James Robert Parish, Vincent Terrace

The Far Pavilions Ep Version:

The Far Pavilions M. M. Kaye, 2015-12-01 This sweeping epic set in 19th century India begins in the foothills of the towering Himalayas and follows a young Indian born orphan as he is raised in England and later returns to India where he falls in love with an Indian princess and struggles with cultural divides The Far Pavilions is itself a Himalayan achievement a book we hate to see come to an end It is a passionate triumphant story that excites us fills us with joy move us to tears satisfies us deeply and helps us remember just what it is we want most from a novel M M Kaye's masterwork is a vast rich and vibrant tapestry of love and war that ranks with the greatest panoramic sagas of modern fiction moving the famed literary critic Edmond Fuller to write Were Miss Kaye to produce no other book The Far Pavilions might stand as a lasting accomplishment in a single work comparable to Margaret Mitchell's achievement in Gone With the Wind

Missionaries in the Golden Age of Hollywood Douglas Carl Abrams, 2022-12-15 This book examines major British and American missionary films during the Golden Age of Hollywood to explore the significance of race gender and spirituality in relation to the lives of the missionaries portrayed in film during the middle third of the twentieth century Film both influences and reflects culture and racial gender and religious identities are some of the most debated issues globally today In the movies explored in this book missionary interactions with various people groups reflect the historical changes which took place during this time

The Classic Serial on Television and Radio Robert Giddings, Keith Selby, 2001-02-14 The classic serial invented by BBC Radio Drama sixty years ago survived and adapted itself to television the arrival of colour and the global market in what has become a flood of classics with all channels competing for ratings and overseas sales This richly detailed book traces these developments and analyses the genre's response to social economic technical and cultural changes which have re shaped it into the form we recognise today The book contains considerable interview material with performers and media professionals

Contemporary British and Irish Film Directors Yoram Allon, Del Cullen, Hannah Patterson, 2001 The guide encompasses the careers of over 350 directors from the last 20 years A must for any film studies library it is a unique reference to the changing dynamics of these cinemas

Hybrid Heritage on Screen E. Oliete-Aldea, 2015-07-08 Hybrid Heritage on Screen provides a long overdue thorough analysis of the 1980s Raj Revival It examines imperial nostalgia and troubled ethnic gender and class relations during the Thatcher Era as represented in cinema and television

Crime against Women Prof. Sarita Vashistha, 2021-09-15 Ironically women are still victimised in our society They have been at the receiving end from the very beginning of our civilization and culture Cutting across the regional and political barriers their lot has been the same The wrong perception prevalent in our society is that they are born to be subservient to men and they must be confined to child bearing and rearing only There has been a growing trend of violence against women more so with hunger and greed for material things Progressive changes in personal lifestyle living standards and varied growth caused by urbanisation and changes in social ethos all contribute to violent attitudes and tendencies towards women which have resulted in an increase in crimes against women This book would prove to be of worth for all scholars researchers and social workers who may prefer to know about the subject They would find it easy to read and comprehend It would certainly be an asset for them Representing Culture Claudia Alvares,2009-03-26 The essays collected in this volume are interdisciplinary in nature defying the traditional boundaries that compartmentalise and contain knowledge within particular camps Heir to the undisciplining legacy of cultural studies they attempt to transcend the restrictive frameworks of pre established discourse engaging in new and fruitful combinations of theories and methodologies The general aim of the book is to indicate new perspectives for the exercise of cultural criticism on the basis of the major issues that confront us today rather than articulate any canonical viewpoint on traditional cultural studies These essays thus share a common denominator in that they seek to explore the field of current experience through the exercise of critique The recontextualisation of cultural studies that this book attempts occurs along the vectors of identity politics visual culture and technology The collection draws attention to the fact that these vectors do not consist in delimited camps but rather in axes that intersect with each other at each instance

The Complete Actors' Television Credits, 1948-1988: Actresses James Robert Parish,Vincent Terrace,1989

Encyclopedia of Television Film Directors Jerry Roberts,2009-06-05 From live productions of the 1950s like Requiem for a Heavyweight to big budget mini series like Band of Brothers long form television programs have been helmed by some of the most creative and accomplished names in directing Encyclopedia of Television Film Directors brings attention to the directors of these productions citing every director of stand alone long form television programs made for TV movies movie length pilots mini series and feature length anthology programs as well as drama comedy and musical specials of more than 60 minutes Each of the nearly 2 000 entries provides a brief career sketch of the director his or her notable works awards and a filmography Many entries also provide brief discussions of key shows movies and other productions Appendixes include Emmy Awards DGA Awards and other accolades as well as a list of anthology programs A much needed reference that celebrates these often neglected artists Encyclopedia of Television Film Directors is an indispensable resource for anyone interested in the history of the medium

Syncope Catherine Clément,1994-01-01

Writing imperial histories Andrew S. Thompson,2016-05-16 This book appraises the critical contribution of the Studies in Imperialism series to the writing of imperial histories as the series passes its 100th publication The volume brings together some of the most distinguished scholars writing today to explore the major intellectual trends in Imperial history with a particular focus on the cultural readings of empire that have flourished over the last generation When the Studies in Imperialism series was founded the discipline of Imperial history was at what was probably its lowest ebb A quarter of a century on there has been a tremendous broadening of the scope of what the study of empire encompasses Essays in the volume consider ways in which the series and the wider historiography have sought to reconnect British and imperial histories to lay bare the cultural expressions and registers of colonial power and to explore the variety of experiences the home population derived from the empire      Carl Davis: Maestro Wendy Thompson, Carl Davis, 2016-10-27 How do you bring a forgotten silent film back to life What are the techniques behind writing a successful film score How do you work with and inspire choreographers Carl Davis s fascinating story gives an insight into the prolific composing and conducting career of one of the world s most celebrated film and television composers Born in New York Carl Davis spent his early years of his career in American before going on to study in Copenhagen From there he moved to Britain and entered the worlds of classical music theatre film and television He has since composed almost 400 film and TV scores winning several BAFTAs and Ivor Novello awards as well as establishing himself as the number one choice to score silent films Some of his most recognisable work includes the soundtracks for The French Lieutenant s Woman BAFTA Ivor Novello Winner Pride and Prejudice 1995 TV Series Scandal 1989 and Cranford Written by Wendy Thompson Carl Davis Maestro is a glimpse into the life of a consummate all round musician and his impact on many spheres of music making This is the full eBook version of the original hardback edition      Encyclopedia of Television Series, Pilots and Specials Vincent Terrace, 1985
