The Fast Sooner Hound Arna Wendell Bontemps, 1942      The Fast Sooner Hound Arna Bontemps, Jack Conroy, 1942
Chagrined that the hound Sooner continually outruns his trains the roadmaster pits his speed against that of his fastest train the Cannon Ball      The American People B.A. Botkin, 2020-02-13 This stimulating anthology prepared by the great folklorist B A Botkin is comprised of the traditional songs stories customs and beliefs which have been handed down by word of mouth for so long that they seem to have a life of their own For Botkin they are at the core of peoplehood When one thinks of American folklore one thinks not only of the folklore of American life the traditions that have sprung up on American soil but also of the literature of folklore the migratory traditions that have found a home in the New World      Encyclopedia of American Humorists Steven H. Gale, 2016-04-14 First published in 1988 this book contains entries on famous American Humorists Humor has been present in American literature from the beginning and has developed characteristics that reflect the American character both regional and national Although American literature was in the past treated as inferior to British literature there has always been a large popular audience for the genre which this book shows The figures with entries in this encyclopedia not only amuse in their writing but also aim to enlighten setting out to expose the foibles and foolishness of society and the individuals who compose it It is the manner in which these authors try to accomplish this end that determines whether they appear in the volume Indeed the book will demonstrate that the best humor has at its base a ready understanding of human nature      The Continuum Encyclopedia of Children's Literature Bernice E. Cullinan, Diane Goetz Person, 2005-01-01 Provides articles covering children s literature from around the world as well as biographical and critical reviews of authors including Avi C S Lewis J K Rowling and Anno Mitsumasa      Bureau Publication ,1912      Tales for Little Rebels Julia L. Mickenberg, Philip Nel, 2008-11 A rarely discussed aspect of children s literature the politics behind a book s creation has been thoroughly explored in this intelligent enlightening and fascinating account      Making Americans Gary D. Schmidt, 2013-12 Making Americans is a study of a time when the authors and illustrators of children s books consciously set their eyes on national and international sights with the hope of bringing the next generation into a full sense of citizenship Schmidt examines the literature for young people published during a momentous period in our nation s past and documents in detail its role as an instrument of nation building and social reform A thought provoking contribution to our understanding of children s books as cultural transmitters and transformers      Embracing, Evaluating, and Examining African American Children's and Young Adult Literature Wanda M. Brooks, Jonda C. McNair, 2008 Serious scholarship on African American children s and young adult literature is a relatively recent phenomenon To date only a handful of book length works aside from doctoral dissertations have been devoted to the exploration of this body of work and the historical works that are at its foundation Embracing Evaluating and Examining African American Children s and Young Adult Literature features 12 original essays that present research related to African American children s literature books intended for youth that are written by and about African Americans conducted by scholars from leading academic institutions Editors Wanda M Brooks and Jonda C McNair offer a bouquet of diverse perspectives on African American children s and young adult literature focusing attention on texts on readers and on pedagogical strategies that have the potential to bring the texts and the readers together Beginning with a foreword by one of the leading scholars in the field of African American children s and young adult literature Rudine Sims Bishop the varied disciplinary perspectives put forth in this book will inspire others to embrace evaluate and examine African American children s and young adult literature for many years to come American Literature in Transition, 1930-1940 Ichiro Takayoshi, 2018-11-15 American Literature in Transition 1930 1940 gathers together in a single volume preeminent critics and historians to offer an authoritative analytic and theoretically advanced account of the Depression era s key literary events Many topics of canonical importance such as protest literature Hollywood fiction the culture industry and populism receive fresh treatment The book also covers emerging areas of interest such as radio drama bestsellers religious fiction internationalism and middlebrow domestic fiction Traditionally scholars have treated each one of these issues in isolation This volume situates all the significant literary developments of the 1930s within a single and capacious vision that discloses their hidden structural relations their contradictions similarities and reciprocities This is an excellent resource for undergraduate graduate students and scholars interested in American literary culture of the 1930s

