The Historical Monuments of South Africa J. J. Oberholster, 1972 Historical Monuments of South Africa Automobile Association of South Africa, 1958 Monuments and Memory in Africa John Sodiq Sanni, Madalitso Zililo Phiri, 2024-03-05 This book investigates how monuments have been used in Africa as tools of oppression and dominance from the colonial period up to the present day The book asks what the decolonisation of historical monuments and geographies might entail and how this could contribute to the creation of a post imperial world In recent times African movements to overthrow the symbols and monuments of the colonial era have gathered pace as a means of renaming reclassifying and reimagining colonial identities and spaces Movements such as RhodesMustFall in South Africa have sprung up around the world connected by a history of Black life struggles erasures oppression suppression and the depression of Black biopolitics This book provides an important multidisciplinary intervention in the discourse on monuments and memories asking what they are what they have been used to represent and ultimately what they can reveal about past and present forms of pain and oppression Drawing on insights from philosophy historical sociology politics museum and literary studies this book will be of interest to a range of scholars with an interest in the decolonisation of global African history The Historical Overberg Chris Schoeman, 2017-05-18 Situated between the Hottentots Holland Mountains and the Breede River the Overberg is a fertile agricultural region and a popular holiday destination for tourists and nature lovers who delight in the beauty of its mountainous landscape abundant plant species and long sandy beaches This area also has a rich history going back thousands of years when the indigenous Khoi people originally thrived there and when the first European settlers left their own indelible imprint on the culture architecture and character of the region The Overberg has been a home or point of interest for explorers innovators artists and writers for figures as varied as Bartolomeu Dias Sir David de Villiers Graaff Uys Krige and Audrey Blignault Some of South Africa s oldest towns houses and missionary stations can be found here and its treacherous coastline has been the cause of hundreds of shipwrecks for centuries The Historical Overberg provides a detailed account of this past by pointing out the many places buildings events and personalities that have made the Overberg the diverse and unique place that it is today Enlivened by historical and current photographs and informative panels this book is a collector s item Heritage, Museums and Galleries Gerard Corsane, 2005 This reader provides a starting point and introductory resource for anyone wishing to engage with certain key issues relating to the heritage museums and galleries sector Historical Dictionary of the Zulu Wars John Laband, 2009-05-18 Between 1838 and 1888 the recently formed Zulu kingdom in southeastern Africa was directly challenged by the incursion of Boer pioneers aggressively seeking new lands on which to set up their independent republics by English speaking traders and hunters establishing their neighboring colony and by imperial Britain intervening in Zulu affairs to safeguard Britain s position as the paramount power in southern Africa As a result the Zulu fought to resist Boer invasion in 1838 and British invasion in 1879 The internal strains

these wars caused to the fabric of Zulu society resulted in civil wars in 1840 1856 and 1882 1884 and Zululand itself was repeatedly partitioned between the Boers and British In 1888 the old order in Zululand attempted a final unsuccessful uprising against recently imposed British rule This tangled web of invasions civil wars and rebellion is complex The Historical Dictionary of the Zulu Wars unravels and elucidates Zulu history during the 50 years between the initial settler threat to the kingdom and its final dismemberment and absorption into the colonial order A chronology an introductory essay a bibliography maps photos and over 900 cross referenced dictionary entries that cover the military politics society economics culture and key players during the Zulu Wars make this an important reference for everyone from high school students to academics

Anglo-Zulu War, 1879 Harold E. Raugh Jr., 2011-06-01 The Anglo Zulu War was one of many colonial campaigns in which the British Army served as the instrument of British imperialism The conflict fought against a native adversary the British initially underestimated is remarkable for battles that included perhaps the most humiliating defeat in British military history the Battle of Isandlwana January 22 1879 and one of its most heroic feats of martial arms the defense of Rorke's Drift January 22 23 1879 While lasting only six months it is one of the most examined studied and debated conflicts in Victorian military history Anglo Zulu War 1879 A Selected Bibliography is a research guide and tool for identifying obscure publications and source materials in order to encourage continued original and thought provoking contributions to this popular field of historical study From the student or neophyte to the study of the Anglo Zulu War its battles and its opponents to the more experienced historian or scholar this selected bibliography is a must for anyone interested in the 1879 Anglo Zulu War

