The Chinese Boy and Girl And Other Stories Isaac Taylor Headland, 2020-09-28 When Mrs Spring Fragrance first arrived in Seattle she was unacquainted with even one word of the American language Five years later her husband speaking of her said There are no more American words for her learning And everyone who knew Mrs Spring Fragrance agreed with Mr Spring Fragrance Mr Spring Fragrance whose business name was Sing Yook was a young curio merchant Though conservatively Chinese in many respects he was at the same time what is called by the Westerners Americanized Mrs Spring Fragrance was even more Americanized Next door to the Spring Fragnances lived the Chin Yuens Mrs Chin Yuen was much older than Mrs Spring Fragrance but she had a daughter of eighteen with whom Mrs Spring Fragrance was on terms of great friendship The daughter was a pretty girl whose Chinese name was Mai Gwi Far a rose and whose American name was Laura Nearly everybody called her Laura even her parents and Chinese friends Laura had a sweetheart a youth named Kai Tzu Kai Tzu who was American born and as ruddy and stalwart as any young Westerner was noted amongst baseball players as one of the finest pitchers on the Coast He could also sing Drink to me only with thine eyes to Laura's piano accompaniment Now the only person who knew that Kai Tzu loved Laura and that Laura loved Kai Tzu was Mrs Spring Fragrance The reason for this was that although the Chin Yuen parents lived in a house furnished in American style and wore American clothes yet they religiously observed many Chinese customs and their ideals of life were the ideals of their Chinese forefathers Therefore they had betrothed their daughter Laura at the age of fifteen to the eldest son of the Chinese Government school teacher in San Francisco The time for the consummation of the betrothal was approaching Laura was with Mrs Spring Fragrance and Mrs Spring Fragrance was trying to cheer her I had such a pretty walk today said she I crossed the banks above the beach and came back by the long road In the green grass the daffodils were blowing in the cottage gardens the currant bushes were flowering and in the air was the perfume of the wallflower I wished Laura that you were with me Laura burst into tears That is the walk she sobbed Kai Tzu and I so love but never ah never can we take it together again The Chinese Boy and Girl Isaac Taylor Headland,2022-09-20 Reproduction of the original The Chinese Boy and Girl Isaac Taylor Headland,1901 The Chinese Boy and Girl Headland Isaac Taylor,2016-06-21 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy The Chinese Boy and Girl Isaac Taylor Headland,2016-09-08 No thorough study of Chinese child life can be made until the wall of Chinese exclusiveness is broken down and the homes of the East are thrown open to the people of the West Glimpses of that life however are available sufficient in number and character to give a fairly good idea of what it must be The playground is by no means always hidden least of all when it is the street The Chinese nurse brings her Chinese rhymes stories and games into the foreigner s home for the amusement of its little ones Chinese kindergarten methods and appliances have no superior in their ingenuity and their ability to interest as well as instruct In the matter of travelling shows and jugglers also no country is better supplied and these are chiefly for the entertainment of the little ones To the careful observer of these different phases it becomes apparent that the Chinese child is well supplied with methods of exercise and The Chinese Boy and Girl (Classic Reprint) Isaac Taylor Headland,2017-12-18 Excerpt from The Chinese Boy and Girl NO thorough study of Chinese child life can be made until the wall of Chinese exclusiveness is broken down and the homes of the East are thrown open to the people of the West Glimpses of that life however are available sufficient in number and character to give a fairly good idea of what it must be The playground is by no means always hidden least of all when it is the street The Chinese nurse brings her Chinese rhymes stories and games into the foreigner s home for the amusement of its little ones Chinese kindergarten methods and appliances have no superior in their ingenuity and their ability to interest as well as instruct In the matter of travelling shows and jugglers also no country is better supplied and these are chiefly for the entertainment of the little ones About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any

Isaac Taylor Headland, 2020-11-07 This book seeks to show that it is the same sunlight that falls on the homes of the East and the West It also leads us to consider distant companions such as the Chinese boy and girl as true small peoples humans like them and thus think more kindly of them and thus the mission of this book will have been fulfilled Sui Sin Far/Edith Maude Eaton Annette White Parks, 1995 This first full length biography of the first published Asian North American fiction writer portrays both the woman and her times The eldest daughter of a Chinese mother and British father Edith Maude Eaton was born in England in 1865 Her family moved to Quebec where she was removed from school at age ten to help support her parents and twelve siblings In the 1880s and 1890s she worked as a stenographer journalist and fiction writer in Montreal often writing under the name Sui Sin Far Water Lily She lived briefly in Jamaica and then from 1898 to 1912 in the United States Her one book Mrs Spring Fragrance has been out of print since 1914 Today Sui Sin Far is being rediscovered as part of American literature and history She presented portraits of turn of the century Chinatowns not in the mode of the yellow peril literature in vogue at the time but with an insider's sympathy She gave voice to Chinese American women and children and she responded to the social divisions and discrimination that confronted her by experimenting with trickster characters and tools of irony sharing the coping mechanisms used by other writers who struggled to overcome the marginalization to which their race class or gender consigned them in that era Superbly researched thoughtfully reasoned and beautifully written Will be the foundation for all future work on Sui Sin Far Elizabeth Ammons author of Conflicting