Selected Letters of Langston Hughes Langston Hughes, 2015-02-10 This is the first comprehensive selection from the correspondence of the iconic and beloved Langston Hughes It offers a life in letters that showcases his many struggles as well as his memorable achievements Arranged by decade and linked by expert commentary the volume guides us through Hughes s journey in all its aspects personal political practical and above all literary His letters range from those written to family members notably his father who opposed Langston s literary ambitions and to friends fellow artists critics and readers who sought him out by mail These figures include personalities such as Carl Van Vechten Blanche Knopf Zora Neale Hurston Arna Bontemps Vachel Lindsay Ezra Pound Richard Wright Kurt Weill Carl Sandburg Gwendolyn Brooks James Baldwin Martin Luther King Jr Alice Walker Amiri Baraka and Muhammad Ali The letters tell the story of a determined poet precociously finding his mature voice struggling to realize his literary goals in an environment generally hostile to blacks reaching out bravely to the young and challenging them to aspire beyond the bonds of segregation using his artistic prestige to serve the disenfranchised and the cause of social justice irrepressibly laughing at the world despite its quirks and humiliations Venturing bravely on what he called the big sea of life Hughes made his way forward always aware that his only hope of self fulfillment and a sense of personal integrity lay in diligently pursuing his literary vocation Hughes s voice in these pages enhanced by photographs and quotations from his poetry allows us to know him intimately and gives us an unusually rich picture of this generous visionary gratifyingly good man who was also a genius of modern American letters

Worker-writer in America Douglas Wixson, 1994 Conroy a coal miner s son who apprenticed at age thirteen in a railroad shop later migrated to factory cities and experienced the privation and labor struggles of the 1930s As worker and writer he composed The Disinherited one of the most important working class novels of the thirties As editor of a radical literary journal The Anvil he nurtured the early careers of Richard Wright Nelson Algren and Meridel LeSueur before his own literary work was eclipsed in the cold war years Douglas Wixson draws upon a wealth of letters and manuscripts made available to him as Conroy's literary executor as well as numerous interviews with Conroy and his former contributors and colleagues Wixson explores the origins and development of worker writing and the numerous little magazines it generated He examines the differences between the midwestern and East Coast literary worlds and the milieu in which Conroy and others like him worked the Depression job layoffs factory closings homelessness and migration

African American Literature in Transition, 1930-1940: Volume 10 Eve Dunbar, Ayesha K. Hardison, 2022-04-07 The volume explores 1930s African American writing to examine Black life culture and politics to document the ways Black artists and everyday people managed the Great Depression's economic impact on the creative and the social Essays engage iconic figures such as Sterling Brown Langston Hughes Zora Neale Hurston Dorothy West and Richard Wright as well as understudied writers such as Arna Bontemps and Marita Bonner Henry Lee Moon and Roi Ottley This book demonstrates the significance of the New Deal's Works Progress Administration WPA the Communist Party of the United States CPUSA and Black literary circles in the absence of white patronage By featuring novels poetry short fiction and drama alongside guidebooks photographs and print culture African American Literature in Transition 1930-1940 provides evidence of the literary culture created by Black writers and readers during a period of economic precarity expanded activism for social justice and urgent internationalism

Alternative Rhetorics Laura Gray-Rosendale, Sibylle Gruber, 2001-04-19 Challenges the traditional rhetorical canon

A World to Win Jack Conroy, 2000 Written in the full heat of the Great Depression Jack Conroy's A World to Win bears the marks of the labor struggles and union strikes he witnessed in the early 1930s Like Dickens Conroy evokes compassion and warmth for his absurd comic tragic characters through caricature using parody to extract humor from their grimly circumscribed lives Set in St Louis the narrative centers on Leo and Robert Hurley two half brothers who are divided by education and aspirations Leo is an unlikely proletarian hero who finally gains political consciousness in spite of himself Robert has literary pretensions but little talent and a head clogged with scraps of genteel romance and Victorian poetry As Leo and Robert grope toward reconciliation they come into contact with hybrids of artistic milieus radical politics and labor activism that were particular to the Popular Front era The introduction by Douglas Wixson shows how Conroy's writing is embedded in his experiences and also how his flawless ear for language shapes both form and character in the novel Moving readers from a sentimentalized concern for the poor to a more concrete contemplation of the social and political conditions that characterize their lives A World to Win serves as a reminder of the continuing importance of a dedication like Conroy's to giving voice to the voiceless
