The Changing Scene in World Languages Marian B. Labrum,1997 American Translators Association Scholarly Monograph Series Marian B. Labrum,1997 Handbook of the Changing World Language Map Stanley D. Brunn,Roland Kehrein,2018 Language in the Twenty-First Century Humphrey Tonkin,Timothy Reagan,2003-08-20 What is the future of languages in an increasingly globalized world Are we moving toward the use of a single language for global communication or are there ways of managing language diversity at the international level Can we or should we maintain a balance between the global need to communicate and the maintenance of local and regional identities and cultures What is the role of education of language rights of language equality in this volatile global linguistic mix A group of leading scholars in sociolinguistics and language policy examines trends in language use across the world to find answers to these questions and to make predictions about likely outcomes Highlighted in the discussion are among other issues the rapidly changing role of English the equally rapid decline and death of small languages the future of the major European languages the international use of constructed languages like Esperanto and not least the question of what role applied scholarship can and should play in mapping and influencing the future Language, Education, and Society in a Changing World Tina Hickey,Jenny Williams,1996 This book addresses many of the issues facing language teachers researchers and policy makers in a world where languages are becoming extinct at an alarming rate and are frequently the focus for dispute and conflict

The Handbook of Language and Globalization Nikolas Coupland,2011-07-05 The Handbook of Language and Globalization brings together important new studies of language and discourse in the global era consolidating a vibrant new field of sociolinguistic research The first volume to assemble leading scholarship in this rapidly developing field Features new contributions from 36 internationally known scholars bringing together key research in the field and establishing a benchmark for future research Comprehensive coverage is divided into four sections global multilingualism world languages and language systems global discourse in key domains and genres language values and markets under globalization and language distance and identities Covers an impressive breadth of topics including tourism language teaching social networking terrorism and religion among many others Winner of the British Association for Applied Linguistics book prize 2011 Language, Society and the State in a Changing World Stanley D. Brunn,Roland Kehrein,2024-02-09 This book addresses the changing contemporary language worlds in three major contexts It first discusses how the language landscape maps of cities are changing as a result of increased migration globalization and global media These features are evident in place names and place name changes as well as the densities and frequencies of language spoken and used in texts The second section discusses how the state itself is responding to both indigenous and heritage groups desiring to be included and represented in the state s political landscapes and also expressions of art and culture In the third section the authors address a number of cutting edge theses that are emerging in the linguistic geography and political words These include the importance of gender anthropogenetic discourse the preservation of endangered languages and challenges to a state's official language policy Through including authors from nine different countries who are writing about issues in twelve countries and their overlapping interests in language mapping language usage and policy and visual representations this book provides inspiring research into future topics at local national regional and international scales
