The Fiftieth Gate A Journey Through Memory:

The Fiftieth Gate Mark Raphael Baker, 2017-07-03 What right did I possess as a child of survivors to recreate an account of the Holocaust as if I was there In writing The Fiftieth Gate Mark Baker describes a journey from despair and death towards hope and life it is the story of a son who enters his parents memories and inside the darkness finds light In his evocative prose Baker takes us to this place of horror and then brings us back to reflect on these events and remember Never again Across the silence of fifty years Baker and his family travel from Poland and Germany to Jerusalem and Melbourne as the author struggles to uncover the mystery of his parents survival his father Yossel was imprisoned in concentration camps and his mother Genia was forced into hiding after the Jews of her village were murdered Twenty years on from its first publication The Fiftieth Gate remains an extraordinary book It has become a classic and has now sold over 70 000 copies In Baker s new introduction he recalls his motivations for writing this important memoir and highlights how the testimonial culture in Holocaust studies has spread to awareness of other genocides and our responsibility and failure to prevent them As well as The Fiftieth Gate A Journey Through Memory a seminal book on his parents experience during the Holocaust Mark Raphael Baker wrote a compelling memoir Thirty Days A Journey to the End of Love about the death of his wife He was Director of the Australian Centre for Jewish Civilisation and Associate Professor of Holocaust and Genocide Studies in the School at Monash University Melbourne He died in 2023 Heartrending and beautiful This simply written subtly complex narrative is instantly recognisable as a masterpiece and the reader is rewarded by the light it sheds Age Combining precise historical research and poetic eloquence Mark Baker s The Fiftieth Gate remains the gold standard of second generation Holocaust memoirs on the occasion of its twentieth anniversary edition Christopher R Browning Baker does with memory what Rembrandt does with light He uses it to model to imagine to illuminate to astonish Philip Adams The Fiftieth Gate Mark Raphael Baker, Rachel Palgan, 2004 Memory Work Nina Fischer, 2015-09-27 Memory Work studies how Jewish children of Holocaust survivors from the English speaking diaspora explore the past in literary texts By identifying areas where memory manifests Objects Names Bodies Food Passover 9 11 it shows how the Second Generation engage with the pre Holocaust family and their parents survival Reluctant Witnesses Arlene Stein, 2014-08-04 Americans now learn about the Holocaust in high school watch films about it on television and visit museums dedicated to preserving its memory But for the first two decades following the end of World War II discussion of the destruction of European Jewry was largely absent from American culture and the tragedy of the Holocaust was generally seen as irrelevant to non Jewish Americans Today the Holocaust is widely recognized as a universal moral touchstone In Reluctant Witnesses sociologist Arlene Stein herself the daughter of a Holocaust survivor mixes memoir history and sociological analysis to tell the story of the rise of Holocaust consciousness in the United States from the perspective of survivors and their descendants If survivors tended to see Holocaust storytelling as mainly a private affair their children who reached adulthood during the heyday of identity politics reclaimed their hidden family histories and transformed them into public stories Reluctant Witnesses documents how a group of people who had previously been unrecognized and misunderstood managed to find its voice It tells this story in relation to the changing status of trauma and victimhood in American culture At a time when a sense of Holocaust fatigue seems to be setting in and when the remaining survivors are at the end of their lives it affirms that confronting traumatic memories and catastrophic histories can help us make our world mean something beyond ourselves

The Bibliography of Australasian Judaica 1788-2008 Serge Liberman, 2018-11-01 This bibliography includes all traceable self contained books monographs pamphlets and chapters from books which in some way pertain to Jews in Australia and New Zealand between 1788 and 2008 Born in Russia in 1942 Serge Liberman came to Australia in 1951 where he now works as a medical practitioner As author of several short story collections including On Firmer Shores A Universe of Clowns The Life That I Have Led and The Battered and the Redeemed he has three times received the Alan Marshall Award and has also been a recipient of the NSW Premier s Literary Award In addition he is compiler of two previous editions of A Bibliography of Australian Judaica Several of his titles have been set as study texts in Australian and British high schools and universities His literary work has been widely published he has been Editor and Literary Editor of several respected journals and has contributed to many other publications

Thirty Days Mark Raphael Baker, 2017-07-31 One minute my wife was there In a flash she was gone In the ten months of Kerryn s dying I prepared myself for everything except for her death Now that she is gone I am desperate to know her as I never knew her Thirty Days is a portrait of grief of a marriage and of a family It is the moving memoir of Mark s wife of 33 years Kerryn Baker who died ten months after her diagnosis aged 55 from stomach cancer It is also a study in how we construct our own version of the past after Mark discovers a cache of Kerryn s letters in the laundry cupboard and has to rethink their relationship It is a book about memory and its uncertainties as Mark sifts through photos and home movies as his wife gets sicker and his search for clues about their relationship grows more desperate In her last days Kerryn reveals her traumatic childhood to Mark for the first time She emerges as the rock of the family a brave and wise woman clear eyed about her treatment focused on finding the path to a peaceful death Paradoxically her dying brings the couple back to the intensity of their first love In the tradition of Paul Kalanithi s When Breath Becomes Air and Cory Taylor s remarkable memoir Dying Mark Baker s Thirty Days is an inspirational book about death and dying As well as The Fiftieth Gate A Journey Through Memory a seminal book on his parents experience during the Holocaust Mark Raphael Baker wrote a compelling memoir Thirty Days A Journey to the End of Love about the death of his wife He was Director of the Australian Centre for Jewish Civilisation and Associate Professor of Holocaust and Genocide Studies in the School at Monash University Melbourne He died in 2023 Piercing unsparing and sweet this book will break your heart and put it back together again Miranda Richmond Mouillot author of A Fifty year Silence A lament a wail a raw confession of suffering and regret but most of all of love Ramona Koval During the first thirty days of mourning as Jewish law decrees it

Mark Baker wrote about his wife Kerry Baker who lived an ordinary life as most of us do but who was extraordinary in the courage dignity and above all the gentle wise grace of her dying Few of us will be able to die so well but every reader of this book will be inspired to do so Baker recalls their life together and writes of Kerry's death and dying in many tones lyrically tenderly with self deprecating irony embarrassed candour and more but one hears in them all pain so raw and need so desperate that it sometimes threatened to unhinge him He writes of love and grief with power that brings back to our hearts knowledge that is too often only in our heads that the disappearance of a human personality will forever be mysterious to us because every human being is irreplaceable Raimond Gaita Thirty Days is more than a cancer memoir it is a searching courageous intensely intimate portrait of a marriage a family a beloved woman a man wild with loss Baker addresses the reader with searing honesty from the very heart of grief His testimony will leave you devastated enriched irrevocably altered Emily Bitto A beautiful memoir not just about one marriage but the nature of marriage itself Readings A book characterised by love empathy and connection to life Sydney Morning Herald Baker's memoir allows his readers to see the magnitude of our existence beneath the surface of our daily lives Courier Mail
