The Five Hundred Club:

Hearings United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary, 1951 Commerce, 1919 Chicago's Block Clubs Amanda I. Seligman, 2016-10-04 What do you do if your alley is strewn with garbage after the sanitation truck comes through Or if you're tired of the rowdy teenagers next door keeping you up all night Is there a vacant lot on your block accumulating weeds needles and litter For a century Chicagoans have joined block clubs to address problems like these that make daily life in the city a nuisance When neighbors work together in block clubs playgrounds get built local crime is monitored streets are cleaned up and every summer is marked by the festivities of day long block parties In Chicago's Block Clubs Amanda I Seligman uncovers the history of the block club in Chicago from its origins in the Urban League in the early 1900s through to the Chicago Police Department's twenty first century community policing program Recognizing that many neighborhood problems are too big for one resident to handle but too small for the city to keep up with city residents have for more than a century created clubs to establish and maintain their neighborhood's particular social dynamics quality of life and appearance Omnipresent yet evanescent block clubs are sometimes the major outlets for community organizing in the city especially in neighborhoods otherwise lacking in political strength and clout Drawing on the stories of hundreds of these groups from across the city Seligman vividly illustrates what neighbors can and cannot accomplish when they work together

Hearings United States. Congress Senate, 1959 Annual Report Wellesley (Mass.), 1913 The Rotarian, 1926-11 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Gandhi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine Annual register of women's clubs, 1923 Proceedings: Twenty-First Annual Convention of Rotary International, Mind and Body, 1903

The National Catholic War Council Bulletin, 1919 Country Guide and Nor'west Farmer, 1915 Tappin' at the Apollo Cheryl M. Willis, 2016-05-02 In the 1920s and 1930s Edwina Salt Evelyn and Jewel Pepper Welch learned to tap dance on street corners in New York and Philadelphia By the 1940s they were Black show business headliners playing Harlem's Apollo Theater with the likes of Count Basie Fats Waller and Earl Fatha Hines Their exuberant tap style usually performed by men earned them the respect of their male peers and the acclaim of audiences Based on extensive interviews with Salt and Pepper this book chronicles for the first time the lives and careers of two overlooked female performers who succeeded despite the racism sexism and homophobia of the Big Band era Court of Appeals: State of New York Court of Appeals, 1887 Deep Travel David K. Leff, 2009-04 In the hot summer of 2004 David Leff floated away from the routine of daily life just as Henry David Thoreau and his brother had done in their own small boat in 1839 Fortified with Thoreau's observations as revealed in A Week on the Concord and Merrimack Rivers Leff brought his own concept of mindful deep travel to these same New England waterways His first person narrative uses his ecological way of looking of going deep rather than far to show that our outward journeys are inseparable from our inward ones How we see depends on where we are in our lives and with whom we travel Leff chose his companions wisely In consecutive journeys his neighbor and friend Alan a veteran city planner his son Josh an energetic eleven year old and his sweetheart Pamela a compassionate professional caregiver added their perspectives to Leff s own experiences as a government official in natural resources policy Not so much sight seeing as sight seeking together they explored a geography of the imagination as well as the rich natural and human histories of the rivers and their communities The heightened awareness of deep travel demands that we immerse ourselves fully in places and realize that they exist in time as well as space Its mindfulness enriches the experience and makes the voyager worthy of the journey Leff s intriguing contemplative deep travel along these historic rivers presents a methodology for exploration that will enrich any trip London Clubland Seth Alexander Thévoz,2025-05-15 Step into the hidden world of London s private members clubs with London Clubland A Companion for the Curious This guide by the leading historian on the subject offers a fascinating insight into these legendary institutions Culture history and traditions are all explained from aristocratic haunts like Boodle s and Brooks s to modern icons like Soho House and the Groucho Club Insightful and entertaining London Clubland is your ultimate guide and almanac to this world from navigating the application process to the unwritten rules that define these spaces not to mention a wealth of trivia assembled over twenty years Readers will discover mottos maps songs and club recipes as well as little known facts that some of London s most iconic clubs probably wouldn t want you to know Whether you are a long standing member a reciprocal visitor an aspiring applicant or simply just curious about this secretive world London Clubland offers an engaging and revealing tour through some of London s most discreet institutions The World Almanac & Book of Facts ,1871 The Science of Hate Matthew Williams,2021-03-23 Why do people hate A world leading criminologist explores the tipping point between prejudice and hate crime analysing human behaviour across the globe and throughout history in this vital book This should be on the curriculum A must read DR JULIE SMITH A key text for how we live now DAVID BADDIEL Wildly engrossing DARREN MCGARVEY This is a world changing book ALICE ROBERTS Fascinating and moving PRAGYA AGARWAL Are our brains wired to hate Is social media to blame for an increase in hateful abuse With hate on the rise what can we do to turn the tide Drawing on twenty years of pioneering research as well as his own experience as a hate crime victim world renowned criminologist Matthew Williams explores one of the pressing issues of our age Surveying human behaviour across the globe and reaching back through time from our tribal ancestors in prehistory to artificial intelligence in the twenty first century The Science of Hate is a groundbreaking and surprising examination of the elusive tipping point between prejudice and hate Hate speech online has escalated to unprecedented levels Matthew Williams a professor of criminology is shining a scientific light on who is behind it and why a rallying cry OBSERVER Fascinating and beautifully written I heartily recommend it HUGO RIFKIND TIMES RADIO Fascinating A harrowing but illuminating work EVENING STANDARD An indispensable guide to what s gone wrong

