The Flavour Of Hong Kong:

Between Mumbai and Manila Manfred Hutter, 2013-07-17 The volume offers a diversity of facets of Jewry between Mumbai and Manila While some of its papers make references to the important factor how politics and religions are often intertwined other papers are arranged along the lines of area studies from South Asia via Southeast Asia to China and the Far East Even if these articles at first glance concentrate on local minority communities they always take into account that the Jewish communities in Asia take part in interactions of religions which can help to foster mutual understanding The studies presented at the conference refer to an extended approach always bringing Jewish Studies into international links and crossing borders thus opening comparative perspectives to broaden our knowledge of Jewish history So we have to reconsider aspects of Jewish studies for the future which would include Asian and religious studies in a qualitative comparative and interdisciplinary way and thus can shift away from the Euro American centric point of view regarding Jewish Studies

C. T. Au,2019-11-29 This book revolves around the fundamental question What is Hong Kong modernism To address this issue C T Au identifies three significant characteristics a renewal of traditions an obsession with ordinary things and an expression of concerns about social and political issues shared among Western modernisms Chinese modernism in the 1940s and such Hong Kong modernists as Ma Lang Liu Yichang and Leung Ping kwan Yasi Ye Si This research concentrates on an examination of the major modernist tenets embodied in Leung s literary works Leung Ping kwan is one of the most prominent and widely read Hong Kong modernist writers however there exist only a few scholarly works which focus on the direct relationship between Leung s works and modernisms The author argues that Leung paid special attention to issues regarding tradition daily life and colonial culture in order to understand his past his identity and the unique features of Hong Kong modernism which celebrate multiple perspectives and inclusiveness This study not only helps differentiate Hong Kong modernism from other modernisms positioning the former as a variant of the latter but also provides a response to the problems evoked by Hong Kong s colonial milieu Dismantling the East-West Dichotomy Joy Hendry,Heung Wah
