Bryant. Memorial ed William Cullen Bryant, 1880 Poems of the Household Margaret Elizabeth Munson Sangster, 2024-04-06 Reprint of the original first published in 1882 The Experience of Poetry Derek Attridge, 2019 An account of the performance of poetry from late Antiquity to the Renaissance that explores the role and importance of poetry in western culture The Country House in English Renaissance Poetry William Alexander McClung, 2022-09-23 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1977 The Poetry of Jane Austen and the Austen Family David Selwyn, Jane Austen Society, 1997 As in many households in the late eighteenth century writing verses was a pastime with the Austen family and the composition of ingenious riddles and charades provided a source of lively entertainment This volume of verses by Jane Austen and her family contains all the known poems by Jane herself as well as a selection of work by her mother her sister Cassandra four of her brothers her uncle James her nieces Anna and Fanny her nephew James Edward and other relatives David Selwyn provides an introduction and full explanatory notes his transcriptions taken from autograph manuscripts or from the earliest copies are precise in terms of spelling punctuation and layout The Household Book of Poetry Charles Anderson Dana, 1858 The Writer in Petrograd and the House of Arts Martha Weitzel Hickey, 2009-06-16 Founded by Maksim Gorky and Kornei Chukovsky in 1919 and disbanded in 1922 the Petrograd House of Arts occupied a crucial moment in Russia's cultural history By chronicling the rise and fall of this literary landmark this book conveys in greater depth and detail than ever before a significant but little studied period in Soviet literature Poised between Russian culture's past and her Soviet future between pre and post Revolutionary generations this once lavish private home on the Nevsky Prospekt housed as many as fifty six poets novelists critics and artists at one time during a period of great social and political turbulence And as such Hickey contends the House of Arts served as a crucible for a literature in transition Hickey shows how the House of Arts though virtually ignored by Soviet era cultural historians played a critical role in shaping the lively literature of the next decade a literature often straddling the border between fiction and non fiction Considering prose writers such as Yevgeny Zamyatin Olga Forsh the Serapion Brothers group Viktor Shklovsky Boris Eikhenbaum as well as poets including Alexander Blok Nikolay Gumilev Anna Radlova Osip Mandelstam and Vladislav Khodasevich she traces the comings and goings at the House of Arts the meetings and readings and lectures and most of all the powerful influence of these interactions on those who briefly lived and worked there In her work the Petrograd House of Arts appears for the first time in all its complexity and importance as a focal point for the social and cultural ferment of the day and a turning point in the direction of Russian literature and criticism In the House of the Hangman volume 6 John

Bloomberg-Rissman,2016-12-31 A marathon dance mix consisting of thousands of mashed up text and image samples In the House of the Hangman tries to give a taste of what life is like there where it is impolite to speak of the noose It is the third part of the life project Zeitgeist Spam If you can't afford a copy ask me for a pdf Poetry and the Anthropocene Sam

Solnick,2016-09-19 This book asks what it means to write poetry in and about the Anthropocene the name given to a geological epoch where humans have a global ecological impact Combining critical approaches such as ecocriticism and posthumanism with close reading and archival research it argues that the Anthropocene requires poetry and the humanities to find new ways of thinking about unfamiliar spatial and temporal scales about how we approach the metaphors and discourses of the sciences and about the role of those processes and materials that confound humans attempts to control or even conceptualise them Poetry and the Anthropocene draws on the work of a series of poets from across the political and poetic spectrum analysing how understandings of technology shape literature about place evolution and the tradition of writing about what still gets called Nature The book explores how writers' understanding of sciences such as climatology or biochemistry might shape their poetry's form and how literature can respond to environmental crises without descending into agitprop self-righteousness or apocalyptic cynicism In the face of the Anthropocene's radical challenges to ethics aesthetics and politics the book shows how poetry offers significant ways of interrogating and rendering the complex relationships between organisms and their environments in a world increasingly marked by technology The Poetry Life Baron Wormser,2008-04-30 Baron Wormser brings to life the immense force poetry can have in people's lives In stories funny tender sad and edgy the narrators register how poetry has changed how they see themselves how they live and what they care about As it bends genres by adapting aspects of fiction biography essay and monologue The Poetry Life shows how poetry can be lightning in the soul Baron Wormser has pulled off a miraculous feat he has written a collection of stories that reveals the absolute necessity of poetry in our lives His prose style is riveting and his characters are as diverse as a phone book Each voice conjures up a passionate portrait of inner life telling us through episodes both comic and tragic that the world of the deceased poet remains eternally relevant to our own Clint McCown author of The Weatherman A Novel Poetry Baron Wormser writes is about generosity So too are these ten stories you hold in your hands They are about generosity And mystery And loneliness And life They are about how poetry helps us stay in our skins You will fall in love with these stories and with the ten poets who appear in them What Baron Wormser says about William Carlos Williams I say about him here He nailed it Ann Hood author of The Knitting Circle A Novel A book of stories not about poets but driven by the presence of poetry and the shadows of poets' madness undoubtedly But the best kind of madness With this book Baron Wormser invites us to reconsider the connection between poetry and our lives to remember that we really do live hungry for inner vision for small insights that can save us from the slag heap of goofdom and pointlessness It s a wonderful book It s the kind of stuff that makes you want to stay in the world Tim Seibles author of Buffalo Head Solos The American House Poem, 1945-2021 Walt Hunter,2023-09-19 The house is perhaps the most recognizable emblem of the American ideals of self making prosperity stability domesticity and upward mobility Yet over the years from 1945 2021 the American house becomes more famous for the betrayal of those hopes than for their fulfilment first through the segregation of cities and public housing then through the expansion of private credit that lays the ground for the subprime mortgage crisis of the early twenty first century Walt Hunter argues that as access to housing expands to include a greater share of the US population the house emerges as a central metaphor for the poetic imagination From the kitchenette of Gwendolyn Brooks to the duplex of Jericho Brown and from the suburban imagination of Adrienne Rich to the epic constructions of James Merrill the American house poem represents the changing abilities of US poets to imagine new forms of life while also building on the past In The American House Poem 1945 2021 Hunter focuses on poets who register the unevenly distributed pressures of successive housing crises by rewriting older poetic forms Writing about the materials tools and plans for making a house these poets express the tensions between making their lives into art and freeing their lives from inherited constraints and conditions Report from the Select Committee of the House of Lords, Appointed to Inquire Into the Operation of the Act 3 & 4 Will., C. 85, for the Better Government of Her Majesty's Indian Territories Great Britain.
