From Sacred to Secular Barbara E. Lacey, 2007 This examination of illustrations in early American books pamphlets magazines almanacs and broadsides provides a new perspective on the social cultural and political environment of the late colonial period and the early republic American printers and engravers drew upon a rich tradition of Christian visual imagery Used first to inculcate Protestant doctrines regional symbolism later served to promote reverence for the new republic The chapters are devoted to momento mori imagery children's readers visionary literature and illustrated Bibles One chapter shows the demonization of the Indians even as the Indian was being adopted as a symbol of America Other chapters deal with propaganda for the American Revolution canonization of leaders secularized roles for women and socialization of sites in the new nation Throughout analysis of image and text shows how the religious and the secular contrasted coexisted and intermingled in eighteenth century American illustrated imprints Barbara E Lacey is a Professor of history at St Joseph College It includes more than 110 illustrations
