The History Plays An Illustrated Edition:

The Historical Imagination in Nineteenth-Century Britain and the Low Countries Hugh Dunthorne, Michael Wintle, 2012-11-01 The 19th century laid the foundations of history both professional and popular The authors of this collection compare Britain the Netherlands and Belgium unearthing the ways in which history was conceived and then utilized usually for nationalistic purposes The History of Egypt, from the Earliest Times, Till the Conquest by the Arabs A.D. 640 Samuel Sharpe (Orientalist.), 1876 Shakespeare's Afterlife in the Royal Collection Sally Barnden, Gordon McMullan, Kate Retford, Kirsten Tambling, 2025-01-31 This unique collection of essays and images explores a series of objects in the Royal Collection as a means of assessing the interrelated histories of the British royal family and the Shakespearean afterlife across four centuries Between the beginning of the eighteenth century and the late twentieth Shakespeare became entrenched as the English national poet Over the same period the monarchy sought repeatedly to demonstrate its centrality to British nationhood By way of close analysis of a selection of objects from the Royal Collection this volume argues that the royal family and the Shakespearean afterlife were far more closely interwoven than has previously been realized The chapters map the mutual development over time of the relationship between members of the British royal family and Shakespeare demonstrating the extent to which each has gained sustained value from association with the other and showing how members of the royal family have individually and collectively constructed their identities and performed their roles by way of Shakespearean models Each chapter is inspired by an object in or formerly in the Royal Collection and explores two interconnected questions what has Shakespeare done for the royal family and what has the royal family done for Shakespeare The chapters range across the fields of art theatre history literary criticism literary history court studies and cultural history showing how the shared history of Shakespeare and the royal family has been cultivated across media and across disciplines The Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1887 The History of England David Hume, Tobias Smollett, 1835 The Book Buyer, 1892 A review and record of current literature The Contemporary Review, 1892 East and West David Alec Wilson, 1911 The Comprehensive History of England Charles MacFarlane, Thomas Thomson, 1859 A Wanderer in Paris Edward Verrall Lucas, 1918 The International Studio, 1912 The History of England from the Accession of James the Second Thomas Babington Macaulay, 1881 The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1882 Cassell's picture stories from the history of England Cassell Ltd, 1865 The comprehensive history of England, from the earliest period to the suppression of the Sepoy revolt, by C.
