The Hills That Beckon:

Where Fate Beckons John Dunmore, 2010-01-20 French explorer and naval officer Jean Francois de la Prouse 1741-88 was after James Cook the greatest explorer of the Pacific in the eighteenth century. In 1785 La Prouse was commissioned by Louis XVI to head an expedition into the uncharted regions of the Pacific Ocean. Setting out from France the expedition over the next three years was the first to map the coasts of California, Alaska and Siberia. From there La Prouse continued to Easter Island and Hawaii where La Prouse Bay bears his name. After a stop in Botany Bay, Australia, La Prouse's two ships set out for the Solomon Islands. En route they encountered a storm and were sunk. Despite search efforts over the centuries, no trace of the wreckage of La Prouse's ships has been found. Where Fate Beckons tells the story of La Prouse's life and adventures along the way, providing a lively introduction to the world of French colonialism, the end of the Age of Exploration, and French society in the years leading to the French Revolution.

The Devil Beckons Frank Perez, Free will and life changing choices. Within the pages of these short stories you will taken through the human turmoil of right and wrong. Who's to tell which is which? Welcome to the best of today's thought provoking, thrilling stories as laid down by master storyteller Frank. Including Saving Sarah, World renowned psychiatrist currently sitting on death row recounts his version of the story Deal With The Devil. When you accidentally summon the Devil and you only have one hour to come up with a plan. Would you keep your soul? The Decision. Everyday life decisions can sometimes lead us into uncharted territory and make us change our view of things. How far would you be willing to go? Goddess. The creator of all life as we know it. How did it start? Why did it start and who's trying to take credit for it all.

The Bruce Beckons William S. Fox, 2002-12-15 First published in 1952. The Bruce Beckons was immediately acclaimed as a delightful guide to a uniquely beautiful and fascinating part of Ontario. Separating Georgian Bay from Lake Huron, the Bruce Peninsula's remarkable natural history and richly varied wildlife today continue to draw thousands of visitors every year. W. Sherwood Fox, a distinguished scholar who was for twenty years president of the University of Western Ontario, knew and loved the Bruce's history and its folklore throughout his life. During his retirement he served several years as honorary president of the Federation of Ontario Naturalists.

The Sea Beckons Birdie L. Etchison, 2013-12-01 At fifty, Alice Adams isn't looking for love. Nor is she looking for a new home. She's settled into widowhood and anticipating the arrival of her only daughter's first child. Then she meets Leighton Walker and love turns her world upside down. Giddy like an infatuated teenager, Alice finds herself wanting to spend as much time as possible with the man who shares so many of her interests. But Leighton Walker is settled into his own life on the coast with family and business needs over a hundred and fifty miles from Alice's secure world. Can Leighton overcome distance, his family's skepticism, and the conniving efforts of a long time friend to claim him for her own? Or will the sea beckon him to retain his normal life and refuse a second chance at love?
