published in 1936 The Higher Learning in America brought into focus the root causes of the controversies that still beset the nation's educational system. Taking office in 1929 as president of the University of Chicago, Hutchins began his tenure by declaring the learning available in even the most prestigious universities grossly deficient. He cited himself as case in point. At Yale he had graduated at the top of his college class and set a record in the law school that led to appointment as professor and at 26 promotion to dean. But he had acquired only some knowledge of the Bible of Shakespeare and Faust of one dialogue of Plato and of the opinions of many semi-literate and a few literate judges and that was about all. The curricular reforms and administrative reorganization he undertook at Chicago are set forth in this volume along with the philosophical arguments he worked out to explicate and defend his views.
