The Flamingo Rising:

The Flamingo Rising Larry Baker, 1998-01 This sweeping nostalgic tale of the Lee family who run the Flamingo the world's largest drive in movie theatre captures the magic and myths of growing up in America in the 1960s Nothing infringes on the idyllic world of Hubert Lee a grand patriarchal figure who dreams of bringing life to a beachfront plot of Florida land His grandiose aspirations meet their nemesis in Turner West who runs the funeral home next door and is eternally saddened by the death of his wife during the birth of his beautiful daughter Grace With an assembled cast of quirky eclectic and oddball characters a modern tragi comic Montague Capulet story grows out of the two men's conflicts and the blossoming attraction between Grace and Abraham Hubert's adopted Korean son With unforgettable set pieces warm and rich characters and heart wrenching narrative THE FLAMINGO RISING marks the debut of a major new storyteller in a novel about the power of love the need for faith and the persistence of memory

The Drive-In Guy Barefoot, 2023-11-16 The Drive In meaningfully contributes to the complex picture of outdoor cinema that has been central to American culture and to a history of US cinema based on diverse viewing experiences rather than a select number of films Drive in cinemas flourished in 1950s America in some summer weeks to the extent that there were more cinemagoers outdoors than indoors Often associated with teenagers interested in the drive in as a passion pit or a venue for exploitation films accounts of the 1950s American drive in tend to emphasise their popularity with families with young children downplaying the importance of a film programme apparently limited to old low budget or independent films and characterising drive in operators as industry outsiders They retain a hold on the popular imagination The Drive In identifies the mix of generations in the drive in audience as well as accounts that articulate individual experiences from the drive in as a dating venue to a segregated space Through detailed analysis of the film industry trade press local newspapers and a range of other primary sources including archival records on cinemas and cinema circuits in Arkansas California New York State and Texas this book examines how drive ins were integrated into local communities and the film industry and reveals the importance and range of drive in programmes that were often close to that of their indoor neighbours
