The Fate Of Place A Philosophical History A Centennial:

The Fate of Place Edward S. Casey, 1997 Offers a philosophical history of the evolving conceptualizations of place and space in Western thought The text begins with mythological creation stories and the theories of Plato and Aristotle It then considers modern spatial conceptions in 20th century The Fate of Place Edward Casey, 2013-05-13 In this imaginative and comprehensive study Edward Casey one of the most incisive interpreters of the Continental philosophical tradition offers a philosophical history of the evolving conceptualizations of place and space in Western thought Not merely a presentation of the ideas of other philosophers The Fate of Place is acutely sensitive to silences absences and missed opportunities in the complex history of philosophical approaches to space and place A central theme is the increasing neglect of place in favor of space from the seventh century A D onward amounting to the virtual exclusion of place by the end of the eighteenth century Casey begins with mythological and religious creation stories and the theories of Plato and Aristotle and then explores the heritage of Neoplatonic medieval and Renaissance speculations about space He presents an impressive history of the birth of modern spatial conceptions in the writings of Newton Descartes Leibniz and Kant and delineates the evolution of twentieth century phenomenological approaches in the work of Husserl Merleau Ponty Bachelard and Heidegger In the book's final section Casey explores the postmodern theories of Foucault Derrida Tschumi Deleuze and Guattari and Irigaray

Foundations for Sociorhetorical Exploration Vernon K. Robbins, Robert H. von Thaden Jr., Bart B. Bruehler, 2016-09-02 Engaging resources for understanding the importance of bodies and spaces in producing and interpreting persuasive language This volume collects essays that represent intellectual milestones that are informing sociorhetorical interpretation during the twenty first century The essays are arranged into five parts 1 Topos 2 Cultural Geography and Critical Spatiality 3 Rhetorolects and Conceptual Blending 4 Rhetography and 5 Rhetorical Force Features Tools for integrating multiple approaches to biblical interpretation Resources that emphasize the importance of language that prompts mental pictures in effective rhetoric Essays from classicists rhetoricians and biblical scholars Monsters in Greek Literature Fiona Mitchell, 2021-05-30 Monsters in Greek literature are often thought of as creatures which exist in mythological narratives however as this book shows they appear in a much broader range of ancient sources and are used in creation narratives ethnographic texts and biology to explore the limits of the human body and of the human world This book provides an in depth examination of the role of monstrosity in ancient Greek literature In the past monsters in this context have largely been treated as unimportant or analysed on an individual basis By focusing on genres rather than single creatures the book provides a greater understanding of how monstrosity and abnormal bodies are used in ancient sources Very often ideas about monstrosity are used as a contrast against which to examine the nature of what it is to be human both physically and behaviourally This book focuses on creation narratives ethnographic writing and biological texts These three genres address the origins of the human world its spatial limits and the nature of the human body by examining monstrosity in these genres we can see the ways in which Greek texts construct the space and time in which people exist and the nature of our bodies This book is aimed primarily at scholars and students undertaking research not only those with an interest in monstrosity but also scholars exploring cultural representations of time especially the primordial and mythological past ancient geography and ethnography and ancient philosophy and science As the representation of monsters in antiquity was strongly influential on medieval renaissance and early modern images and texts this book will also be relevant to people researching these areas

Issues in Teaching and Learning of Education for Sustainability Chew-Hung Chang, Gillian Kidman, Andy Wi, 2019-09-25 In a fast changing globalising world the teaching and implementation of a curriculum for Education for Sustainability EfS has been a challenge for many teachers Issues in Teaching and Learning of Education for Sustainability highlights the issues and challenges educators and academics face in implementing EfS and gives examples of what an EfS curriculum may look like and how some institutions translate the theory into practice Organised into three parts the volume looks at the who EfS for whom the what EfS curriculum and the how translating from theory to practice The concluding chapter provides ideas and directions on where the world can proceed regarding sustainability education and how it can help in the teaching and learning of sustainability Considering social issues such as poverty education health culture and the use of natural resources this book proposes a different path towards Education for Sustainability Providing concrete data on the realisation of sustainable development Issues in Teaching and Learning of Education for Sustainability will be of interest to geographers geography educators and professionals concerned with Education for Sustainability

Transnational Screen Culture in Scandinavia Pei-Sze Chow, 2021-09-28 This book explores a range of lesser known documentaries and short films from the transnational resund region released in the period 2000 2009 focusing on how this Scandinavian region s urban and maritime spaces iconic architecture and peripheral communities across Malm and Copenhagen have been imagined and critiqued through film This is the first book to widen the critical gaze beyond popular representations to examine a significant body of peripheral films produced in and about the metropolitan resund region Emerging at a time of spatial transformation and geopolitical change these films weave alternative narratives that confront the official rhetoric of transnational regionalism Offering the concept of regioscape as a way to investigate the intimate relationship between artistic representation screen policy space and the region building project this book presents new readings of films by contemporary Swedish and Danish filmmakers such as Fredrik Gertten Kolbj rn Guwallius Daniel Dencik and Max Kestner

