Lotteries, Knowledge, and Rational Belief Igor Douven, 2021-02-04 We talk and think about our beliefs both in a categorical yes no and in a graded way How do the two kinds of belief hang together The most straightforward answer is that we believe something categorically if we believe it to a high enough degree But this seemingly obvious near platitudinous claim is known to give rise to a paradox commonly known as the lottery paradox at least when it is coupled with some further seeming near platitudes about belief How to resolve that paradox has been a matter of intense philosophical debate for over fifty years This volume offers a collection of newly commissioned essays on the subject all of which provide compelling reasons for rethinking many of the fundamentals of the debate

The Fight Dan Bongino, 2016-01-12 New York Times Bestseller The popular radio host and former Secret Service agent reveals how leadership and security failures have endangered Americans In The Fight Dan Bongino picks up the story where his New York Times bestselling book Life Inside the Bubble ends tackling important political and security issues and offering new solutions From Hillary's emails to the security failings at the White House including the drone crash and the fence jumper from Charlie Hebdo to Bowe Bergdahl the author examines how our government has allowed our security efforts to lapse both at home and abroad He also offers solutions to the growing terrorist threat and how we can protect American citizens while also deconstructing what's wrong with our political process and what his experience running for office has taught him As a former member of the elite Presidential Protection Division who served three presidents Bongino is uniquely qualified to provide a view from behind the curtain to warn readers about the political system that is failing them and the security future that won't protect them The majority of Americans only come into contact with security when they fly or enter their workplace They are rarely able to become acquainted with the politicians they know from robocalls and TV ads Bongino has experienced the inner workings of the national security apparatus and the failed political theater that we all feel but rarely understand Using a mix of recent events an insider's analysis and tales from his time protecting the president he shows where clear and foreseeable leadership failures led to grave consequences From a broken political process to a government that consistently misreads the American people he shows us where America has gone wrong and how we can fight back The Fight shines a much needed light on the troubling games DC politicians and insiders play with the American people Sean Hannity The Fight is a lesson plan for fighting back against the Washington DC political machine Mark Levin
