The Changing Middle Eastern City:

The Changing Middle Eastern City G.H. Blake, R.I. Lawless, 2016-03-22 The Middle East defined here as extending from Morocco to Iran and Turkey to Sudan lies at the crossroads of three continents Africa Asia and Europe With the largest reserves of petroleum in the world its importance is well beyond its physical size and population Rapid urban growth has radically transformed Middle Eastern society in recent decades but the associated problems are incompletely understood This volume first published in 1980 highlights some of the major issues of Middle Eastern urbanisation and provides a comprehensive statement about the current position of research Urban origins and the nature of urban growth are discussed to provide a background to considerations of migration employment housing and retailing The contributors suggest that planning strategies have hitherto proved inadequate with small towns being largely overlooked historic quarters rapidly disappearing and water in short supply Future research into all these problem areas is considered essential but the research must be coordinated and utilised Concentrating on practical problems achievements and challenges for research the contributions in this book specially commissioned from active researchers in the field will prove a valuable guide to recent ideas and developments in the Middle East

Traditions, Changes, and Challenges: Military Operations and the Middle Eastern City , The Changing Geography of Africa and the Middle East Graham Chapman, 2002-03-11

Clearly illustrated with basic maps these books present a systematic review of twenty five years of development covering the physical economic social and political environments of contemporary Africa the Middle East and Asia Routledge Handbook on Middle East Cities Haim Yacobi, Mansour Nasasra, 2019-07-01 Presenting the current debate about cities in the Middle East from Sana a Beirut and Jerusalem to Cairo Marrakesh and Gaza the book explores urban planning and policy migration gender and identity as well as politics and economics of urban settings in the region This handbook moves beyond essentialist and reductive analyses of identity urban politics planning and development in cities in the Middle East and instead offers critical engagement with both historical and contemporary urban processes in the region Approaching Cities as multi dimensional sites products of political processes knowledge production and exchange and local and global visions as well as spatial artefacts Importantly in the different case studies and theoretical approaches there is no attempt to idealise urban politics planning and everyday life in the Middle East which as with many other cities elsewhere are also situations of contestation and violence but rather to highlight how cities in the region and especially those which are understudied revolve around issues of housing infrastructure participation and identity amongst other concerns Analysing a variety of cities in the Middle East the book is a significant contribution to Middle East Studies It is an essential resource for students and academics interested in Geography Regional and Urban Studies of the Middle East

A History of Islamic Societies Ira M. Lapidus, 2014-10-13 This third edition of Ira M Lapidus's classic A History of Islamic Societies has been substantially revised to incorporate the insights of new scholarship and updated to include historical developments in the first decade of the twenty first century Lapidus's history explores the beginnings and transformations of Islamic civilizations in the Middle East and details Islam's worldwide diffusion to Africa Spain Turkey and the Balkans Central South and Southeast Asia and North America situating Islamic societies within their global political and economic contexts It accounts for the impact of European imperialism on Islamic societies and traces the development of the modern national state system and the simultaneous Islamic revival from the early nineteenth century to the present This book is essential for readers seeking to understand Muslim peoples Publisher information

A History of Addis Ababa from Its Foundation in 1886 to 1910 Peter P. Garretson, 1974 This thesis traces aspects of the political economic and religious history of Addis Ababa from 1886 to 1910 It is based largely on documentary material both Ethiopian and European but also depends on oral information As a city it was unique in Africa because of the absence of an imposed European direction of its development and as a result it grew ad hoc influenced by both Ethiopian and foreign concepts of an urban community From the beginnings Emperor Menilek completely dominated the political and administrative machinery of the capital but during his illnesses many of his responsibilities were perforce delegated to his closest associates who exercised their powers largely through the organisation of the Imperial Palace The bureaucracy became increasingly civilian in its personnel rather than military especially after the Battle of Adwa Furthermore since Addis Ababa was also the capital of the empire the city and its administrators played not only a local but also an imperial role The economic influence of the capital was even more pronounced where again the Emperor was more important than any other individual in the land and under his watchful eye foreigners dominated the import and export trade while Christians wrested the overall control of trade in the Empire from the Muslims Yet evangelically the church was rarely very energetic in the capital although its influence was pervasive While many historians have seen Menilek's reign as a period of significant innovation and modernisation this thesis regards that as an exaggerated claim For when closely examined the modernisation of even the capital was never very impressive although it was the acknowledged centre of foreign influence Nonetheless the capital did show itself to be the main point for the diffusion of the few modernisations that were introduced into the country from the 1880s to 1910
