The Fifth Revenge:

Mediterranean Families in Antiquity Sabine R. Huebner, Geoffrey Nathan, 2016-08-23 This comprehensive study of families in the Mediterranean world spans the Bronze Age through Late Antiquity and looks at families and households in various ancient societies inhabiting the regions around the Mediterranean Sea in an attempt to break down artificial boundaries between academic disciplines

The Clash of Civilizations Allan Trawinski, 2017-05-26 In this work Allan Trawinski will test and disprove the commonly held hypothesis that the present West Near East Conflict is a relatively new development since the founding of the State of Israel in 1948 is primarily driven by religion culture radical Islamic fundamentalism against Christianity Judaism and that terrorism is employed as the Near East's primary method weapon tactic of choice which could all be ended by solving the Palestinian Israeli religious problem ending radical terrorism becoming energy independent liberating the region from despots and establishing prosperous economic and democratic regimes in their wakes Consequently he will test and prove his own counterhypothesis that the present West Near East Conflict is a part of a continuous 3 275 year conflict that is secular geopolitical economic as much as or more than ideological religious cultural in nature and that terrorism has only until very recently played a relatively minor role as the Near East's primary method weapon tactic of choice

Punishment and Retribution Leo Zaibert, 2016-04-15 Discussions of punishment typically assume that punishment is criminal punishment carried out by the State Punishment is however a richer phenomenon and it occurs in many contexts This book contains a general account of punishment which overcomes the difficulties of competing accounts Recognizing punishment's manifoldness is valuable not merely in contributing to conceptual clarity but in that this recognition sheds light on the complicated problem of punishment's justification Insofar as they narrowly presuppose that punishment is criminal punishment most apparent solutions to the tension between consequentialism and retributivism are rather unenlightening if we attempt to apply them in other contexts Moreover this presupposition has given rise to an unwieldy variety of accounts of retributivism which are less helpful in contexts other than criminal punishment Treating punishment comprehensibly helps us to better understand how it differs from similar phenomena and to carry on the discussion of its justification fruitfully

Women in Old Norse Society Jenny Jochens, 2015-01-21 Jenny Jochens captures in fascinating detail the lives of women in pagan and early Christian Iceland and Norway their work sexual behavior marriage customs reproductive practices familial relations leisure activities religious practices and legal constraints and protections

Women in Old Norse Society places particular emphasis on changing sexual mores and the impact of Christianity as imposed by the clergy and Norwegian kings It also demonstrates the vital role women played in economic production God the Teacher of Mankind Michael Müller, 1889 The Religious Aspects of War in the Ancient Near East, Greece, and Rome Krzysztof Ulanowski, 2016-07-11 The Religious Aspect of Warfare in the Ancient Near East Greece and Rome is a volume dedicated to investigating the relationship between religion and war in antiquity in minute detail The nineteen chapters are divided into three groups the ancient Near East Greece and Rome They are presented in turn and all possible aspects of warfare and its religious connections are investigated The contributors focus on the theology of war the role of priests in warfare natural phenomena as signs for military activity cruelty piety the divinity of humans in specific martial cases rituals of war iconographical representations and symbols of war and even the archaeology of war As editor Krzysztof Ulanowski invited both well known specialists such as Robert Parker Nicholas Sekunda and Pietro Mander to contribute as well as many young talented scholars with fresh ideas From this polyphony of voices perspectives and opinions emerges a diverse but coherent representation of the complex relationship between religion and war in antiquity Recasting Welfare Capitalism Mark Vail, In Recasting Welfare Capitalism Mark Vail employs a sophisticated and original theoretical approach to compare welfare states and political economic adjustment in Germany and France He examines how and why institutional change takes place and what factors characterize economic evolution when moving from times of prosperity to more austere periods and back again Covering the 1970s to the present Vail analyzes social and economic reforms including labor policy social insurance and anti poverty programs He focuses on the tactics and actions of key political players and demolishes the stagnation argument that suggests that France and Germany have largely frozen political economies incapable of reform Vail finds that these respective evolutions involve interrelated changes in social and economic policies and are characterized by political relationships that are continuously renegotiated often in unpredictable ways In the process he presents a compelling reconceptualization of change in both the welfare state and the broader political economy during an age of globalization The Four Days' Battle of 1666 Frank L. Fox, 2009-07-16 An excellent piece of work not just as an account of the Four Days Battle itself but also for its account of the entire Second Anglo Dutch War HistoryOfWar.org On June 1 1666 a large but outnumbered English fleet engaged the Dutch off the mouth of the Thames in a colossal battle that was to involve nearly 200 ships and last four days False intelligence had led the English to divide their fleet to meet a phantom threat from France and although the errant squadron rejoined on the final day of the battle it was not enough to redress the balance Like many a defeat it sparked controversy at the time and has been the subject of speculation and debate ever since The battle was an event of such overwhelming complexity that for centuries it defied description and deterred study but this superbly researched book is now recognized as the definitive account It provides the first clear exposition of the opposing forces fills many holes in the narrative and answers most of the questions raised by the actions of the English commanders It makes for a thoroughly engrossing story and one worthy of the greatest battle of the age of sail

Discoveries Among the Ruins of Nineveh and Babylon Austen Henry Layard,1853      Discoveries in the Ruins of Nineveh and Babylon Austen Henry Layard,1853      On Retaliation Bertram Turner,Günther Schlee,2017-04-01 Retaliation is associated with all forms of social and political organization and retaliatory logics inform many different conflict resolution procedures from consensual settlement to compensation to violent escalations This book derives a concept of retaliation from the overall notion of reciprocity defining retaliation as the human disposition to strive for a reactive balancing of conflicts and injustices On Retaliation presents a synthesized approach to both the violence generating and violence avoiding potentials of retaliation Contributors to this volume touch upon the interaction between retaliation and violence the state s monopoly on legitimate punishment and the factors of socio political frameworks religious interpretations and economic processes      Law and Culture Mateusz Stępień,Jan Bazyli Klakla,2021-10-28 Divided into three parts this book examines the relationship between law and culture from various perspectives both theoretical and empirical Part I outlines the framework for further considerations and includes new innovative conceptualizations of two ideas that are essential to the topic of law and culture legal culture and customary law Both of these reappear later in the more empirically oriented chapters of Parts II and III Part II includes chapters on the relationships between law customs and culture drawing heavily on the tradition and achievements of the anthropology of law and touching on important problems of multiculturalism legal pluralism and cultural defense It focuses on the more intangible meaning of culture while Part III addresses its more material tangible aspects and the issue of cultural production as well as its intersection with law      *A Full Course of instructions for the use of catechists.
