The challenge

before us is to first help people see Christmas as a holiday that begins rather than ends on December 25 and then to together figure out how to reinvent Christmas in the present by learning how it was celebrated in the past
