

The background is a blue-toned illustration of a snowy night scene. On the left, a multi-story building with snow-laden roofs and glowing windows is visible. Snowflakes are falling throughout the scene. On the right, a silhouette of a person in a top hat and long coat stands under a glowing street lamp. The title "A CHRISTMAS CAROL" is centered in a white, ornate, gothic-style font. Two holly leaves with red berries are placed above the letter 'A' and below the letter 'C' of "CAROL".

Illustrated Sheet Music in the U.S., 1830-1930 Theresa Leininger-Miller, Kenneth Hartvigsen, 2025-01-23 Illustrated sheet music was one of the most democratic forms of visual imagery in the U.S. owned by millions of Americans wooed by compelling lithographic covers who displayed and performed compositions on home pianos. Advancements in printing technologies in the 19th century together with an emergent commercial system that facilitated the publication and broad distribution of popular music led to a surge of elaborately illustrated sheet music. This book features essays by cutting edge scholars who analyze the remarkable images that persuaded U.S. citizens to purchase mass produced compositions for both personal and social pleasure. With some songs selling millions of copies as printed musical scores music publishers commissioned artists to draw every conceivable subject as promotional illustrations including genre scenes portraits political and historical events sentimental allegories flowers landscapes commercial buildings and maritime views. As ubiquitous and democratic material culture this imagery affected ordinary people in far greater ways than unique objects like paintings and sculpture possibly could. The pictures many in saturated color with bold graphics still intrigue amaze and amuse viewers today with their originality skill and content. Rooted in visual analysis topics in this collection include perennially significant themes race ethnicity gender sexuality class politics war patriotism propaganda religion transportation regional centers of production technology Reconstruction romance and comedy as well as bodies of work by specific illustrators and lithographic firms In recognizing the role that individuals have played in preserving these remarkable objects it also features interviews with enthusiasts who own two of the largest private collections of sheet music in the U S Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 United States.
