The Human Way A Dialogical Approach To Religion And Human Experience Religion:

The Human Way Maurice S. Friedman,1982 The Theology and Philosophy of Eliade C. Olson,1992-07-21 The primary focus of this study is to view Eliade as not only a historian of religions but also as a theologian a philosopher novelist and as someone engaged in cross cultural dialogue with other religious traditions Besides attempting to view Eliade s work from a variety of perspectives this study contends that the scholarly work of Eliade cannot be separated from his own personal quest for meaning A Heart of Wisdom Maurice Friedman,2012-02-01 Drawing on almost half a century of immersion in the world s great religions coupled with an ever deepening understanding of the philosophy and phenomenology of religion the author takes a dialogical approach through which religious reality is not seen as external creed and form or as subjective inspiration but as the meeting in openness presentness immediacy and mutuality with ultimate reality Religion has to do with the wholeness of human life The absolute is found not just in the universal but in the particular and the unique When it promotes a dualism in which the spirit has no binding claim upon life and life falls apart into unhallowed fragments religion becomes the great enemy of humankind Listening and Human Communication in the 21st Century Andrew D. Wolvin,2011-09-13 Bringing together top listening scholars from a range of disciplines and real world perspectives Listening and Human Communication in the 21st Century offers a state of the art overview of what we know and think about listening behavior in the 21st century Introduces students to the core issues listening theory and practice Includes student friendly features such as editorial introductions to each section and questions for further reflection at the end of each chapter Discussion ranges from historical perspectives to present theory to teaching and performing listening in the classroom in health care and in corporate settings Dialogically Speaking Kenneth Paul Kramer,2011-01-01 What makes us authentically human According to Maurice Friedman world renowned Martin Buber scholar translator and biographer it is genuine dialogue When there s a willingness for dialogue Friedman says then one must navigate moment by moment It s a listening process Friedman addresses our humanity in ever unique ways through his dialogue with philosophy literature religion and psychotherapy At least two things make this book new Friedman presents his wide ranging thought directly in five original essays forming an intertextual compass which is then elaborated upon by colleagues familiar with his work Second a special feature of this book is found at the end of each part which invites readers to engage with questions drawn from and pointing toward Friedman s writing The book s intended audience includes teachers scholars and students interested in dialogical approaches to any of the human sciences In a time when we are in danger of losing our human birthright Friedman s interdisciplinary insights point us again to the touch of the other

Understanding Experience Roger A. Frie,2004-06-02 Understanding Experience Psychotherapy and Postmodernism is a collection of innovative interdisciplinary essays that explore the way we experience and interact with each other and the world around us The authors address the postmodern debate in psychotherapy and psychoanalysis through clinical and theoretical discussion and offer a view of the person that is unique and relevant today The clinical work of Binswanger Boss Fromm Fromm Reichmann Laing and Lacan is considered alongside the theories of Buber Heidegger Husserl Merleau Ponty Sartre and others Combining clinical data from psychotherapy and psychoanalysis with insights from European philosophy this book seeks to fill a major gap in the debate over postmodernism and bridges the paradigmatic divide between the behavioural sciences and the human sciences It will be of great interest to clinicians and students of psychotherapy and psychoanalysis who wish to come to terms with postmodernism as well as those interested in the interaction of psychoanalysis philosophy and social theory