Home in A Hybrid World Martin Pot, 2022-09-01 Whilst our outside world is modifying into a more complex and hybrid networked world our most intimate dwelling our home is at risk of falling behind as for many it seems to have remained the same as it has been for many decades This book explores what it means to have a home in such a networked world It describes what architecture can or perhaps should contribute to enable a more participatory role for inhabitants This forward thinking book will try to answer the question What is the role and position of technology in our most intimate locations both now and what could it be like in the future The Concept of World from Kant to Derrida Sean Gaston,2013-09-20 In the mid eighteenth century metaphysics was broadly understood as the study of three areas of philosophical thought theology psychology and cosmology This book examines the fortunes of the third of these formidable metaphysical concepts the world Sean Gaston provides a clear and concise account of the concept of world from the mid eighteenth century to the end of the twentieth century exploring its possibilities and limitations and engaging with current issues in politics and ecology He focuses on the work of five principal thinkers Kant Hegel Husserl Heidegger and Derrida all of whom attempt to establish new grounds for seeing the world as a whole Gaston presents a critique of the self evident use of the concept of world in philosophy and asks whether one can move beyond the need for a world like vantage point to maintain a concept of world From Kant to the present day this concept has been a problem for philosophy and it remains to be seen if we need a new Copernican revolution when it comes to the concept of world Toward Defining the Prairies Robert Wardhaugh,2001-04-30 New ways of thinking about literature and history have radically changed how we think about or even define a region like the Prairie West In fact the very concept of defining has come into question by new theoretical approaches and it may now seem a hopeless endeavour But the process of defining can be just as important as the actual production of a definition Toward Defining the Prairies highlights recent approaches to thinking about the Prairie West Bounded by pieces from well known historian Gerald Friesen and Governor General s Award winning writer Robert Kroetsch these 13 essays are as diverse as the region itself In their examination of different aspects of Prairie history literature climate society culture and identity they help to provide a new understanding of this place and of the complexities of its definition

Horatio Joyce,2018-10-18 Bringing together fourteen original essays this collection opens up new perspectives on the architectural history of the nineteenth century by examining the buildings of the period through the lens of experience With a focus on the experience of the ordinary building user rather than simply on the intentions of the designer the book shows that new and important insights can be brought to our understanding of Victorian architecture The chapters present a range of ideas and new research some examining individual building case studies from grand hotels and clubhouses in New York to the parliament buildings of Westminster and others exploring conceptual questions about the nature of architectural experience whether sensory or otherwise Yet they share the premise that the idea of the experience of architecture took on a new and particular significance with the rise of industrial modernity and they examine what contemporary people both architects and non architects understood by this idea The insights in this volume extend beyond the study of Victorian architecture Together they suggest how experience might be used as a framework to produce a more convincingly historical account of the artefacts of architectural history

Chaucer and the Making of Optical Space Peter Brown, 2007 The author links Chaucer's writings with the medieval optical tradition in its various forms scholastic texts encyclopedias exempla vernacular poetry both in general cultural terms and through the discussion of specific examples He shows how the science of optics or perspectiva provides an account of spatial perception including visual error and demonstrates how these aspects of optical theory impact on Chaucer's poetry He provides detailed and sustained analysis of the spatial content of narratives across the range of Chaucer's works relating them to optical ideas and making use of Lefebvre's theory of the production of space The texts discussed include the Book of the Duchess House of Fame Knight's Tale Miller's Tale Reeve's Tale Merchant's Tale Squire's Tale and Troilus and Criseyde

Place, Space and Hermeneutics Bruce B. Janz, 2017-03-29 This book analyzes the hermeneutics of place raising questions about central issues such as textuality dialogue and play It discusses the central figures in the development of hermeneutics and place and surveys disciplines and areas in which a hermeneutic approach to place has been fruitful It covers the range of philosophical hermeneutic theory both within philosophy itself as well as from other disciplines In doing so the volume reflects the state of theorization on these issues and also looks forward to the implications and opportunities that exist Philosophical hermeneutics has fundamentally altered philosophy's approach to place Issues such as how we dwell in place how place is imagined created preserved and lost and how philosophy itself exists in place have become central While there is much research applying hermeneutics to place there is little which both reflects on that heritage and critically analyzes a hermeneutic approach to place This book fills that void by offering a sustained analysis of the central elements major figures and disciplinary applications of hermeneutics and place

Partition and the Practice of Memory Churnjeet Mahn, Anne Murphy, 2017-12-05 This edited collection attends to the locations of memory along and about the Indo Pakistan and Indo Bangladesh borders and the complex ways in which such memories are both allowed for and erased in the present The collection is situated at the intersection of narratives connected to memory and commemoration in order to ask how memories have been formed and perpetuated across the imposition of these borders It explores how national boundaries both silence memories and can be subverted in important ways through consideration of physical sites and cultural practices on both sides of the India Pakistan Bangladesh borders that gesture towards that which has been lost that is the cultural whole that was the cultural regions of Punjab and Bengal before Partition as well as broader cultural wholes across South Asia across religious and linguistic lines alongside forces that deny such connections The chapters address issues of heritage and memory through specific case studies on present day memorial museological and commemoration practices through which sometimes competing memorial landscapes have been constructed and show how memories of past traumas and histories become inscribed into diverse forms of cultural heritage the built landscape