both here at home and in much of the Western world THE HERALD She Hath Been Reading Katherine West Scheil,2012-05-15 In the late nineteenth century hundreds of clubs formed across the United States devoted to the reading of Shakespeare From Pasadena California to the seaside town of Camden Maine from the isolated farm town of Ottumwa Iowa to Mobile Alabama on the Gulf coast Americans were reading Shakespeare in astonishing numbers and in surprising places Composed mainly of women these clubs offered the opportunity for members not only to read and study Shakespeare but also to participate in public and civic activities outside the home In She Hath Been Reading Katherine West Scheil uncovers this hidden layer of intellectual activity that flourished in American society well into the twentieth century Shakespeare clubs were crucial for women s intellectual development because they provided a consistent intellectual stimulus more so than was the case with most general women s clubs and because women discovered a world of possibilities both public and private inspired by their reading of Shakespeare Indeed gathering to read and discuss Shakespeare often led women to actively improve their lot in life and make their society a better place Many clubs took action on larger social issues such as women s suffrage philanthropy and civil rights At the same time these efforts served to embed Shakespeare into American culture as a marker for learning self improvement civilization and entertainment for a broad array of populations varying in age race location and social standing Based on extensive research in the archives of the Folger Shakespeare Library and in dozens of local archives and private collections across America She Hath Been Reading shows the important role that literature can play in the lives of ordinary people As testament to this fact the book includes an appendix listing more than five hundred Shakespeare clubs across America Agnes Varda Kelley Conway,2015-11-15 Both a precursor to and a critical member of the French New Wave Agn s Varda weaves documentary and fiction into tapestries that portray distinctive places and complex human beings Critics and aficionados have celebrated Varda s independence and originality since the New Wave touchstone Cleo from 5 to 7 1962 brought her a level of international acclaim she has yet to relinquish Film historian Kelley Conway traces Varda s works from her 1954 debut La Pointe Courte through a varied career that includes nonfiction and fiction shorts and features installation art and the triumphant 2008 documentary The Beaches of Agn s Drawing on Varda s archives and conversations with the filmmaker Conway focuses on the concrete details of how Varda makes films a project s emergence its development and the shifting forms of its screenplay the search for financing and the execution from casting through editing and exhibition In the process she departs from film history s traditional view of the French New Wave and reveals one artist s nontraditional trajectory through independent filmmaking The result is an intimate consideration that reveals the artistic consistencies and bold changes in the career of one of the world s most exuberant and intriguing directors The 500 World's Greatest Golf Holes George Peper,2003-04-01 Provides descriptions and anecdotes about the greatest golf holes from courses around the world