The Study of Religion in an Age of Global Dialogue Leonard J. Swidler, Paul Mojzes, 2000 Religion is the most fundamental comprehensive of all human activities it tries to make sense out of not simply one or another aspect of human life but of all aspects of human experience At the core of every civilization lies its religion which both reflects and shapes it Thus if we wish to understand human life in general and our specific culture and history we need to understand religion What is religion Religion is an explanation of the ultimate meaning of life and how to live accordingly based on a notion of the Transcendent Normally it contains the four C s Creed Code Cult Community structure CREED refers To The cognitive aspect of a religion it is everything that goes into the explanation of the ultimate meaning of life CODE OF BEHAVIOR or ethics includes all the rules and customs of action that somehow follow from one aspect or another of the Creed CULT means all the ritual activities that relate the follower to one aspect or another of the Transcendent either directly or indirectly prayer being an example of the former and certain formal behavior toward representatives of the Transcendent such as priests of the latter COMMUNITY STRUCTURE refers To The relationships among the followers this can vary widely from a very egalitarian relationship As among Quakers through a republican structure as Presbyterians have To a monarchical one As with some Hasidic Jews have with their Rebbe THE TRANSCENDENT As the roots of the word indicate means that which goes beyond the everyday The ordinary The surface experience of reality it can mean spirits gods a Personal God An Impersonal God Emptiness etc This volume looks at the ways we humans have developed to study religion However a new age in human consciousness is now dawning The Age of Global Dialogue a radically new consciousness which fundamentally shifts the ways we understand everything in life including religion This global dialogical way of understanding life does not lead to one global religion but it does lead toward a consciously acknowledged common set of ethical principles a Global Ethic The book looks at these two movements the Age of Global Dialogue and inchoative Global Ethic in order to help readers understand what is going on around them So they might make informed intelligent decisions about the meaning of life and how to live it Author note Leonard Swidler is Professor of Religion at Temple University Paul Mojzesis Academic Dean and Professor of Religious Studies at Rosemount College

Faith and Human Transformation James Forsyth, 1997 This book proposes the parallel concept that authentic faith development both presupposes and facilitates authentic human development Thomas Aquinas posited a reciprocal relationship between nature and grace grace both presupposes or builds on nature and perfects nature Translated into developmental terms this would mean that religious and spiritual growth takes place on the foundation of healthy human growth and reciprocally the authentic religious development facilitates development towards the goals of authentic human growth This study attempts to investigate the validity of this reciprocal relationship as it applies to human and religious growth A dialogue is constructed between the views of four Christian thinkers Kierkegaard Barth Bultmann and Tillich on the dynamics of the Christian faith experience and four psychological theorists Alsler Fromm Allport and Frankl on the dynamics of human growth

Intercultural Dialogue and the Human Image Maurice S. Friedman,1995 This Book Incorporates Prof Friedman S Lectures And Discussions That Were A Part Of The Inter Cultural Dialogue At Many Levels His Major Contribution Is In Developing An Approach That Is Within The Framework Of The Human Image

Traditionally spirituality has resided and been contained within religious frameworks but while the links between the two areas are still acknowledged by many in the contemporary world spirituality is perceived by some as an aspect of human life that is distinct from religion Consequently many are searching for meaning within and without religious traditions today and seeking answers to ethical and moral questions that have been generated by the knowledge and technological explosion One outcome is the renewed interest in the religious spiritual and moral dimensions of education throughout the life cycle This International Handbook presents the research and professional practice of scholars who are daily engaged in the consideration of these dimensions in education The result is a collection of essays which reflects the discipline in all of its internationality as it as today Embedded within the chapters is also an agenda for the future where the religious moral and spiritual dimensions in education are proposed as an exciting and challenging way forward for educators at all levels in society As well it offers a vision for the emergence of a peaceful and just world

Learning Through Dialogue Kenneth Paul Kramer,2013-04-08 Educational practice today often fails to make the crucial distinction between learning as an accumulation of information and learning as a dialogical interaction that elicits one s personal response to the material Learning Through Dialogue offers an alternative approach to teaching and learning which utilizes Martin Buber s dialogical principles turning toward addressing affirmatively listening attentively and responding responsibly The book first presents Buber s educational theory and method and second presents specific examples of how Buber s dialogical philosophy can be applied in the classroom Rather than imposing one s own views this approach enables teachers and students to develop course content in uniquely appropriate ways If you are a teacher a student an educator at any level or anyone interested in furthering his or her ability to engage more meaningfully with the educational process this book will challenge you with fresh perspectives

Interreligious Resilience Michael S. Hogue, Dean Phillip Bell, 2022-05-19 This book introduces the theory of interreligious resilience as a means to developing deeper and more effective interreligious engagement and resilience Michael S Hogue and Dean Phillip Bell advocate for interreligious resilience as the ability to grow through encounters with religious difference They argue that rather than the capacity to endure change and return to a normal status quo a deeper more complex resilience is characterized by an ability to learn through disturbances disruptions and uncertainty This book integrates theory and practice by situating the practical tasks of interreligious engagement in theological and social contexts It is systemic and multidimensional rather than staying focused on isolated interreligious issues or interpersonal interreligious encounters This book is essential reading for all religious leaders and other community leaders working with religious people in an interreligious world
