collection of linked stories follows four generations of the Songs a Korean American family beginning in 1924 just prior to the Immigration Act and extending to near the end of the century Linked stories or stories that form a story cycle are a common book length form seen in Asian American literature that accommodates multiple perspectives across generations and locations Through this story cycle patterns emerge as cultural identity and individuality often in tension with one another shape choices and outcomes With these stories Carol Roh Spaulding charts shifting definitions of Americanness across time through the arc of a family narrative She also explores desire and belonging as articulated in turns by the mother father granddaughter great grandson and even a ghost child who died after a tragic accident But these linked stories center on the life experiences of Gracie Song They follow her from girlhood to young motherhood through her children s teenage years and finally to her elderly solitude when to her great astonishment she finds romance with a younger man and reconciliation with an estranged daughter both unexpected gifts of later life Japa and Other Stories Iheoma Nwachukwu,2024-09 These eight brutally beautiful stories are struck full of fragmented dreams with highly developed thieves misadventurers and displaced characters all heaving through a human struggle to anchor themselves in a new home or sometimes a new reality This book is about young Nigerian immigrants who bilocate trek through the desert become temporary Mormons sneak through Russia and yearn for new life in strange new territories that force them to confront what it means to search for a connection far from home Japa and Other Stories came out of a struggle Iheoma Nwachukwu faced when trying to orient himself in the United States of 2017 to 2021 when attitudes toward immigrants suddenly shifted The Japa characters explored in this book are immigrants who have no plans to return to their home country for voluntary reasons although they retain a strong connection to home

Hold that Knowledge Ethan Laughman, 2019 Love in some of the infinite ways we may know it is the shared concern of these stories which have been chosen from among the hundreds that have appeared in the prestigious Flannery O'Connor Award for Short Fiction series More than seventy volumes which include approximately eight hundred stories have won the Flannery O'Connor Award This stunning trove of always engaging often groundbreaking short fiction is the common source for this anthology on love and for planned anthologies on such topics as work family animals children and more Emerging love or love on its way out the door Love that transcends or love that just stubbornly hangs on These fourteen stories give us at least that many new ways of looking at a state of mind that can send us either soaring or plummeting all in a heartbeat

Listening to the Voices Charles East, 1998 If you have Voices you'd better listen to them Flannery O'Connor once said Since 1982 the University of Georgia Press has published the winners of the Flannery O'Connor Award for Short Fiction one of the country's most prestigious literary awards Now celebrating its fifteenth year the award continues to introduce some of the most exciting new voices in fiction writing today Listening to the Voices is a dazzling collection of stories from the most recent winners of the award

Down on the Sidewalk Ethan Laughman, 2020-03-01 Front porches family cars playgrounds swimming pools from such familiar haunts of childhood these stories look out on the world through young eyes and hearts Wise beyond their years or soon to be Ruthie Omar J J and the other kids in these stories veer in and out of touching distance to hard lessons about trust love and mortality However engaged or aloof grownups are always nearby Far from perfect emissaries to the realm of adulthood they pose questions for children even as they offer answers
