False Prophets and Preachers, 2016-04-01 In February 1534 a radical group of Anabaptists gripped with apocalyptic fervor seized the city of Münster and established an idealistic communal government that quickly deteriorated into extreme inequality and theocratic totalitarianism In response troops hired by the city's prince bishop laid siege to the city Fifteen months later the besieged inhabitants were starving and in the dead of the night five men slipped out Separated from his fellow escapees Henry Gresbeck gambled with his life by approaching enemy troops Taken prisoner he collaborated with the enemy to devise a plan to recapture Münster and later recorded the only eyewitness account of the Anabaptist kingdom of Münster Gresbeck's account which attempts to explain his role in the bizarre events disappeared into the archives and was largely ignored for centuries Before now Gresbeck's account was only available in a heavily edited German copy adapted from inferior manuscripts Christopher S Mackay who previously produced the only modern translation of the main Latin account of these events has adhered closely to Gresbeck's own words to produce the first complete and accurate English translation of this important primary source

The Uncoiling Python Harold Scheub, 2010-08-10 The oral and written traditions of the Africans of South Africa have provided an understanding of their past and the way the past relates to the present These traditions continue to shape the past by the present and vice versa From the time colonial forces first came to the region in 1487 oral and written traditions have been a bulwark against what became 350 years of colonial rule characterized by the racist policies of apartheid The Uncoiling Python South African Storytellers and Resistance is the first in depth study of how Africans used oral traditions as a means of survival against European domination Africans resisted colonial rule from the beginning They participated in open insurrections and other subversive activities in order to withstand the daily humiliations of colonial rule Perhaps the most effective and least apparent expression of subversion was through indigenous storytelling and poetic traditions Harold Scheub has collected the stories and poetry of the Xhosa Zulu Swati and Ndebele peoples to present a fascinating analysis of how the apparently harmless tellers of tales and creators of poetry acted as front line soldiers
