Fact and Fiction in Contemporary Narratives Jan Alber,Alice Bell,2021-05-11 This book explores the complex interrelationship between fact and fiction in narratives of the twenty first century Current cultural theory observes a cultural shift away from postmodernism to new forms of expression Rather than a radical break from the postmodern however postmodernist techniques are repurposed to express a new sincerity a purposeful self reflexivity a contemporary sense of togetherness and an associated commitment to reality In what the editors consider to be one manifestation of this general tendency this book explores the ways in which contemporary texts across different media play with the boundary between fact and fiction This includes the examination of novels autobiography autofiction film television mockumentary digital fiction advertising campaigns and media hoaxes The chapters engage with theories of what comes after postmodernism and analyse the narratological stylistic and or semiotic devices on which such texts rely The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the European Journal of English Studies

An Introduction to Contemporary Aesthetics Emmie Malone,Elizabeth Scarbrough,2025-10-27 An Introduction to Contemporary Aesthetics Art Community and Experience gives students and other readers a comprehensive sense of the dynamic issues and problems in aesthetics and philosophy of art today Each of the 14 chapters is written by a different expert in the field and together they cover a wide range of methodological approaches and perspectives including those from analytic and Continental philosophy non Eurocentric global traditions and critical stances taken up by feminist philosophers and philosophers of race In addition the volume makes use of recent empirical work on art and beauty as well as examples of artistic expressions from cultures from around the world In contrast to other coursebooks which are often structured entirely around artforms this volume frames much of its contents around core aesthetic concepts like good or bad taste interpretation or authenticity with each chapter devoted to a different concept Within each chapter the reader will find a range of engaging artforms and experiences The contents of the volume are laid out in four parts the first focuses on foundational questions in aesthetics and the second on key aesthetic concepts The third part focuses on applied questions relating to particular artforms and genres e g horror comedy AI art games Finally the last part of the volume takes a wider but still practical view focusing on why aesthetic life matters to us both as a society and as individuals

Key Features Written in a non technical style for readers new to aesthetics and with little or no background in philosophy or the study of the arts Draws on examples readers encounter in everyday life and popular culture from Drake to Philly cheesesteaks Deals with questions that concern many college students today Does authenticity even matter and if so why What s wrong with enjoying the work of an immoral artist How are our homes and schools important places of aesthetic meaning Each chapter is written as a biased survey with clear coverage of the historical and contemporary literature on the topic but also from a distinct subjective point of view Non Eurocentric philosophies or examples are included throughout the book highlighting the rich and diverse philosophical work from around the globe

Discussion Questions offer student readers opportunities to engage more fully with the problems raised in the text

The Philosophy of Documentary Film David LaRocca, 2016-12-20 The spirit that founded the volume and guided its development is radically inter and transdisciplinary Dispatches have arrived from anthropology communications English film studies including theory history criticism literary studies including theory history criticism media and screen studies cognitive cultural studies narratology philosophy poetics politics and political theory and as a special aspect of the volume theorist filmmakers make their thoughts known as well Consequently the critical reflections gathered here are decidedly pluralistic and heterogeneous inviting not bracketing or partitioning the dynamism and diversity of the arts humanities social sciences and even natural sciences in so far as we are biological beings who are trying to track our cognitive and perceptual understanding of a nonbiological thing namely film whether celluloid based or in digital form these disciplines so habitually cordoned off from one another are brought together into a shared conversation about a common object and domain of investigation This book will be of interest to theorists and practitioners of nonfiction film to emerging and established scholars contributing to the secondary literature and to those who are intrigued by the kinds of questions and claims that seem native to nonfiction film and who may wish to explore some critical responses to them written in engaging language

Conspicuous Silences Ruth Rosaler, 2016 How are a reader's perceptions of a plot impacted by its presentation through textual clues rather than explicit narration and why would an author choose this comparatively indirect mode of narration Conspicuous Silences answers these questions by examining Victorian novels in which pivotal events are left inexplicit for hundreds of pages at a time but are nonetheless evident to the reader The clarity with which readers understand these inexplicit plot lines is evidenced by their ability to follow the progression of narratives that rely heavily on the inexplicit content being detected without this reader comprehension these narratives would be deemed incoherent In linguistics communications that depend on a hearer's or reader's inference rather than on their decoding the explicit content of an utterance are termed implicatures Conspicuous Silences explores the impact that central sustained implicatures have on a reader's experience of a novel It also discusses how authors may generate those implicatures by exploiting the reader's assumption of narratorial omniscience and the correlated reader assumption of a narrative's fictionality Reliance on such sustained fictionality related implicatures is fairly ubiquitous Conspicuous Silences concentrates on texts by Elizabeth Gaskell George Eliot Charles Dickens Frances Trollope Anthony Trollope Wilkie Collins and M E Braddon It examines the use of implicature in communicating impolite topics communicating character psychology and in fashioning a playful narrative tone This work contributes to Victorian literary scholarship narratological discussions about narratorial omniscience and fictionality and pragmatic stylistic debates about fictionality and the use of implicature
