The Hoax Of Romance:

The Hoax of Romance Jo Loudin, 1981 Argues that the traditions of romance have created unrealistic attitudes about love have provided only a fragile foundation for marriage and distort many kinds of interpersonal relations Find a Good Man and Keep Him Satch U. Ejike, 2008-09 A lady once said that finding a good man is like looking for a needle in a haystack This is not and should not be the case True love is all around you if earnestly you desire it The book suggests functional approaches to true love as an alternative to the hit and miss approach that almost always ends in divorce or heartbreak The book is for the married or single woman It is for the married woman who perhaps already has a good man and necessarily must keep him It is for the single woman who now is in search of a good man for a lifetime of joyful romance and companionship The book examines the good man s qualifying attributes the meaning of romantic love the concrete manifestations of love and importantly how you recognize and sustain true love when it comes your way Find a Good Man and Keep Him is a practical guide that leads you through and away from the hurtful tumbles and stumbles of a failed relationship onto the path of manifest love with a good man The Romantic Fragment Poem Marjorie Levinson, 2017-11-01 The fragment poem long regarded as a peculiarly Romantic phenomenon has never been examined outside the context of thematic and biographical criticism By submitting the unfinished poems of the English Romantics to both a genetic investigation and a reception study Marjorie Levinson defines the fragment s formal character at various moments in its historical career She suggests that the formal determinancy of these works hence their expressive or semantic affinities is a function of historical conditions and projections The English Romantic fragment poems share not so much a particular mode of production as a myth of production Levinson pries apart these two dimensions and analyzes each independently to consider their relationship By reconstructing the contemporary reception of such works as Wordsworth s Nutting Coleridge s Christabel and Kubla Khan Shelley s Julian and Maddalo and Keats s Hyperion fragments and juxtaposing this model against dominant twentieth century critical paradigms Levinson discriminates layers phases and kinds of intentionality in the poems and considers the ideological implications of this diversity This study is the first to investigate the English Romantic fragment poem by identifying the assumptions contemporary and belated that govern interpretative procedures In a substantial summary chapter Levinson reflects upon the meaning and effects of these assumptions with respect to the facts and fictions of literary production in the period and to the processes of canon formation Originally published in 1986 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value Graham's Illustrated Magazine of Literature, Romance, Art, and Fashion George R. Graham, Edgar Allan Poe, 1830 Bunk Kevin Young, 2017-11-14 Longlisted for the National Book Award for Nonfiction There Kevin Young goes again giving us books we greatly need cleverly disguised as books we merely want Unexpectedly essential Marlon James Award winning poet and critic Kevin Young tours us through a rogue's gallery of hoaxers plagiarists forgers and fakers from the humbug of P T Barnum and Edgar Allan Poe to the unrepentant bunk of JT LeRoy and Donald J Trump Bunk traces the history of the hoax as a peculiarly American phenomenon examining what motivates hucksters and makes the rest of us so gullible Disturbingly Young finds that fakery is woven from stereotype and suspicion race being the most insidious American hoax of all He chronicles how Barnum came to fame by displaying figures like Joice Heth a black woman whom he pretended was the 161 year old nursemaid to George Washington and What Is It an African American man Barnum professed was a newly discovered missing link in evolution Bunk then turns to the hoaxing of history and the ways that forgers plagiarists and journalistic fakers invent backstories and falsehoods to sell us lies about themselves and about the world in our own time from pretend Native Americans Grey Owl and Nasdijj to the deadly imposture of Clark Rockefeller from the made up memoirs of James Frey to the identity theft of Rachel Dolezal In this brilliant and timely work Young asks what it means to live in a post factual world of truthiness where everything is up for interpretation and everyone is subject to a pervasive cynicism that damages our ideas of reality fact and art

Modern Love David Shumway,2003-08 My ideas of romance came from the movies said Woody Allen and it is to the movies as well as to novels advice columns and self help books that David Shumway turns for his history of modern love Modern Love argues that a crisis in the meaning and experience of marriage emerged when it lost its institutional function of controlling the distribution of property and instead came to be seen as a locus for feelings of desire togetherness and loss Over the course of the twentieth century partly in response to this crisis a new language of love intimacy emerged not so much replacing but rather coexisting with the earlier language of romance Reading a wide range of texts from early twentieth century advice columns and their late twentieth century antecedent the relationship self help book to Hollywood screwball comedies and from the relationship films of Woody Allen and his successors to contemporary realist novels about marriages Shumway argues that the kinds of stories the culture has told itself have changed Part layperson's history of marriage and romance part meditation on intimacy itself Modern Love will be both amusing and interesting to almost anyone who thinks about relationships and who doesn't