Francis an informa company Building Apartheid Nicholas Coetzer, 2016-04-22 Through a specific architectural lens this book exposes the role the British Empire played in the development of apartheid Through reference to previously unexamined archival material the book uncovers a myriad of mechanisms through which Empire laid the foundations onto which the edifice of apartheid was built It unearths the significant role British architects and British architectural ideas played in facilitating white dominance and racial segregation in pre apartheid Cape Town To achieve this the book follows the progenitor of the Garden City Movement Ebenezer Howard in its tripartite structure of Country Town Suburb acknowledging the Garden City Movement's dominance at the Cape at the time This tripartite structure also provides a significant match to postcolonial schemas of Self Other Same which underpin the three parts to the book Much is owed to Edward Said's discursive analytical approach in Orientalism and the work of Homi Bhabha in the definition and interpretation of archival material This material ranges across written and visual representations in journals and newspapers through exhibitions and events to legislative acts as well as the physicality of the various architectural objects studied The book concludes by drawing attention to the ideological potency of architecture which tends to be veiled more so through its ubiquitous presence and in doing so it presents not only a story peculiar to Imperial Cape Town but one inherent to architecture more broadly The concluding chapter also provides a timely mirror for the machinations currently at play in establishing a post apartheid architecture and urbanity in the new South Africa An Inventory of the Ancient

Monuments in Glamorgan: Volume III - Part 1b: Medieval Secular Monuments the Later Castles from 1217 to the present Royal Commission on the Ancient and Historical Monuments in Wales, 2000 Forty three castles and fortified sites here described were founded or given their most significant fabric after 1217 They include tower houses strong houses possible castles and twenty masonry castles ranging from the great Clare works at Caerphilly and Morlais to the small modestly fortified sites at Barry and Weobley and the exceptional fortified priory at Ewenny The density and variety of the medieval fortifications in Glamorgan are unrivalled and their study is enriched by an exceptional range of works on the history and records of a historic county formed by merging the lordships of Glamorgan and Gower Part 1a described the early castles and traced their role in the Norman conquest and settlement of the fertile southern lowlands down to 1217 when the Clares inherited Glamorgan In that year the Welsh had expelled the English from Gower and remained unconquered in the Glamorgan uplands Gower was soon lost again and under two redoubtable Clare lords the Glamorgan uplands were appropriated in the mid 13th century and secured in a notable programme of castle works The castle building of Earl Richard de Clare 1243-62 and his son Gilbert the Red Earl 1263-95 as they achieved this second conquest of Glamorgan foreshadowed the later campaigns of Edward I against Gwynedd At Caerphilly above all Earl Gilbert's castle deserves comparison with the great Edwardian works it introduced defensive features later to be adopted by King Edward's Savoyard master masons Gower sites considered include the impressive masonry castles at Oystermouth and Penrice A notable ornately arcaded domestic range at Swansea is the only surviving vestige of the chief castle of Gower which is tentatively described from a variety of records AH the illustrated descriptions incorporate detailed historical accounts The introductory survey outlines the later descent of Glamorgan and Gower to the end of the 15th century and along with the sectional preambles it provides general discussion of the sites

The Zoological Exploration of Southern Africa 1650-1790 L. C. Rookmaaker,1989-06-01 The 18th century witnessed a new interest in African animals Research was undertaken at the Cape of Good Hope by explorers whose books manuscripts and drawings concerning mammals and birds are listed and discussed within this text This text gives details on four collections of 300 mammal and bird drawings connected with Levallant s research Many examples are illustrated The zoological contents of the material left by these seven explorers are analyzed for all mammals and birds emphasizing the history taxonomy nomenclature and zoogeography

Customary International Humanitarian Law Jean-Marie Henckaerts,Louise Doswald-Beck,2005 In 1996 the International Committee of the Red Cross alongside a range of renowned experts embarked upon a major international study into current state practice in international humanitarian law in order to identify customary law in this area This book is the result of that study a comprehensive analysis of the customary rules of international humanitarian law applicable in international and non international armed conflicts Given that important treaties in this area have not yet been universally ratified this is a publication of major importance carried out at the express request of the international community In so doing this study identifies the common core of international humanitarian law binding on all parties to all armed conflicts

Geology's Significant Sites and their Contributions to Geoheritage R. M. Clary,E.J. Pyle,W.M. Andrews,2024-07-23 The contributions in this book explore several geologically significant sites and in doing so acknowledge and explore not just the geological exposures themselves but also the people and issues that are fundamentally intertwined with the history of our science and its impact on our society Through selective examples of outcrops and locales integral to the history of geology we explore the evolution of modern geology as well as the geodiversity and geoheritage of our planet While the volume is far from comprehensive the chapters contained herein detail a range for geoheritage value scale of geoheritage sites and potential for geoheritage opportunities that will promote a broader richer understanding of the complexity of the geoheritage of Earth Importantly many chapters offer a cautionary tale of sites almost lost to posterity and submit their take away lessons for community mobilization towards geoheritage site protection
