The Chinese Repository Volume 4 From May 1835 To April 1836:

The Chinese Repository 1835-1836 Elijah Coleman Bridgman, 2025-10-12 Reprint of the original first published in 1836 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Handbook of Christianity in China Nicolas Standaert, R. G. Tiedemann, 2009-12-01 The second volume on Christianity in China covers the period from 1800 to the present day dealing with the complexities of both Catholic and Protestant aspects British Naturalists in Qing China Fa-ti FAN, Fa-ti Fan, 2009-06-30 In the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Western scientific interest in China focused primarily on natural history Prominent scholars in Europe as well as Westerners in China including missionaries merchants consular officers and visiting plant hunters eagerly investigated the flora and fauna of China Yet despite the importance and extent of this scientific activity it has been entirely neglected by historians of science This book is the first comprehensive study on this topic In a series of vivid chapters Fa ti Fan examines the research of British naturalists in China in relation to the history of natural history of empire and of Sino Western relations The author gives a panoramic view of how the British naturalists and the Chinese explored studied and represented China s natural world in the social and cultural environment of Qing China Using the example of British naturalists in China the author argues for reinterpreting the history of natural history by including neglected historical actors intellectual traditions and cultural practices His approach moves beyond viewing the history of science and empire within European history and considers the exchange of ideas aesthetic tastes material culture and plants and animals in local and global contexts This compelling book provides an innovative framework for understanding the formation of scientific practice and knowledge in cultural encounters Table of Contents Acknowledgments Introduction I The Port 1 Natural History in a Chinese Entrep t 2 Art Commerce and Natural History II The Land 3 Science and Informal Empire 4 Sinology and Natural History 5 Travel and Fieldwork in the Interior Epilogue Appendix Selected Biographical Notes Abbreviations Notes Index Fa ti Fan s study of the encounter between the British culture of the naturalist and the Chinese culture of the Qing is both a delight and a revelation The topic has scarcely been addressed by historians of science and this work fills important gaps in our knowledge of British scientific practice in a noncolonial context and of Chinese reactions to Western science in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries In addition to the culture of Victorian naturalists and Sinology Fan shows an admirable grasp of visual representation in science Chinese taxonomic schemes Chinese export art British imperial scholarship and journeys of exploration His treatment of the China trade and descriptions of Chinese markets and nurseries are especially welcome I learned a great deal and I strongly recommend this book Philip Rehbock author of Philosophical Naturalists Themes in Early Nineteenth Century British Biology By focusing on the experiences of British naturalists in China during a time when it was gradually being opened up to foreign influences Fan makes at least two important contributions to history of science He gives us an authoritative study of British naturalists in China as far as I know the only one of its kind and he forces us to rethink some of our categories for doing history of science including how we conceive of the relationship between science and imperialism and between Western naturalist and native Fan's scholarship is meticulous with careful attention to detail and his prose is clear controlled and succinct Bernard Lightman editor of Victorian Science in Context New Word Order: Transnational Themes in Book History, 2011 梁啟超與中國近世思想, 2008 Liang A-Fa George Hunter McNeur, 2014-03-13 Liang Fa holds a unique place in the history of Christianity in China Baptized and ordained by the first Protestant missionaries to China Liang aided the first two generations of missionaries and conducted his own work as an evangelist and writer Liang alone in the first generation wrote and published under his name and his most famous tract is believed to have influenced the Taiping Rebellion While George McNeur's biography of Liang has been republished regularly in Chinese this is the first republication in English since the 1930s It remains the best work on an influential but little studied figure Annotated and with a critical introduction this work seeks to revive scholarship on Liang as we approach the two hundredth anniversary of his baptism British Naturalists in China, 1760-1910 Fa-ti Fan, 1999 Opium and Empire Richard J. Grace, 2014-10 In 1832 William Jardine and James Matheson established what would become the greatest British trading company in East Asia in the nineteenth century After the termination of the East India Company's monopoly in the tea trade Jardine Matheson Company's aggressive marketing strategies concentrated on the export of teas and the import of opium sold offshore to Chinese smugglers Jardine and Matheson recognized as giants on the scene at Macao Canton and Hong Kong have often been depicted as one dimensional villains whose opium commerce was ruthless and whose imperial drive was insatiable In Opium and Empire Richard Grace explores the depths of each man their complicated and sometimes inconsistent internal workings and their achievements and failures He details their decades long journeys between Britain and China their business strategies and standards of conduct and their inventiveness as gentlemanly capitalists The commodities they marketed also included cotton rice textile goods and silks and they functioned as agents for clients in India Britain Singapore and Australia During the First Opium War Jardine was in London giving advice to Lord Palmerston while Matheson was detained under house arrest at Canton in the spring of 1839 an incident which helped prompt the armed British response Moving beyond the caricatures of earlier accounts Opium and Empire tells the story of two Scotsmen whose lives reveal a great deal about the type of tough minded men who expanded the global markets of Victorian Britain and played major roles in changing the course of modern history in East Asia The Chinese Repository Elijah Coleman Bridgman, Samuel Wells Williams, 1837 The Chinese Repository, 1836
