The First Lady From A Pastors Perspective:

From a Pastor's Wife's Perspective Bertha Hall, 2019-07-09 You are not paranoid Women have been given special insight to recognize when something is not quite right Sometimes we have to stand up and protect those whom we love in our relationships Lasting relationships depend on divine help to be encouraging and provide depth God is not only protecting relationships but he also helps us to survive difficult circumstances Women and Ordination in the Christian Churches Ian Jones, Kirsty Thorpe, Janet Wootton, 2011-11-03 The growth of women s ordained ministry is one of the most remarkable and significant developments in the recent history of Christianity This collection of essays brings together leading contributors from both academic and church contexts to explore Christian experiences of ordaining women in theological sociological historical and anthropological perspective Key questions include How have national denominational and ecclesial cultures shaped the different ways in which women s ordination is debated and or enacted What differences have women s ordained ministry and debates on women s ordination made in various church contexts What unfinished business remains in both congregational and wider ministry How have Christians variously conceived ordained ministry which includes both women and men How do ordained women and men work together in practice What have been the particular implications for female clergy And for male clergy What distinctive issues are raised by women s entry into senior ordained leadership positions How do episcopal and non episcopal traditions differ in this African Pentecostalism from African Perspectives Ezra Chitando, Lovemore Togarasei, Loreen Maseno, 2024-10-28 This book makes a significant contribution to the study of African Pentecostalism by reflecting on their output Deviating from the widespread phenomenon of scholars from the Global North being dominant voices on African Pentecostalism this volume brings together African scholars from diverse academic disciplines and African Diasporan to showcase how they ve helped to shape the field This volume addresses the lacuna in the available scholarship by undertaking detailed analyses of how scholarship and exemplifies the various areas where African scholars have made and continue to make contributions The included chapters engage in methodological debates on African Pentecostalism from the continent as well as from African diaspora and is a must read for scholars working on Pentecostalism Black Women's Portrayals on Reality Television Donnetrice C. Allison, 2016-01-14 This book critically analyzes the portrayals of Black women in current reality television Audiences are presented with a multitude of images of Black women fighting arguing and cursing at one another in this manufactured world of reality television This perpetuation of negative insidious racial and gender stereotypes influences how the U S views Black women This stereotyping disrupts the process in which people are able to appreciate cultural and gender difference Instead of celebrating the diverse symbols and meaning making that accompanies Black women s discourse and identities reality television scripts an artificial or plastic image of Black women that reinforces extant stereotypes This collection s contributors seek to uncover examples in reality television shows where instantiations of Black women s gendered racial and cultural difference is signified and made sinister Becoming the Pastor's Wife Beth Allison Barr, 2025-03-18 Provides a blistering critique of the narrowing options for female leadership in the evangelical church A powerful indictment of an unequal system Publishers Weekly As a pastor's wife for twenty five years Beth Allison Barr has lived with assumptions about what she should do and who she should be In Becoming the Pastor's Wife Barr draws on that experience and her academic expertise to trace the history of the role of the pastor's wife showing how it both helped and hurt women in conservative Protestant traditions While they gained an important leadership role it came at a deep cost losing independent church leadership opportunities that existed throughout most of church history and strengthening a gender hierarchy that prioritized male careers Barr examines the connection between the decline of female ordination and the rise of the role of pastor's wife in the evangelical church tracing its patterns in the larger history ancient medieval Reformation and modern of Christian women's leadership By expertly blending historical and personal narrative she equips pastors wives to better advocate for themselves while helping the church understand the origins of the role as well as the historical reality of ordained women Real Sister Jervette R.

