The Changing Humanities. An Appraisal of Old Values and New Uses David Harrison Stevens, 1953 The Changing Humanities; An Appraisal of Old Values and New Uses, by David H. Stevens David Harrison Stevens, 1953 The American Poet Laureate Amy Paeth, 2023-05-16 The American Poet Laureate shows how the state has been the silent center of poetic production in the United States since World War II It is the first history of the national poetry office the U S poet laureate highlighting the careers of Elizabeth Bishop Robert Frost Gwendolyn Brooks Robert Pinsky Tracy K Smith Juan Felipe Herrera and Joy Harjo at the nation s Capitol It is also a history of how these state poets participated in national arts programming during the Cold War Drawing on previously unexplored archival materials at the Library of Congress and materials at the John F Kennedy Presidential Library Amy Paeth describes the interactions of federal bodies including the Central Intelligence Agency the State Department and the National Endowment for the Arts with literary organizations and with private patrons including Prozac heiress Ruth Lilly The consolidation of public and private interests is crucial to the development of state verse culture recognizable at the first National Poetry Festival in 1962 which followed Robert Frost s Mission to Moscow and which became dominant in the late 1990s and early 2000s The American Poet Laureate contributes to a growing body of institutional and sociological approaches to U S literary production in the postwar era and demonstrates how poetry has played a uniquely important and largely underacknowledged role in the cultural front of the Cold War A Companion to Creative Writing Graeme Harper, 2013-03-18 A COMPANION TO CREATIVE WRITING A Companion to Creative Writing is a comprehensive collection covering myriad aspects of the practice and profession of creative writing in the contemporary world The book features contributions from an international cast of creative writers publishers and editors critics translators literary prize judges and many other top professionals Chapters not only consider the practice of creative writing in terms of how it is done but also in terms of what occurs in and around creative writing practice Chapters address a wide range of topics including the writing of poetry and fiction playwriting and screenwriting writing for digital media editing creative writing and its engagement with language spirituality politics education and heritage Other chapters explore the role of literary critics and ideas around authorship as well as translation and creative writing the teaching of creative writing and the histories and character of the marketplace prizes awards and literary events With its unprecedented breadth of coverage A Companion to Creative Writing is an indispensable resource for those who are undertaking creative writing studying creative writing at any level or considering studying creative writing Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1954 Includes Part 1 Number 2 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals Workshops of Empire Eric Bennett, 2015-10-15 During and just after World War II an influential group of American writers and intellectuals projected a vision for literature that would save the free world Novels stories plays and poems they believed could inoculate weak minds against simplistic totalitarian ideologies heal the spiritual wounds of global catastrophe and just maybe prevent the like from happening again As the Cold War began high minded and well intentioned scholars critics and writers from across the political spectrum argued that human values remained crucial to civilization and that such values stood in dire need of formulation and affirmation They believed that the complexity of literature of ideas bound to concrete images of ideologies leavened with experiences enshrined such values as no other medium could Creative writing emerged as a graduate discipline in the United States amid this astonishing swirl of grand conceptions The early workshops were formed not only at the time of but in the image of and under the tremendous urgency of the postwar imperatives for the humanities Vivid renderings of personal experience would preserve the liberal democratic soul a soul menaced by the gathering leftwing totalitarianism of the USSR and the memory of fascism in Italy and Germany Workshops of Empire explores this history via the careers of Paul Engle at the University of Iowa and Wallace Stegner at Stanford In the story of these founding fathers of the discipline Eric Bennett discovers the cultural political literary intellectual and institutional underpinnings of creative writing programs within the university He shows how the model of literary technique championed by the first writing programs a model that values the interior and private life of the individual whose experiences are not determined by any community ideology or political system was born out of this Cold War context and continues to influence the way creative writing is taught studied read and written into the twenty first century

The Use of Social Research in Federal Domestic Programs United States. Congress. House. Committee on Government Operations.
