True Eloquence Robert A.F. Thurman, 2014-07-14 This is the first full study translation and critical annotation of the Essence of True Eloquence by Tsong Khapa 1357-1419 universally acknowledged as the greatest Tibetan philosopher The work is a study of the major schools of Mahayana Buddhism known as Vijnanavada and Madhyamika and an explanation of the Prasargika Dialecticist interpretation of Madhyamika Centrism Originally published in 1984 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Cross-Cultural Perspectives on Hagiographical Strategies Massimo A. Rondolino, 2017-01-12 This book examines the potential of conducting studies in comparative hagiology through parallel literary and historical analyses of spiritual life writings pertaining to distinct religious contexts In particular it focuses on a comparative analysis of the early sources on the medieval Christian Saint Francis of Assisi 1182 1226 and the Tibetan Buddhist Milarepa c 1052 1135 up to and including the so called standard versions of their life stories written by Bonaventure of Bagnoregio 1221 1274 and Tsangny n Heruka 1452 1507 respectively The book thus demonstrates how in the social and religious contexts of both 1200s Italy and 1400s Tibet narratives of the lives deeds and teachings of two individuals recognized as spiritual champions were seen as the most effective means to promote spiritual doctrinal and political agendas Therefore as well being highly relevant to those studying hagiographical sources this book will be of interest to scholars working across the fields of religion and the comparative study of religious phenomena as well as history and literature in the pre modern period

The Uttaratantra in the Land of Snows Tsering Wangchuk, 2017-02-21 Examines various Tibetan interpretations of the Uttaratantra the most authoritative Indic commentary on buddha nature With its emphasis on the concept of buddha nature or the ultimate nature of mind the Uttaratantra is a classical Buddhist treatise that lays out an early map of the Mah y na path to enlightenment Tsering Wangchuk unravels the history of this important Indic text in Tibet by examining numerous Tibetan commentaries and other exegetical texts on the treatise that emerged between the eleventh and fifteenth centuries These commentaries explored such questions as Is the buddha nature teaching found in the Uttaratantra literally true or does it have to be interpreted differently to understand its ultimate meaning Does it explicate ultimate truth that is inherently enlightened or ultimate truth that is empty only of independent existence Does the treatise teach ultimate nature of mind according to the Cittam tra or the Madhyamaka School of Mah y na By focusing on the diverse interpretations that different textual communities employed to make sense of the Uttaratantra Wangchuk provides a necessary historical context for the development of the text in Tibet Well conceived and superbly researched this book is an invaluable guidebook to the arguments and counterarguments of five centuries worth of Tibet s greatest thinkers This type of philosophical overview is far too rare in Tibetan Buddhist studies these days and Wangchuk has performed a great service to the field by undertaking it Roger R Jackson translator of Tantric Treasures Three Collections of Mystical Verse from Buddhist India

A Yogacara Buddhist Theory of Metaphor Roy Tzohar, 2018 Buddhist philosophy is fundamentally ambivalent toward language Language is paradoxically seen as both obstructive and necessary for liberation In this book Roy Tzohar delves into the ingenious response to this tension from the Yogacara school of Indian Buddhism that all language use is metaphorical Exploring the profound implications of this claim Tzohar makes the case for viewing the Yogacara account as a full fledged theory of meaning one that is not merely linguistic but also applicable both in the world as well as in texts Despite the overwhelming visibility of figurative language in Buddhist philosophical texts this is the first sustained and systematic attempt to present an indigenous Buddhist theory of metaphor By grounding the Yogacara pan metaphorical claim in a broader intellectual context of both Buddhist and non Buddhist schools the book uncovers an intense philosophical conversation about metaphor and language that reaches across sectarian lines Tzohar's analysis radically reframes the Yogacara controversy with the Madhyamaka school of philosophy sheds light on the Yogacara application of particular metaphors and explicates the school's unique understanding of experience The Brilliantly Illuminating Lamp of the Five Stages Tsong Khapa, 2019-08-06

The most important commentary on Vajrayana from the founder of the Dalai Lama's school of Buddhism The Brilliantly Illuminating Lamp of the Five Stages rim lnga rab tu gsal ba i sgron me is Tsong Khapa's most important commentary on the perfection stage practices of the Esoteric Community Guhyasamaja the tantra he considered fundamental for the practice of the father tantra class of unexcelled yoga tantras It draws heavily on Nagarjuna's Five Stages Pa cakrama and Aryadeva's Lamp that Integrates the Practices Carya melapaka pradipa as well as a vast range of perfection stage works included in the Tibetan canonical Kangyur and Tengyur collections It is an important work for both scholars and practitioners A reader of this work will find in it convincing evidence for Tsong Khapa's own yogic experience and attainment in coordination with his better known philosophical and scholarly achievements The present revised edition of the work is a cornerstone of the Complete Works of Jey Tsong Khapa and Sons collection a subset of the Treasury of the Buddhist Sciences series Comprised of the collected works of Tsong Khapa 1357-1419 and his spiritual sons Gyaltsap Darma Rinchen 1364-1432 and Khedrup Gelek Pelsang 1385-1438 the numerous works in this set of Tibetan treatises and supercommentaries are based on the thousands of works in the Tibetan Buddhist canon Jñānagarbha's Commentary on the Distinction Between the Two Truths Malcolm D. Eckel, 1987-01-02

The Madhyamaka School of Indian Buddhist thought has had tremendous influence in the Buddhist world particularly in Tibet China and Japan in the West it has become the subject of intense interest in the fields of comparative religion and philosophy Many aspects of Madhyamaka thought however remain obscure especially during the period when Buddhist thought was first introduced to Tibet Jñanagarbha's Commentary on the Distinction between the Two Truths is a concise and lucid introduction to the issues and personalities that dominated Indian Madhyamaka thought on the eve of its introduction to Tibet As an example of the influential but little known Sv tantrika branch of the Madhyamaka School Jñanagarbha's work shows quite vividly how the commitment to reason in the search for ultimate truth shaped not only the dialogue between Madhyamaka thinkers and members of other Buddhist schools but also the evolution of the Madhyamaka tradition itself David Eckel has translated Jñanagarbha's text in its entirety and provided an introduction that situates the text clearly in its historical and philosophical context Extensive notes a transliterated version of the Tibetan translation and a reproduction of the original Tibetan blockprints make this volume useful to scholars as well as to the interested general reader