Ward, 2015-11-02 From The Real Housewives of Atlanta to Flavor of Love reality shows with predominantly black casts have often been criticized for their negative representation of African American women as loud angry and violent Yet even as these programs appear to be rehashing old stereotypes of black women the critiques of them are arguably problematic in their own way as the notion of respectability has historically been used to police black women's behaviors The first book of scholarship devoted to the issue of how black women are depicted on reality television Real Sister offers an even handed consideration of the genre The book's ten contributors black female scholars from a variety of disciplines provide a wide range of perspectives while considering everything from Basketball Wives to Say Yes to the Dress As regular viewers of reality television these scholars are able to note ways in which the genre presents positive images of black womanhood even as they catalog a litany of stereotypes about race class and gender that it tends to reinforce Rather than simply dismissing reality television as trash this collection takes the genre seriously as an important touchstone in ongoing cultural debates about what constitutes trashiness and respectability Written in an accessible style that will appeal to reality TV fans both inside and outside of academia Real Sister thus seeks to inspire a more nuanced thoughtful conversation about the genre's representations and their effects on the black community Hermeneutical Perspectives of Women in the Ordained Office of the Ekklesia E. L. Reed, 2010-08-18 Comparative Perspectives on School Textbooks Dobrochna

Hildebrandt-Wypych, Alexander W. Wiseman, 2021-04-22 This book examines the discourses on nation building civic identity minorities and the formation of religious identities in school textbooks worldwide It offers up to date practical and scholarly information on qualitative and mixed method textbook analysis as well as the broader context of critical comparative textbook and curriculum analyses in and across selected countries The volume offers unique and empirical research on how internal educational policies and ideological goals of dominant social political and economic groups affect textbook production and the curricular aims in different educational systems worldwide Chapters address the role of school textbooks in developing nationhood the creation of citizenship through school textbooks the complexity of gender in normative discourses and the intersection of religion and culture in school textbooks Two Views on Women in Ministry Zondervan,2010-02-23 The role of women in positions of worship and church leadership is one of the most divisive and inconclusive biblical debates Two Views on Women in Ministry furnishes you with a clear and thorough presentation of the two primary exegetical arguments so you can better understand each one s strengths weaknesses and complexities Egalitarian equal ministry opportunity for both genders represented by Linda L Belleville and Craig S Keener Complementarian men and women fill distinctive ministry roles represented by Craig L Blomberg and Thomas R Schreiner This revised edition brings the exchange of ideas and perspectives into the traditional Counterpoints format Each author states his or her case and is then critiqued by the other contributors The fair minded interactive Counterpoints forum allows you to compare and contrast the two different positions and form your own opinion concerning the practical and often deeply personal subject of women in ministry The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion the groups arriving in the region The authors discuss the emergence of religious and cultural acceptance as well as some of the apparent resistance to this development as they explore the experiences of Buddhist Americans in the South and Jewish foodways Southern Crossroads also looks at distinct markers of religious identity and the role they play in gender politics ritual and violence The authors address issues such as the role of women in Southern Baptist churches and the religious overtones of lynching with its themes of blood sacrifice and atonement Southern Crossroads offers valuable insights into how southern religion is studied and how people and congregations evolve and adapt in an age of constant cultural change

Learning, Philosophy, and African Citizenship Katariina Holma,Tiina Kontinen,2022-05-03 The book addresses the compelling questions concerning the ideals of African citizenship the processes of learning to fulfill these ideals and possibilities of education in fostering citizenship Rather than advocating for one particular framework the authors demonstrate the continuously contested nature of the concept of citizenship as both theoretically discussed by philosophers and practically experienced in daily lives The monograph combines in an unconventional way selected philosophical accounts and everyday experiences from certain locations in Tanzania and Uganda It provides contributions from philosophical ideas drawing on scholars such as Chantal Mouffe Rosi Braidotti Theodor Adorno and tienne Balibar on one hand and the conceptions articulated by groups of inhabitants of rural and urban settings in Africa on the other hand Therefore the book offers fresh readings under the lenses of citizenship and learning This is an open access book The Christian Outlook,1986 Preacher Woman Katie Lauve-Moon,2021-03-18 When organizations are committed to gender equality what gets in the way of their achieving it How and why do well intentioned people often end up reinforcing sexism Focusing on the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship Katie Lauve Moon s Preacher Woman explores how congregations can be committed to ideas of gender parity while still falling short in practice Lauve Moon investigates how institutional sexism is upheld through both unconscious and conscious biases In doing so she demonstrates how addressing issues of sexism and gender inequality within organizations must extend beyond good intentions and inclusive policies
